Loretta Eunice Cashmore, 89

Loretta Eunice Cashmore, 89, of Dillon, MT peacefully passed away on December 31, 2014, surrounded by her family.

Loretta was born to Walter Lee and Roberta (Bean) McDowell in Butte, Montana on July 3, 1925. Loretta's family included her older brother, Dean and younger sister, Aileen (Warrick). The family lived on their homestead in Monida, Montana and in 1937 moved to Dillon.

Loretta graduated from Beaverhead County High School at the age of sixteen. Soon after graduation she applied for and was accepted in the Civil Aeronautics School in Seattle, Washington. She completed her training and returned to Dillon to work as an airport control operator and later transferred to Pocatello, Idaho. Loretta resigned from the CAA and enlisted in the Army Air Corps in April 1945.

After completing basic training, she was transferred to Sheppard Field, Texas for control operator training and was promoted from private to corporal. Loretta was then transferred into the 106th Army Airways Communications System headquarters as Special Orders clerk. In April 1946, Loretta was promoted to sergeant and earned the commendation ribbon while serving at the 106th AACS.

She was set to transfer to Japan, but instead made the decision to return to civilian life.

Upon returning to Dillon in 1951, Loretta got a job as bookkeeper at Ben Redd Chevrolet. It was here that she met

A. Alden "Bud" Cashmore and in 1952 they married. Together they raised three children, Randy, Loran and Alden in Dillon and called it home for the rest of their lives. As a bookkeeper, Loretta In accepted a position at Vigilante Electric Co-Operative in 1962 and was promoted to Office Manager in 1974; retiring in 1989 after twenty-seven years of service.

Loretta continued to support the military by joining the American Legion. She was an active and dedicated member of American Legion Post 20 for 63 years. Loretta served in the Color Guard, sold Memorial Day poppies to honor the sacrifices of our veterans, and remembered veterans each Memorial Day by placing a flag on their final resting place. A member of the American Legion Auxiliary for 24 years, many veterans know Loretta best for the many military service pillows she made and distributed over the years. Her loyalty and devotion to our veterans is sewn into each and every pillow.

Loretta's greatest joy was her family. Her love for her family was unlimited and unconditional. She spent countless hours researching family history to share with others. Loretta was also very outgoing and adventuresome. She held a private pilot's license, was the Montana State Small Bore Champion in 1954 and drove the Alcan Highway to Alaska four times. She participated for seven years in the annual Chief Joseph Trail Ride, a week-long, one-hundred mile horseback ride. She always enjoyed hunting, fishing, horses and Indian artifacts.

Loretta is survived by her sons, Randy M. Scott of Fairbanks, AK and Alden (Aaron) Cashmore of Dillon; daughter Loran (Brian) Bond of Seattle, WA; her grandchildren Lynden Bond of Brooklyn, NY, Taylor Cashmore of Dillon and Matthew Bond of Seattle, WA; sister, Aileen Warrick of Dillon, sister-in-law Dorotheanne McDowell of Lind, WA and numerous nieces and nephews.

FINANCIAL HELP NEEDED

My name is Judy Cherry. I still live in Dillon but now I have to stay at home a lot. This is my 5th bout with cancer and it will be my last. I worked at the nursing home about 16 years then worked for Senior Companion and I made lots of friends in these 35 years.

I would like to see my family one last time. So if you can help, please I am on go fund me and also have a savings account at Pioneer Federal Savings. Thank you so much.
