MDT proposes safety improvements for Laknar Lane and Secondary Highway 278

The Montana Department of Transportation (MDT) would like to notify the public and seek comments on a proposal involving two projects in Beaverhead County. The projects and locations are as follows:

Project 1- MDT proposes to install delineation, center-line and shoulder striping on about 1.5 miles of Laknar Lane, north of Dillon, MT. The project begins at the north end of the bridge crossing the Beaverhead River (reference post 0.29) and extends 1.5 miles northward to the intersection with Clayton Lane ending at reference post 1.83. Proposed work includes delineation and pavement markings.

Project 2- MDT proposes to install curve signing, flashers and delineation for about 1.0 mile of Secondary Highway 278 northwest of Bannack, MT. The project begins at reference post 27 and extends west for 2.0 miles ending at reference post 29. Proposed work includes curve signing, flashers and delineation.

The purpose of both projects is to improve the safety of the roadway for the travelling public.

The projects are tentatively scheduled for construction in late 2015, depending on completion of all project development activities and availability of funding.

No new Right-of-Way or utility relocations will be needed.

For more information, please contact Butte District Administrator Jeff Ebert at (406) 494-9625 or Project Design Engineer Patricia Burke at (406) 444-9420. For the hearing impaired, the TTY number is (406) 444-7696 or 1-800-335-7592, or call the Montana Relay at 711. Christmas Light Displays

By: MJ

Driving around Dillon you could see many beautiful displays spreading Christmas cheer. For someone that does not decorate their own home it is a joy to enjoy the efforts of others. Throughout the entire area the art and ideas of individuals were displayed. This year in a vacant lot on Pacific Street there was a large luminary display accompanied with music for the enjoyment of all who took a few moments to watch in its entirety.

Its people that take the time and endure the expense of decorating the community with holiday cheer that make it special. Thank you from one that did enjoy your efforts.

Prayers for Military Peace Keepers at St. James Episcopal Church:

There will be a service honoring military personnel who have provided a peaceful nation for all of us. They may be active or veterans, at home or abroad. The service will be held at 12 noon on the first Wednesday of every month at St James Episcopal Church (203 E. Glendale). All are welcome; families, friends, military personnel and anyone who would like to thank and pray for all of the Armed Forces of the United States. The service is fairly brief and can fit into most lunch hours. The next service will be Wednesday, January 7, 2015 at 12 noon. Any questions, call 683-2735. Please join us.

OSHA® FactSheet

Updates to OSHA's Reporting and Recordkeeping Rule: An Overview

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration's updated recordkeeping rule includes two key changes. First, the rule updates the list of industries that are exempt from the requirement to routinely keep OSHA injury and illness records due to relatively low occupational injury and illness rates. The previous list of industries was based on the old Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) system and injury and illness data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) from 1996-1998.

The new list of industries that are exempt from routinely keeping OSHA injury and illness records is based on the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) and injury and illness data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) from 2007-2009. Note: The new rule retains the exemption for any establishment with ten or fewer employees, regardless of their industry classification, from the requirement to routinely keep records.

Second, the rule expands the list of severe work-related injuries and illnesses that all covered employers must report to OSHA. The revised rule retains the current requirement to report all fatalities within 8 hours and adds the requirement to report all inpatient hospitalizations, amputations and loss of an eye within 24 hours to OSHA.

The new requirements will take effect on January 1, 2015. Establishments located in states under Federal OSHA jurisdiction must begin to comply with the new requirements on January 1, 2015. Establishments located in states that operate their own safety and health programs should check with their state plan for the implementation date of the new requirements.

The final rule will allow OSHA to focus its efforts more effectively to prevent fatalities and severe work-related injuries and illnesses. The final rule will also improve access by employers, employees, researchers and the public to information about workplace safety and health and increase their ability to identify and abate serious hazards.

Changes to reporting requirements: What needs to be reported to OSHA?

OSHA's updated recordkeeping rule expands the list of severe injuries and illnesses that employers must report to OSHA.

As of January 1, 2015, all employers must report:

- All work-related fatalities within 8 hours.
- All work-related inpatient hospitalizations, all amputations and all losses of an eye within 24 hours.
- You can report to OSHA by:
 - Calling OSHA's free and confidential number at 1-800-321-OSHA (6742)
 - Calling your closest OSHA Area Office during normal business hours
 - Using the new online form that will soon be available.

Only fatalities occurring within 30 days of the work-related incident must be reported to OSHA. Further, for an inpatient hospitalization, amputation or loss of an eye, these incidents must be reported to OSHA only if they occur within 24 hours of the work-related incident.

Changes to recording requirements: Who is required to keep records?

OSHA regulations require certain employers to routinely keep records of serious employee injuries and illnesses. However, there are two classes of employers that are partially

Letter to the Editor

I have now lived in this town and county for 24 years. There is a cloud that hangs over its head. What is that? Criticism!!

There are individuals who would bitch, moan and groan about the sun coming up! They seem to have nothing better to do with their time and lives. I must confess that it greaves me, that I too have wasted my time thinking about the nonsense of my own criticisms. Perhaps this letter is a waste expressing mine!

In this day and age we had better begin praying about and FOR the government and law enforcement not criticizing them. The talking heads in the news media have nothing good to say. The trials and challenges, I believe, are only beginning for this nation and every state and county. We are beginning a New Year in three days. Will you join me in praying to the end that God, Jehovah, would heal this land? I do know that many of you already do. The Lord thanks you!

Sincerely,

Ed Flanders

MONTANA WESTERN WOMEN DOWN BETHANY COLLEGE 71-27

The University of Montana Western women's basketball program stormed back into the win column defeating Bethany College 71-27 at the Hampton Classic basketball tournament held at Rocky Mountain College.

The Bulldogs built a 17-1 lead before the 15:00 mark of the first half and were up 41-8 at intermission. Sierra Higheagle paced the first half scoring with 10 followed by Melody McCall with 8 points and 7 from Kaci Matthies. "We started the game with good intensity, our challenge was to maintain that for a full 40 minutes tonight," said Coach Lindsay Woolley.

Bethany, suiting only five players as a result of flight cancellations, opened the second half hot behind the play of Dillon, Mont. native Alex Brammer who finished the game with 15 points, leading all scorers. The Swedes, coached by former Bulldog assistant coach Brett Morehouse, played a very disciplined game, keeping the foul count low and using timeouts in the place of substitutions.

Eleven Bulldogs scored in the contest led by Higheagle and Matthies with 12 points apiece. Kaye Bignell collected 8 rebounds and the Bulldogs held a 39-27 advantage in rebounds. The Bulldogs return to the court Tuesday, seeking a third victory this season over the Bluehawks.

BULLDOGS DEFEAT DICKINSON STATE 85-75

The University of Montana Western men's basketball team kicked off the Hampton Inn Classic at Rocky Mountain College by extending its win streak to seven games and avenged last month's loss to Dickinson State defeating the Bluehawks 85-75.

The Bulldogs were led by the 31 points and 10 rebounds of Dexter Williams, Jr. and 21 points from Ryan McCarty. "McCarty had his best game of the season, he single handedly got us back into the game down 12-2 in the first half and Dexter had an unbelievable game," said Coach Steve Keller.

The Bulldogs found themselves down by 10 points to start the contest and did not take the lead until Williams, Jr. completed a three point play with 1:16 left in the first half, making the score 44-41. Montana Western never trailed again. In the second half the lead was extended to as many as 19 points, but the Bluehawks fought back to narrow the gap in the closing minutes. "This was a great grind out win for us," said Keller. "We shut down their three point shooters in the second half and played pretty good defense."
