John "Jack" Zink

John P. "Jack" Zink, beloved husband, son, brother, uncle and friend was taken by the angels on December 1, 2014. Jack was born in Billings, MT on December 5, 1961 to John S. and Gay Lee Zink. Jack married his soul mate, Karen on August 8, 2014 on the 16th anniversary of their 1st date.

CELLIST AMIT PELED WILL APPEAR IN DILLON

World renowned cellist Amit Peled will appear in Dillon on Thursday, December 11, 2014, at the Beier Auditorium starting at 7:30 p.m. His appearance is part of the Dillon Concert Series and is sponsored by Carriage House Realty.

Amit Peled is a musician of profound artistry and charismatic stage presence. Playing a rare Andrea Guarneri Cello ca. 1689, he is acclaimed as one of the most exciting instrumentalists on the concert stage today.

Stop the Separation & Exclusion

By: MJ

In the news this past week we have seen how destructive people can be. Politics has an important role in what happens in our country. Is the mob actions of the people telling us that the government is out of control? In our own little community of Dillon have the taxpayers lost their constitutional rights to have a say?

At the city council meetings over the past year I have heard the council members say they will listen to someone that lives outside the city limits however they will only give marginal weight to what they have to say.

It is time we stop this segregation and start working together. We all pay taxes supporting Beaverhead County I which Dillon is a part of. Many people own businesses yet live outside the city limits. Should they be punished by not being listened to by the council members? Would Dillon be a town without those businesses?

Does Dillon have a growing and prosperous economy with new people moving into the area? Has Dillon brought in new industry since Stoltz left the area? Do you remember when Dillon had three clothing stores, shore stores and much more? It was a great town to own a business and live in.

Let's join forces, put our heads together and move forward with goals, purposes and solutions defining the area and then capitalize them by working together toward growing the community. New faces bring new ideas and new money.

Every coin has a flip side and there are benefits on both sides. Everyone has ideas -- some good some not so good. Without the support of the outlining populations would there be a Dillon?

MONTANA WESTERN VOLLEYBALL SIGNS POCATELLO SPECIALIST

The University of Montana Western's volleyball team has announced the addition of a libero/defensive specialist from Pocatello, Idaho to the 2015 recruiting class.

University of Montana Western's head volleyball coach Lisa Griffiths has announced the signing of Jacqueline Cuttlers to a NAIA/Frontier Conference letter of intent to attend class and play volleyball for the Bulldogs.

Cuttlers is a 5-foot-1 libero/defensive specialist from Century High School in Pocatello, Idaho. During her senior year she recorded 517 digs and 512 serve receptions defensively. In addition to her specialty she recorded 42 aces and had 10 kills. Jacqueline was a first team all-state selection for her play her senior year. She was a three time allstate selection as she earned second team honors following her sophomore and junior seasons.

"Jacqueline is a high level player who I am thrilled has chosen to become a Bulldog. I have watched her play for a long time and I know she has the skills, determination, and work ethic to be successful here," said UMW head coach Lisa Griffiths. "Her championship experience speaks for itself and I think she will make us better immediately by joining a strong group of returning defensive players."

Jacqueline plans to study physical therapy while attending class at Montana Western. She is the daughter of Jon and Ginger Cuttlers.

Toy's for Tot's

Tis the season for giving and receiving! Please consider giving to Toy's for Tot's New and unwrapped gifts are greatly needed. There are many ways and locations in which to make a difference.

- Collection boxes are set out at Britt's Bake Shop, Kings, Murdochs and The Bank of Commerce.
- Van's IGA is accepting cash donations, so add your name to the Toys for Tots train.
- if you'd like to make a larger donation but request a receipt, drop by HUB International (33 E Helena) and Kim can accept the donation and provide a receipt.
- The Bicentennial Apartments are coordinating a Senior Tree and they would welcome senior gifts or cash donations as well.
