HUNTERS FOUND

The missing hunters have been located in a southwest portion (Big Sheep Creek/Cabin Creek) of Beaverhead County, approximately 40 miles west from Dell Montana. The father and son got stuck in deep snow and spent two nights with their vehicle. Both are in reasonably good condition.

The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office received a report of overdue hunters Sunday afternoon. Beaverhead Search and Rescue was called to locate a father and son that had left their home on December 20th at 7:30 A.M. to hunt for wolves. The hunting party did not provide relatives of any information concerning their hunt. Searchers could only identify a starting point based upon the hunters usual activity.

Search members utilized four wheel trucks and all-terrain vehicles, to comb the area outside of Dell Montana, commonly known as Sage Creek, until 10:00 P.M. Saturday night. A helicopter from Lifeflight in Butte assisted as well. Weather was problematic.

Monday, 16 volunteer search and rescue members again work with fixed wing aircraft and searchers utilizing trucks and ATV's in the Sage Creek area and additional areas in southwest Beaverhead County.

The missing hunters were identified as Scott and Conrad McDougal, 56 and 33 years of age.

Barrett Hospital & Healthcare Employees Give to Food Pantry

The employees of Barrett Hospital & HealthCare donated a combined total of 865 pounds of food and 380 pounds of water to the Beaverhead Community Food Pantry this holiday season. Stemming from a challenge by North Campus employees (Clinic, Rehab Services, Foundation, and Home Health & Hospice) to South Campus employees (all other Hospital departments), generous employees brought canned goods and other non-perishable items to work to benefit those in need of food this holiday season.

This effort was spearheaded by North campus captains Pat Scott, Erin Lake, and Jennifer Westfall, and South campus captains Heather Eddie, Marie Smith, and Stephanie Vinson. The employees of Barrett Hospital & HealthCare wish our community a very happy and healthy holiday season.

MONTANA WESTERN WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Montana Western women's basketball program faced two top five teams and a third receiving votes in the latest NAIA poll at the Frontier Conference Las Vegas Shootout December 18-20, 2014.

The Bulldogs fell to third ranked Vanguard University (Calif.) in the opening game 55-77. Jenna Banks paced the UMW effort with 11 points while Sierra Higheagle and Bailey Smith each added 10.

On the second day of the tournament the Bulldogs lost 51-67 to a Hope International squad knocking on the door of the top 25 poll. Kaye Bignell pulled down six rebounds to complement her 18 points in the contest.

In the final game of the Las Vegas Shootout UMW faced NAIA number five Campbellsville (Ky.) and struggled to get going on the offensive end of the court, falling 20-55.

In the three games Bignell led the Bulldogs with 30 points, Higheagle netted 24, and Banks scored 20. Montana Western returns home for a few days of rest before traveling to Billings, Mont. for two games in the Rocky Mountain College tournament Dec. 29 and 30.

UMW MEN'S BASKETBALL STREAK CONTINUES

The Montana Western men's basketball team continued its winning ways Saturday night, knocking off the defending national champion Vanguard University 75-61.

The Bulldogs claimed an eight point lead at intermission, then widened the gap over the final 20 minutes. The Bulldogs win streak has been extended to six games, paced largely by Coach Steve Keller's newest additions to the program. Dexter Williams Jr. led UMW with 16 points and 12 rebounds. Sharp shooting Ryan McCarty and 6-10 center Quinn Smith each added 15 points and Steven McCall tallied 11. Williams Jr., McCarty, Smith, and McCall are each transfers in their first season with UMW.

Keller was very pleased with his team's effort going into a week's rest for the Christmas holiday. "We are playing exceptional team basketball, I wish I could bottle it. This was an outstanding weekend for Bulldog Basketball."

Barrett Hospital & Healthcare Contributes to National Efforts for Safer Care

A new report from the Department of Health and Human Services shows that hospital stays are safer now than they were four years ago. Since 2010, 50,000 hospital deaths have been prevented nationwide, a savings of $12 billion in health care costs. Patients are now at a lower risk for getting infections, being administered a drug incorrectly or being harmed during their hospital stay. The report also showed that hospital-acquired conditions were reduced by 1.3 million between 2010 and 2013.

Hospitals are finding innovative solutions to protect patients and their families. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare strives to provide the highest quality care to every patient in southwestern Montana. Partnering with Mountain-Pacific Quality Health, Montana's Quality Innovation Network-Quality Improvement Organization, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare actively participates in local and national health care quality initiatives. These initiatives include reducing hospital readmission rates, reducing adverse drug events and preventing healthcare-associated infections.

According to Ken Westman, CEO "The medical staff, professional and technical staff, and support staff at our hospital and clinic are all committed to safety – it is our number one priority. I am very proud to work with these talented individuals who daily demonstrate their dedication to providing safe, quality care with compassion for each patient."

Though patient care is improving, there is still work to be done. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is dedicated to continuing this trend of safer patient care. "We will continue to improve processes and problem-solve issues to prevent healthcare-associated harm. Our patients deserve our top performance and that takes perseverance to achieve. We will always be working to better our patients' care and experiences."

For more information regarding what Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is doing to improve patient care, please contact Maria Koslosky, Quality Director at 406-683-3190.
