James Herbert Selway

James Herbert Selway, Sr. died Nov. 28, in Aliso Viejo, CA. He was born here in Dillon on Jan. 17, 1927.

Jim went to college at the University of Montana in Missoula. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army Air Corps. He worked as a rancher, service station operator, banker and real estate agent. A lifelong conservative Republican, he lived life large. His car had a Montana license plate 3-pine for the ranch he never left. He remained the ultimate cowboy, with boots, belt, jeans and hat to prove it, nearly fifty years after leaving Montana. The ravages of Parkinson's finally tamed him, but he "never left the ranch."

He was preceded in death by: his parents, Elmer and June Selway, of Dillon; late wife Geri Terry, of Phoenix; and late wife Mary (Tory) Selway, of Oceanside, CA.

He is survived by: former wife Janet Nichols Moore, of Phoenix; sons Jack M.B. Selway (Sharon Koski), of Pueblo, CO, and James H. Selway, Jr. (Sandra), of Falls Church, VA; stepdaughters Kathleen Novello, Mary Frances Agrusa and Suzanne Fazio; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; and three step-grandchildren.

His ashes will be spread at his favorite spots in Montana and on the ranch he never left.

Safety Advised on National Forest
During Trapping Season

Montana's trapping season is in full swing and the Beaverhead Deerlodge National Forest wants to offer important reminders for all winter recreationists.

Melany Glossa, Beaverhead Deerlodge National Forest Supervisor, says "Montana's Fish Wildlife and Parks (FWP) has trap setback requirements from roads, trails and campgrounds and most trappers take additional efforts to place traps in areas well away from those frequented by other recreationists." Dog owners and others concerned about trapping can minimize risks by staying on well used routes and keeping pets close by when hiking, snowshoeing, or skiing." Glossa adds "keeping pets close to you while out in the woods helps reduce not only accidental trapping concerns but also keeps pets from unnecessarily harassing wildlife." According to FWP, winter recreationists should be on the look-out for signs of trapping activity; a lightly traveled snowmobile track or a few footsteps in the snow may indicate a trapper's presence and should be avoided.

Recreationists who want to learn more about Montana's trapping season should look at the website <http://fwp.mt.gov/hunting/trapping/>. The link has good information, like how to become more proficient at releasing traps and snares and Montana Fish Wildlife and Parks contact information.

For additional information about winter recreation opportunities on the Beaverhead Deerlodge National Forest contact us at (406) 683-3900 or look us up on the internet at <http://www.fs.usda.gov/recmain/bdnf/recreation>.

BSCH Drama team places first at the Ugly Sweater Invitational in Townsend Montana

The Beaverhead County High school Drama team placed first at the Ugly Sweater Invitational at Townsend, Montana on Saturday, December 13th, beating out fellow Class A team Belgrade by 22 points. The team had seven students advance to the final round which helped secure the win for the team. The speech team also had a strong weekend with three students in the final round and finishing in second place behind Belgrade and just ahead of Butte Central.

Sophomore Maggie emerged as the Humorous Solo champion, Maggie had a strong performance in the final round to secure the win for her. The Beavers had 4 of the eight finalists in the Humorous Solo event this weekend which is an impressive feat in an event that had 12 contestants. Ray Shipman finished in third, Finley Andrew placed fifth and Mariah Mosher in eighth.

Heidi Martin and Sarah Griffin placed second in Humorous Duo this weekend, it was their first outing with a new selection and they did extremely well with it. Teammates Shelby Kluesner and Madison Mosher also competed in humorous duo but failed to make the final round and finished in 10th place.

Abbey Thomas competed in the always tough Serious Solo event and finished in fifth place and teammate Josey Creger placed ninth, missing finals by the loss of the tie breaker.

Freshman Isabella Kadramas had a breakout weekend competing in Humorous Oral Interpretation and placing second with her presentation of "Camp Sunshine", she edged out teammate Cameron Freebury by one point who placed third. Angelika Jones finished the day in 13th place.

Carmen de Los Rios had an excellent day, and her strong preliminary rounds helped her advance to finals and place second in Serious Oral Interpretation.

Jade Winters made her first attempt at a speech event this weekend and had great results, Jade has competed in drama for three years and due to a loss of her partner, competed in Spontaneous Oral Interpretation on Saturday, and was rewarded with at fifth place showing for her efforts. Teammate Frank Pope was in a three way tie to advance to the final round and unfortunately lost the tie breaker and finished in ninth.

From: "Chuck Dishno"

Obamacare condensed to 4 sentences...

This summary was written by a Purdue engineer.

Here are the 10,535 pages of Obamacare condensed to 4 sentences...

As humorous as this sounds... every last word of it is absolutely TRUE!

1. In order to insure the uninsured, we first have to un insure the insured.
2. Next, we require the newly uninsured to be re-insured.
3. To re-insure the newly uninsured, they are required to pay extra charges to be re-insured.
4. The extra charges are required so that the original insured, who became uninsured, and then became re-insured, can pay enough extra so that the original uninsured can be insured, which will be free of charge to them.

This, ladies and gentlemen, is called "redistribution of wealth" ... or, by its more common name, SOCIALISM.
