Carolyn J. Ross

Carolyn J. Ross was born in Wayne, Nebraska on June 10, 1941 and passed away in Dillon, Montana on January 12, 2015 surrounded by her beloved family.

Service will be held Friday January 16, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Dillon, Montana. Light refreshments will be provided after the service. Donations in Carolyn's memory can be made to the Southwestern Montana Family YMCA or the First Presbyterian Church, both in Dillon, Montana.

George "Bub" William Eaves Jr. age 69

George "Bub" William Eaves Jr. age 69 of Dillon MT, went home to be with God in glory Jan 15 2015.

George was born July 27 1945 in Dodge City Kansas to George and Grace Eaves. He excelled in track and field in his high school years. He was a dedicated protector of his family, which led him to serve on the U.S.S. Ticonderoga aircraft carrier as a marine for 3 years during the Vietnam conflict.

He worked with a tie gang on the Milwaukee railroad, driving spikes. During family reunions, the nephews would line up to see if this was the year they could beat him at arm wrestling. And year after year, the nephews were defeated.

He worked at Barretts Minerals for 35 yrs operating heavy equipment and sorting ore.

George was blessed with 3 children during his life and taught them how to love God with all their heart, soul, mind, and strength and to love others as we love ourselves. His greatest joy was to lead others to the Lord Jesus Christ. He displayed God's love through his acts of love and service to his family and the community. "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only." James 1:22

George is preceded in death by his mother and father, sister, and niece. He is survived by his wife, Tari Eaves, sons Brent and Eric Eaves, his daughter Shelly Larson, 3 sisters, 2 brothers, and various nieces and nephews.

There is a visitation scheduled for Saturday January 17, 2015 from 6 - 8 PM at Brundage Funeral Home. A memorial service will be held at the Prairie Bible Church on Sunday January 18th at 2 PM with committal services at Mountain View Cemetery on Tuesday, January 20th at 2:30 PM. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

DILLON COUPLE SENTENCED AS LEADERS OF MAJOR POACHING RING

Charles "Bill" Foster and his wife, Sally, were sentenced Thursday for their role in one of the biggest fish and wildlife related cases in southwest Montana in recent years. The Fosters were the last and most egregious violators among the seventeen co-defendants to be sentenced in this case which has now brought over $30,000 in fines and restitution.

The prosecution of these cases was based on a three year investigation into the Fosters' activities. FWP investigators discovered over 30 illegally taken deer and elk, as well 65 fish over the legal possession limit. They also determined the Fosters allowed nonresident family members to hunt using their tags, and assisted friends, and local residents in unlawful hunting and fishing activities.

In Thursday's District Court proceedings in Dillon, Judge Loren Tucker sentenced Charles Foster to six months of house arrest (with a conditional 10-year suspended sentence with the Department of Corrections). Charles Foster also lost all hunting, fishing, and trapping privileges for life (this means within Montana and 43 other Wildlife Violator Compact States). In addition, he cannot accompany anyone hunting, fishing, or trapping for 10 years.

For her part, Sally Foster was given a 5-year suspended sentence, lost her hunting, fishing and trapping privileges for ten years, and cannot accompany anyone hunting, fishing or trapping for five years.

Jointly, the Fosters were also fined $2,500 and will be responsible for $9,150 in restitution for the unlawfully taken fish and game animals. All unlawfully taken fish and game animal parts were forfeited to the state.

"It is a good day for the people who enjoy Montana's fish and wildlife resources, knowing that the Fosters were held accountable for the violations they committed over a ten year period," says lead FWP Investigator Chad Murphy.

In August, Charles Foster pled guilty to four felony counts of unlawful possession of game animals, and one felony count of tampering with evidence. At that time, he admitted to numerous crimes including failing to tag animals, transfer of hunting licenses, and taking over-limits of game animals. The tampering charged stemmed from his hiding of his camera's memory card from investigators. The card stored numerous pictures of the unlawful hunting and fishing violations.

Sally Foster had pled guilty in August to two felony counts of unlawful possession of game animals and one count of misdemeanor fishing without a license.

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS SHOULD BE A PART OF EVERYONE'S DAY!

The White Hat Coalition is currently looking for nominations for the 11th annual "Doer of Good Deeds" award to be presented to a person, group or organization that has performed an outstanding good deed in the last 12 months that has benefited or changed the life of others or the community as a whole.

To nominate just give the name, the deed or deeds, contact info of the nominee and contact info of the person nominating to Stan Smith at 850 West Park. Or call him at 683-4429 or 660-4429 or drop off a nomination at the Big Sky Cinema by the deadline of Monday, February 9th 2014.

This year the annual "Day of Good Deeds" will be Saturday, January 17th. Make this day the first day of a giving mind-set. Let's all catch the true spirit of community service.

THANK YOU FOR THE HELP

Thank you for all the help that has come my way. I have grandchildren and one on the way that I would like to see.

Your support so far has been wonderful and greatly appreciated.

Pioneer Federal is still set up for funds for me. Again, Thank you Dillon for everything.
