Vaughn DeMar Taylor, 96

Vaughn DeMar Taylor passed away on November 25, 2014 peacefully at home in Dillon, Montana. He was 96 years old and proud of it. DeMar was born on May 18, 1918 in Afton, Wyoming to Vaughn F. Taylor and Anna Packer Taylor. DeMar was the first-born of seven children. He grew up learning to work on a ranch milking cows, farming, raising cattle and sheep. In 1936, DeMar graduated from Weston High School in Idaho, and then attended Utah State University. In 1937, he served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in New Zealand.

DeMar married Marie Corbridge on Oct. 2, 1940. They had one daughter, Judy Marie. Sadly, Marie was challenged with poor health and passed away, Sept. 8, 1967. DeMar married Joan Currell on Dec. 14, 1967. With Joan's children, Craig, Dana, and Kyle, DeMar started fatherhood over again at the age of 49 years old.

The family has often said that when DeMar worked, he worked hard, and when he played, he played hard. He was a great entrepreneur and always enjoyed a challenge or a new project. He was very creative in his ideas and problem solving.

DeMar was sent to Washington D.C. to lobby before Congress for the Clark Canyon Dam. He was a persuasive speaker and the dam was ultimately built. DeMar enjoyed being a pilot and flying his plane. His experiences are legend with his family and friends. Some of his travels included going to Alaska and Mexico.

DeMar served in many positions in the LDS Church. His favorite was as Bishop of the Dillon Ward. He encouraged and financially helped many young men to serve missions.

DeMar had a wonderful sense of humor. He was a good sport and able to laugh at himself as much as anyone. Many of his stories have been passed on to his posterity. He was always very generous and shared his "toys" with others. It was important to him that everyone would have a good time.

He enjoyed golf, fishing, skiing (until age 84), dancing and playing cards. He loved life and claimed he was able to do everything that he ever wanted to do.

DeMar was a man with a great value of family, work, travel and humor. We have learned much from him and his example. We are grateful for his love and loved him very much.

DeMar is survived by his loving wife, Joan; his four children, Judy (Steve) Goodsell, Craig (Jackie) Taylor, Dana (Steve) Huffaker, and Kyle (Milonie) Taylor, eleven grandchildren, twenty-four great grandchildren and three great-

Marlon Ray Cross

(1931-2014)

Marion Ray Cross passed away from a hard fought battle with liver cancer on Wednesday, November 26th.Marion was born in Leon, Kansas on July 17, 1931 to Garrett and Freddie Cross. He was one of nine kids, and grew up working on family farms. Marion was around farming and ranching most of his life. He graduated high school and started pursuing his life as a small ranch manager. He soon enlisted in the United States Army where he would stay for eight years and came home a Korean War veteran.After returning home he would go back to working on the ranch until meeting the love of his life one day at a small diner. Marion and Jackie would later get married and live happily ever after. After having one daughter in Kansas they took a leap of faith and moved halfway across the country to a small town in Montana. He started working on the Sheep creek operation of the Matador Ranch near Dell. They would have two more daughters and start the life of a big ranch family. Marion would eventually get promoted and moved to Dillon and became the manager of the Matador. He worked there for over thirty years before retiring. He and Jackie bought a house outside of town where they would spend the rest of their lives.Even though he was officially retired he never officially stopped.
He did odd jobs here and there to keep busy such as county water commissioner and part time ranch consulting. Marion was always fascinated with horses and riding. Whether it be breaking, training, or riding he was good at it all. He trained multiple horses to become top notch cutting horses and trained many more horses for every day riding.He is survived by his loving wife Jackie, his caring daughters Trula Kay Blize, Diane Gleason, and Darlene Cross, his grandchildren Jake Gould, Lexi Blize, Melanie Woodruff, Trevor Blize, Austin Cross,THE STORAGE PLACE
