Carolyn J. Ross

Carolyn J. Ross was born in Wayne, Nebraska on June 10, 1941 and passed away in Dillon, Montana on January 12, 2015 surrounded by her beloved family.

Family was the most important thing in Carolyn's life. She loved spending time camping with her numerous grandchildren and she always attended their sporting events. Her passion for quilting, church activities, and traveling adventures brought her many close friends. Carolyn had boundless energy, a strong spirit, and a love of life that were contagious to those around her.

She is survived by her husband of 53 years, Donn Ross; her children Treva and Rich Peterson, Scott and Wendy Ross, Terri and Gary Haverfield; her grandchildren, Aubrey, Aundrea, Tanner, Michael; and her great grandchildren Dillion, and Ellis.

A memorial service will be held Friday January 16, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Dillon, Montana. Light refreshments will be provided after the service. Donations in Carolyn's memory can be made to the Southwestern Montana Family YMCA or the First Presbyterian Church, both in Dillon, Montana.

Beaverhead Animal Shelter Thrift Shop

The Beaverhead Animal Shelter Thrift Shop will reopen in February at our new location at 28 E. Center in Dillon. The store hours will be Wednesday - Saturday, 10 am - 4 pm.

We are currently accepting donations. (1) Please, only items in good condition. (2) Sorry, no clothing. (3) Some furniture items will be considered.

All proceeds will go to the Beaverhead Animal Shelter. We do not receive the funding from the mill levy until 2016, so we need to make ends meet for all of this year. Your support of the Thrift Shop will help.

Please contact: Sue at 406-451-8377 or Yvonne at 406-925-9191 regarding donations and/or if you would be willing to volunteer some hours to help out in the Shop.

Montana State Parks Seeks Information About Vandalism At Clark's Lookout State Park

Montana State Parks (stateparks.mt.gov) is asking the public to help provide information concerning a case of vandalism at Clark's Lookout State Park near Dillon, Montana.

The incident occurred sometime between 5 pm on Friday, January 9 and 12 pm on Sunday, January 11. An interpretive sign at the park was pushed over, possibly by a vehicle, breaking the metal base from the ground. The approximate cost of replacing the sign is $1800.

Vandalism detracts from the public's enjoyment and adds unnecessary costs to management of the park. Anyone with information about this case is urged to call Game Warden Kerry Wahl at (406) 490-0956 or 1-800-TIP MONT at (800) 847-6668 (calls can be anonymous).

Clark's Lookout State Park is located above the Beaverhead River and provided the Lewis and Clark Expedition with a view of the route ahead. On Aug. 13, 1805, Captain William Clark climbed this hill overlooking the Beaverhead River to get a sense of his surroundings and document the location. Interpretive signs explain navigational methods used by the expedition. A short walk to the top of the lookout provides a magnificent view of the Beaverhead Valley.

Also, we had another small case at the Poindexter Slough Fishing Access site (another knocked over sign).

Home Basketball Games Continue!

Women's Basketball vs. Westminster College

Saturday Jan. 17 2:00 pm

On Saturday afternoon the Bulldogs host the Westminster Griffins in what is expected to be the last time Westminster visits Straugh Gymnasium as a member of the Frontier Conference. The Bulldogs look to knock off the Griffins before Westminster moves to NCAA Division II next year, leaving the Frontier Conference after 15 years of membership. Westminster went 1-1 last week to open conference play, losing to Carroll, but only fell from the number 4 to 5 spot in the Top 25 Poll. The Griffins own a 13 game win streak over the Bulldogs, but UMW showed off an intense half-court defense last week which should test Westminster's high powered offense. Sierra Higheagle continues to lead the Bulldogs averaging 11.5 points per game while fellow junior Kaye Bignell collects a team leading 6.4 rebounds per game. Senior Jenna Banks leads the team in both assists and steals per game.

Men's Basketball vs. Westminster College

Saturday Jan. 17 4:00 pm

The Bulldogs defeated nationally ranked Rocky Mountain College and the Carroll Saints last week leading to a climb to the #9 spot in the NAIA Top 25 poll. The Bulldogs relied on big games by senior Stephen McCall, 33 points on Thursday, and junior Quinn Smith, 20 points Saturday, to extend their current win streak to 12 games. The Bulldogs have won their last three matchups with the Griffins, but the series has featured a number of upsets and close games in recent years and Saturday promises to be an exciting final contest at the Straugh between these rivals.

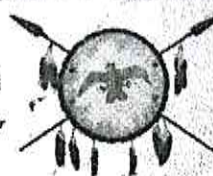

Following Saturday's games the Bulldog Basketball teams will hit the road for games at the University of Great Falls and MSU-Northern next weekend.

HELENA'S GARRETT SIGNS WITH BULLDOG BASKETBALL

Henry Garrett a 6-foot-8 Helena High product has signed an NAIA Letter of Intent to join the University of Montana Western men's basketball program.

Garrett has been a four-year varsity starter for the Helena High Bengals. As a junior in 2013-2014, Garrett averaged over eight points, six rebounds, and two blocks per game while leading his team to a third place finish at the state tournament. Garrett was recognized as a member of the 2014 Montana AA All-Tournament team. As a senior Garrett is shooting 44 percent from the floor and averaging 3.4 blocks per game.

"We like Henry's size and athleticism, he is already a good rebounder and shot blocker who also shows great potential for improvement in the offensive aspect of his game," Montana Western head coach Steve Keller said of Garrett. "Henry is one of the best big men in the state and we look forward to watching him develop into a player who can become a force in the Frontier Conference."

BOOKS AND BABIES TO RESUME

The weekly occurrence of the early literacy program at Dillon Public Library, "Books and Babies," will resume on Thursday morning, January 15 at 10:00 am. Several sessions were missed due to the holiday closures. We want to welcome back all of the regulars, and invite anyone with toddlers (age 0 to 36 months) to attend these fun and informal programs to help develop the skills your toddler will need to be ready for reading and the formal classroom. These programs are a half hour of songs and finger play and lap games and a half hour of toys and play, which provide the attendees an opportunity for social interaction. It's also a great opportunity for parents to meet and discuss parenting joys, triumphs and tribulations. Hope to see you there!

Thursday, January 15, 10:00 am. Dillon Public Library - Please use the East Glendale entrance as the Library is closed at that time.

Letter to the Editor

Another year is out the door
And still Lavon is such a boor
He tries and tries to be so witty
But his writing always smells so shi—
Liberals always think they have such prose
You feel like beating them with a hose
Lavon actually believes he is so brainy
We hope he gets on a south bound trainy
Lavon must stop with his moron pen
So people will buy the paper again!

DOUBLE OVERTIME WIN

The Dillon Beavers went to Belgrade for a non-conference basketball game that went into double overtime before Dillon slid past the Panthers 49-48.

The first overtime saw each team getting eleven to put them into second overtime before the exciting one point win. The Beavers were ahead after the first quarter 13-11.

The leading scorer for Dillon was Jason Ferris with 14. Other points came from Trae Williams, Nate Simkins & Travis Ackerson with 6, Tyler Jory with 5, Tanner Haverfield 4, JD Ferris and Justin Ferris 3 and Parker Love added 2.

ELK STUDY PLANNED FOR ELKHORN MOUNTAINS

In collaboration with the Elkhorn Working Group, Helena National Forest, Bureau of Land Management, Montana State University, and Montana Department of Military Affairs, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will begin a study next month looking at the impact of mountain pine beetle infestation on elk habitat and herd movement in the Elkhorn Mountains.

The project entails collaring 30 cow and 15 bull elk allowing researchers to closely monitor herd movements over a four year period.

Researchers will be looking to see how the extensive beetle infestation and death of ponderosa, lodge pole, and white bark pine are affecting elk movements, hunter access, elk security, hiding cover, and forage availability. Data derived from an elk movement study conducted in 1982 and 1992 will provide researchers comparisons on elk locations pre-beetle infestation and now.

If possible, two wolves will be collared so that elk movements relative to wolves may be tracked as well. All capture and collaring operations for this study are expected to be completed in early Feb.

The proposal for the study was first written by FWP Biologist Tom Carlsen (now retired) and the Elkhorns Working Group, and will be supervised by FWP's Dr. Kelly Proffitt.

Proffitt says the study may help confirm some hypotheses about the role of beetle kill in wildlife behavior in this area, and will help with the development of elk habitat management standards in areas affected by beetle kill.

"Beetle infestation and tree mortality is a landscape-scale impact on elk habitat. We hope this study will help us better understand how this infestation affects elk habitat and elk movements so that we can respond appropriately in our elk management strategy in the future," says Proffitt.

Funding for the study has been appropriated by the US Forest Service and FWP, with contributions from the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, the Montana Department of Military Affairs, and the Cinnabar Foundation.

The Elkhorn Mountains are managed in partnership as the Elkhorn Cooperative Management Area by the US Forest Service (USFS), Bureau of Land Management (BLM), Natural Resources Conservation Service, and FWP. Within the USFS, the Elkhorn Mountain range is the only one of its kind, designated and managed as a Wildlife Management Unit.
