DILLON POLICE PRESS RELEASE

January 16, 2015

On the morning of January 15, 2015, the Dillon Police Department received information from Beaverhead County High School that they had received a bomb threat via email. The school was put on lockdown and evacuation of the school was conducted. Law enforcement officers from The Dillon Police Department and the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office assisted with the evacuation.

Simultaneously, Agents from the Helena Office of the FBI were notified and they began an investigation in regards to the author and origin of the email. The Montana Highway Patrol and the Helena Police Department were contacted and it was requested that they have their Bomb Detection Dogs respond to the high school. An initial sweep of the buildings was completed by Law Enforcement Officers.

The Detection Dogs arrived at approximately 1200 hours and completed their search at 1615 hours. There were no threats found.

The Dillon Police Department, with the assistance of the FBI and the Montana Division of Criminal investigation will continue to investigate this incident as well as the incident that occurred on September 29, 2014. At this time we do not believe the two incidents are connected. If anyone has any information that would help identify the individual or individuals that sent the email to the school are urged to contact the Beaverhead County High School at 683-2361 or the Dillon Police Department at 683-3701.

The Dillon Police Department would like to commend the staff and students of Beaverhead County High School for their efficient and orderly evacuation of the School.

Tim, and sisters, Janice, Roberta, Kathy, Mary, and her beloved sister Mona.

Grace was born on April 24, 1960, in Dillon, MT. Her early life would see her in Browning, and at the Intermountain Indian School in Utah. She had especially fond memories of her times at her grandparents' home, caring for bum lambs and riding on Daisy, the pig. Grace's travels took her to New Mexico, Washington, Florida, and Illinois. She became a chef at Meadow Lark CC in Great Falls. She attended college in Butte, and she loved her job as an optician, where she helped hundreds of people see more clearly.

Although a private person, Grace had an amazingly huge, open heart, and if you became her friend, you were a friend for life. She kept in touch with friends here in town and across the country. The biggest part of that wonderful heart was reserved for her children, to whom she was fiercely loyal, and generously loving. She fought to save her son when he was in a car wreck, she fought to save her daughter when she was run over by a truck, and she fought to give life to her twins late in life. There was nothing she would not do for her children, including driving to the ends of the state to rescue grandchildren and bring them into our home to raise. Because of her love, the family she and Greg built together grew from 4 to 6 to 12, and now, sadly has shrunk to 11. The hole created by her leaving is filled by the blessings of family that she fought for, created and nurtured. She will be dearly missed, and with us always.

A memorial service will be held for Grace on Sunday, January 25, 2 p.m. at the Maroon Athletic Center. All who knew her and would like to join with us to celebrate her life are welcome to attend. The JEMM fund for her children has been established at Butte Community CU for those who wish to donate.

Axelson Alternative Cremation is privileged to serve Grace's Family.

Charles "Charlie" Gene Stibal, 76

Charles "Charlie" Gene Stibal, 76, passed away very peacefully at his home on Jan. 15.

His passing was far removed from his hard working, hard playing and full life. As a life-long rancher, he and his wife, Sandra, raised two children (Sheryl and Guy) along with a large herd of cattle. Their grandchildren had the opportunity to work and play on the ranch in Roberts and Centennial Valley in Montana.

Charlie was born in Idaho Falls on Dec. 16, 1938, to Charles and Mamie Stibal. He was premature and was so small that he would fit in a shoebox. He was tough from day one and thrived as the baby of the family. In the early years, the family would travel from the Roberts ranch to the Price Place in Montana with the changing seasons. When Charlie was in the seventh grade, the family moved to Corvallis, MT. This fateful relocation was where Charlie met the love of his life, Sandra Lockwood. Sandra tells the story of seeing Charlie for the first time in grade school. He was so nervous, he threw up – Sandra was in love.

Charlie married Sandra on Jan. 4, 1957. A short time later, they welcomed their first child, Sheryl. As they moved from Corvallis to Dillon the family of three became a family of four with the birth of a son, Guy. Charlie, Sandra, Sheryl and Guy kept with tradition traveling from the Roberts place to the Montana ranch every year.

All the good times couldn't compare to the joy that Charlie's grandbabies brought him. Andy, Jake, Carly, Sarah, Tyrel, then later with the addition of Levi and Dillon; Charlie loved spoiling his grandchildren. In recent years, the great-grandchildren had added to his full family.

After finally retiring, Charlie and Sandra moved south of Idaho Falls where they were able to spend time with friends, family, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife, Sandra; daughter, Sheryl (Matt) Bailey; son, Guy (Vianna) Stibal; grandchildren, Andy, Levi, Jake, Dillon, Carly, Sarah and Tyrel; and 12 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Mamie Stibal; stepmother, Ann Stibal; sister, Shirley Stibal; and brother, Fred Stibal.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. Monday, Jan. 19, at Buck-Miller-Hann Funeral Home in Idaho Falls.

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS SHOULD BE A PART OF EVERYONE'S DAY!

The White Hat Coalition is currently looking for nominations for the 11th annual "Doer of Good Deeds" award to be presented to a person, group or organization that has performed an outstanding good deed in the last 12 months that has benefited or changed the life of others or the community as a whole.

To nominate just give the name, the deed or deeds, contact info of the nominee and contact info of the person nominating to Stan Smith at 850 West Park. Or call him at 683-4429 or 660-4429 or drop of a nomination at the Big Sky Cinema by the deadline of Monday, February 9th 2014.

This year the annual "Day of Good Deeds" will be Saturday, January 17th. Make this day the first day of a giving mind-set. Let's all catch the true spirit of community service.

Community Basement will be closed on Monday, Jan. 19th for Martin Luther Jr. King day.

BULLDOGS FALL TO GRIFFINS

The University of Montana Western women's basketball team battled the nations number 5 squad falling to Westminster College 45-60 in Frontier Conference action.

In the first half the Bulldogs kept the game tight behind junior McCall Hasquet's 13 points. Hasquet, a 5 foot 10 forward from Missoula, Mont. shot 5-7 from the floor, including 3-5 from behind the arc in the period. The Griffins were able to build a 10-point lead with 4:00 remaining in the half but Hasquet's third trey narrowed the gap to seven as the break.

In the second half the Griffins were able to wear down the Bulldog defense and connect from deep to keep the game in check. Westminster shot 6 for 12 from three in the second half and increased its lead to 20 points. The Bulldogs chipped away at the lead in the closing minutes as Hasquet added another deep basket and senior Jenna Banks converted two free throws on her way to 10 points in the game.

BULLDOG MEN ESCAPE WITH WIN

The University of Montana Western Bulldogs relied on solid free throw shooting down the stretch to pull away from the Westminster Griffins 73-64 at Straugh Gymnasium.

Bulldog senior Jordan Overstreet opened the game with a three and posted the first eight points for Montana Western on is way to 18 points in the contest. The Bulldogs took an eight point lead into halftime on Overstreet's 13 first half points and 10 from Dexter Williams Jr.

Westminster responded closing the gap to three points in the opening minutes of the second period. Back to back threes by Tim Lott and Stephen McCall then an Overstreet layup put the Bulldogs up by nine and the lead was extended to 11 points halfway through the period. Montana Western closed out the game with solid free throw shooting, finishing 21-27 from the line.

Senior Stephen McCall led all scorers with 27 points, Overstreet added 18, and Williams Jr. finished with 16.
