Hiring Officer Replacement

By: MJ

I visited with Police Chief Paul Craft about the requirements of the city when replacing an officer of the law as well as cost to city for the person vacating the position.

VACATE POSITION: If Mr. Kluesner vacates his position with the city he would be entitled to $10,000+/- in pay for his accrued vacation pay, comp time and some sick leave pay.

REPLACEMENT COSTS: Hiring a replacement would cost city $10,000+/- if the new hire had not completed the Police Officer Standard Training (POST). If the city pays for the training of a new officer ($10,000) there is an agreement signed by both parties that if within a three year period the new hire leaves the position in Dillon then the city will only pay a percentage of the training cost and trainee would pay the remaining cost. The training must be completed within a year of hiring and takes three months to complete.

Chief Craft stated that when hiring someone they look for a person that has completed the POST and possibly someone that is already located in the area.

Chief Craft stated that his budget has the $20,000+/- to cover what will be owed to Mr. Kluesner if he officially leaves his position and cost if needed for training a replacement officer.

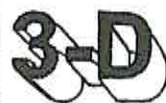

Letter to the Editor

Thank you to Beaverhead IGA for their $15 Produce Bag Sale that allows the customer to fill the paper bag with a variety of fresh produce. As a dietitian, I am always promoting fresh veggies and fruit. Yet frequently I hear about the challenges with affordability vs. other sale items which usually include processed foods. During the last $15 Produce Bag Sale I was able to purchase broccoli, cauliflower, tomatoes, celery, cabbage, yams, apples, oranges - All for $15!

A big THANK YOU to our local IGA store!

MEMPHIS BASED HELIX BUSINESS SOLUTIONS LOCATES WESTERN OFFICE — MOVING IN TO DILLON'S HISTORIC MARY INNES SCHOOL BUILDING

ORACLE Cloud Partner of the Year and Bozeman Incubator's Summit Circle member, Helix Business Solutions brings high tech business to Southwest Montana; announces "We're Moving In" and series of events introducing Helix to Southwest Montana

Experiencing substantial growth, Helix Business Solutions is moving into Southwest Montana with a western office in downtown Dillon. In the last two years alone, Helix, a Memphis based customer service (CX) and experience integration expert, has successfully delivered customer engagements on the Oracle Service Cloud (Right-Now) solution for over 300 customers all over the world. Helix has experienced 45 percent growth year-over-year for the past five years and currently employs six associates in Bozeman and six in Dillon, including Dillon native, Travis Cottom who is leading the western expansion.

"We're officially moving-in!" said Cottom. "Not only are we moving in, but we're doing it in a big way. We're hiring some of the most qualified and hardworking associates the industry has to offer and we're also working with Montana Universities, specifically The University of Montana Western to continue our growth. Our Helix office is also located in the same building where I, my grandfather, dad, uncle, cousins, brother and sister all attended kindergarten and first-grade, the old Mary Innes School building. The Mary Innes is a perfect fit for the Helix culture of learning and adapting to our customers' needs and the evolving customer experience industry."

The historic Mary Innes School building in Dillon, owned by Old School Commercial Properties, LLC, will soon undergo renovations to better host its new tenant. In addition to its fitting location, Helix has fast-paced plans for growth in Southwest Montana. Helix will be the feature of UM-Western's "Bridges to Business" on December 4th where Cottom and associates will discuss potential career opportunities at Helix and the upcoming Helix Bootcamp over the week of January 5th, 2015. This week-long Customer Experience Bootcamp delivers world-class training in the Oracle Service Cloud (RightNow) software and provides recent hires and potential associates a rich understanding of the opportunities at Helix.

"Helix specializes in helping businesses deliver outstanding Customer Experience. Southwest Montana is a central part of Helix's strategy to drive superior customer service solutions worldwide," said Kevin Sherwood, Founder and Co-CIO of Helix. "The impressive personal ethics, adaptability and technical aptitude of the people in this region is phenomenal. They match our Helix culture and corporate personality perfectly. Add in recent impressive local additions to our team that are deeply experienced and leaders in this industry, and we have a genuine formula for continued success. What a team! Memphis and Southwest Montana, with their unmatched lifestyle, is the perfect combination and where we plan to be for years to come."

This year, Helix was recognized with the OracleExcellence Award for Specialized Partner of the Year for North America in Customer Experience (see attached release), a recognition that places Helix at the top of its industry. In addition, Helix was accepted into the Bozeman Incubator's elite Summit Circle for high tech, high growth businesses

UMW Football signs Twin Bridges senior receiver

The University of Montana Western has released the signing of Twin Bridges senior receiver Cody Pierson to a NAIA/Frontier Conference letter of intent.

Montana Western's head football coach B.J. Robertson has announced the addition of Cody Pierson to the Bulldog football family. Pierson has signed his NAIA/Frontier Conference letter of intent to attend class and play football at UMW starting in the fall of 2015.

Pierson is a 6-foot-1 175 pound standout. He has been selected to the football all-state team following his junior and senior seasons. In addition to his all-state selections he was named to the all-conference team three consecutive seasons following his sophomore, junior, and senior years.

Cody has been a standout on the court and track for the Falcons as well as on the football field throughout his prep-career. He has exhibited his athletic ability excelling in basketball and track. Pierson has been a three time all-state performer on the court and on the track.

In the classroom Cody has continued his excellence. He has been named to the Twin Bridges High School honor roll as well as a member of the National Honors Society. He plans to study biology while attending Montana Western. He is the son of David and Tamara Pierson.
