Montana 1864:
Indians, Emigrants, and Gold in the Territorial Year

Montana Historian to sign books at The Bookstore

Montana's territorial year springs to life in the new book "Montana 1864" by Missoula author and western scholar Ken Egan.

Egan,who is executive director of Humanities Montana,takes readers through the year from the Vigilante hangings in January to the first territorial legislature in December. The history is told with intertwined stories about Indians, traders, gold miners, trail blazers, fortune-seekers, settlers, Vigilantes, presidents, and outlaws. Several women have prominent roles in the book,from Granville Stuart's Shoshone wife Awbonnie to precocious and perceptive Mollie

"PEARL HARBOR DAY"

73 years ago on a quiet Sunday in the Pacific. It was to become a day we would and or should never forget. It was declared to be a day of infamy. On this Sunday, it will become a life time that many of us had our lives shaped after. That day will always be known as "PEARL HARBOR DAY" the day when war was declared on the United States Of America, by the Japanese.

I was 6 years old and now time has passed and many other days have come to be added to the list of travesties to the country we call home.

On Sunday the 7th day of December 2014, please take a few moments to remember all of whom we know of that have given above and beyond.

Sincerely,

George Fryett a Veteran from another time.

chosen to the all-conference team two consecutive years. His 2014 selection follows his second team selection in 2013.

A.J. Wilson is a junior from Helena, Mont., who garnered second team honors from the conference. The 6-foot-1 240 pound linebacker played in all 11 of the Bulldog games totaling 66 tackles. In addition he had 7.5 tackles for loss ranking him second on the team.

Junior linebacker Joe Coker was selected to the second team defense. The 6-foot 215 pound Helena, Mont., native was selected to the all-conference team for the first time following 2014. Despite playing in only nine of Montana Western's games due to an injury he totaled 72 tackles tying him for second most on the Bulldog defense. Coker had seven tackles for loss totaling an astounding 100 yards.

Offensive lineman Will Thacker gained first team all-conference honors for his steady and powerful play at his right guard position. The 2014 selection was his second consecutive all-conference selection as he was selected to the second team following his sophomore campaign. Thacker is a 6-foot-1 290 pound native of Winnemucca, Nev., and anchored the Bulldog offensive line.

Senior Nick Brown gained his second selection to the all-conference second team. His other honor came in 2012. Brown is a 6-foot-2 275 pound left tackle from Spokane, Wash. He was a key member of the UMW offensive line that helped lead the offense to 4,246 yards of total offense if 2014.

Sam Rutherford is a 6-foot-1 215 pound running back from Great Falls, Mont. He has a unique blend of power and speed that helped him lead the team in rushing with 1,061 yards gained. He is the first Bulldog rusher to gain over 1,000 yards in a season.

UMW'S SELIN TO PLAY IN FCS BOWL

University of Montana Western's Phil Selin has been invited and has accepted the invitation to play in the inaugural FCS National Bowl at Florida International University.

Phil Selin just finished his senior season for the Montana Western Bulldogs but his playing days have not ended. He has accepted an invitation to play in the first ever FCS National Bowl on Sunday December 7 at 12 pm MST.

Selin is a 6-foot-2 240 pound defensive lineman from Great Falls, Mont. He ranked seventh nationally in total sacks with nine in 2014.

The FCS National Bowl is an annual post-season college football all-star game consisting of the top seniors from college football's Football Championship Subdivision and elite non-FCS schools. The FCS National Bowl is the only FCS level all-star game that will feature a number of pro scouts from the NFL, CFL, and arena leagues.

The game is coached by pro coaches. The game has confirmed scouts

Christmas Market to Offer Local Flavor in Cozy Lodge Setting

Sisters in law, Amber and Sarah Hartman are bringing "Dirt Road Décor" back to the Dillon area on Saturday.

After finding local support at the Dillon Farmer's Market they have gathered their talented friends for a Christmas Market and Open House at Expedition Lodge, where Sarah and her husband operate a local event venue and vacation rentals.

Saturday, December 6th Tight Line Adventures and Dirt Road Décor will open the doors of Expedition Lodge, Gatehouse, and TLA Fly Shop for the community to enjoy a cozy shopping experience. Folks can look forward to browsing items from Windy Prairie Creations, LadyLyn, B Nourished, Sean's Monsters, Photo57 by Sarah, PAW Prints, Montana Morning Coffee + Sonoran Border, 28threads, Bear Paw Creations, AVON, The Outlaw Cook, Rivers End Photography, and Rix Fly Boxes.

"We've always loved bringing old stuff to life and many of these vendors inspired us to sell our junk decor," says Sarah. "Southwest Montana is precious to us + we are thrilled to bring these creative folks together for a one-of-a-king shopping experience."

Join them Saturday, December 6th from 9 am-3 pm at 1120 Eliason Lane – Highway 91 South to Carrigan Lane and then a right onto Eliason Lane.

PLEASE HELP KAREN GIBSON

Karen and her husband Kyle manage Sportswear and Design here in Dillon. Karen has recently been diagnosed with an aggressive form of lung cancer. She is going to Missoula every week for chemo and radiation treatments. Karen has signed up for insurance but does not have it at this time.

If you can help - PLEASE stop by Sportswear and Design during the Christmas Stroll or any regular business hours and make a donation to the Gibson family.

You can make a donation through Go Fund Me - however, we checked and that site keeps about 8% of the money plus .30 per donation. Then you have to request the funds and you will get them in 5-7 business days. If you want Karen to get all of the money when you make the donation, stop by Sportswear & Design on Glendale Street and help her out.

Sheehan (Mary Ronan).

"These are the characters that changed Montana,including those who resisted the change with words and war," Egan said.

It certainly was a tumultuous year,spurred by a perfect storm of the Civil War,the discovery of gold, and the relentless push of white Americans into Indian lands. Egan's vivid narrative style lets readers experience these currents of western expansionism as they actually happened.

In 1864,vast herds of buffalo roamed the northern short-grass prairie and numerous Native American nations lived on both sides of the adjacent Continental Divide. Lewis and Clark had come and gone,and so had most of the fur trappers and mountain men. The land that would become Montana was mostly still the wild and untrammeled landscape it had been for millennia.

That all changed in a single year-1864-because of gold,the Civil War,and the relentless push of white Americans into Indian lands. By the end of that pivotal year in the history of Montana-and in the history of the American West-Montana was the newest United States territory.

In Montana 1864, writer and scholar Ken Egan Jr. captures this momentous year with a tapestry of riveting stories about Indians,traders,gold miners,trail blazers,fortune-seekers,settlers, Vigilantes, and outlaws-the characters who changed Montana,and those who resisted the change with words and war.

Egan's vivid narrative style immerses readers in the conflicting currents of western expansionism as it actually happened,providing a unique and thought-provoking examination of Montana's beginnings.

The author will be signing copies of his book at The Bookstore,Friday,December sth from 5:00-7:00 pm

Contact The Bookstore at 683-6807 if you have any questions or would like to reserve a copy of "Montana 1864."

Senator Tester's Jobs and Recreation Bill

By: MJ

Talk around the coffee shops is that Senator Tester's Jobs and Recreation Bill has been attached to the Defense Spending Bill and that Senator Daines has signed off on it.

YES, there is a package that has been attached to the Defense Spending Bill but it DOES NOT include Senator Tester's Jobs and Recreation Bill. The package DOES include the Rocky Mountain Heritage Act. 14,000+/- acres has been released from the Heritage Act and it is my understanding that more acres identified in the Act will have continued studies prepared and may or may not be released in the future. The land in the Heritage Act to be released are in Rosebud and Powder River Counties and land to be reassessed by BLM is in Garfield and Petroleum Counties.

You may or may not have voted for Senator Daines, however you can help him do a better job for Montana by becoming an active participant by sharing your concerns and passing on your information.

Get factual information by contacting Senator Daines via a phone call at the Billings office 406-969-1736 or Washington DC office 222-225-3211. Send an e-mail: click Congressman Steve Daines Home Page -- click on Contract and send your e-mail.

The Frontier Conference football all-conference teams were announced and UMW had seven players receive the honor for their performances throughout the 2014 season.

The Montana Western football team placed seven members on the 2014 Frontier Conference all-conference teams. The Bulldogs had three players selected to the first team and four players selected to the second team.

The players selected to the defensive all-conference team include senior defensive back Jesse McCloud, senior defensive lineman Phil Selin, junior linebacker A.J. The offensive selections for the Bulldogs were junior offensive lineman Will Thacker, senior offensive lineman Nick Brown, and sophomore running back Sam Rutherford.

Jesse McCloud is a 6-foot 200 pound safety from Manhattan, Mont., who was selected to the first team all-conference defensive team. He has been chosen to the all-conference team three consecutive years.

Senior defensive lineman Phil Selin was selected to the first team all-conference team. The 6-foot-2 240 pound Great Falls, Mont., native has been

THANK YOU AND APOLOGIES

We want to thank all who have donated the hides to the Elks this year. The money we raise goes back into the community. On the other hand, we want to apologize for the delay in picking up the hides this year. The Veteran Johnnie Plutt was unable to head this years drive, however Travis Herren stepped up to the plate. He had a few miscommunications and lack of help. This is a learning experience and will turn into a great fund-raiser next year.

Thanks goes out to the persons who did help Travis. We will be better next year. FROM THE ELKS LODGE 1554

State of the Heart Therapy, Inc. offers Grateful Hearts Charitable Giving Opportunity!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dillon, MT – State of the Heart Therapy will present Grateful Hearts Charitable Giving to support the Caring Cupboard at Our Saviors Lutheran Church. During the months of November and December, bring non-perishable food items to the clinic at 209 Taylor Drive and we will credit an outstanding account for that dollar amount.

At State of the Heart Therapy, we understand that finances can be a challenge to all families. In keeping with our mission to provide high quality, cost effective therapy and serve the Dillon community, we have a tempting offer for you. This is our annual holiday tradition to serve both our patients and those in need at the same time. Bring in non-perishable food items, receive financial credit on your therapy account and help fight hunger in our community at the same time. It's a win for everyone. We hope this helps you to enjoy the holidays even more. We know that generosity is contagious. You may donate for yourself or others. Tell a friend and bring as much as you can. We will be bringing the food to the Caring Cupboard at Our Saviors Lutheran Church the third week of December 2014. Have a blessed and relaxing holiday season.

Catherine "Kitty" Griffin, a long time Montana resident and owner and operator of State of the Heart Therapy says, "We are so grateful to be a part of such a generous community here in Dillon and want to reach out and support others during this holiday season."

Catherine Griffin serves as a private practitioner in Dillon and provides therapy and outreach services to her community and the state of Montana. Her areas of clinical specialty include treatment of hearing loss, dysphagia, and family education.
