HELP FOR FINANCIAL APPLICATION

Financial aid professionals and volunteers will be available at College Goal Montana on Jan. 28 at the University of Montana Western and on Feb. 3 at Beaverhead County High School to help students and families complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Filling out the FAFSA is an important step in the process to securing federal, state and institutional aid to help pay for school. Every year, students and parents miss out on financial aid simply because they don't apply.

"About $150 billion in federal grants, loans and work-study funds is available each year, and that doesn't include the state and institutional aid that is out there," said Rhonda Safford, College Goal Montana statewide coordinator. "Financial aid professionals in Montana will tell you that the return on the investment of taking half an hour or 45 minutes to complete the FAFSA is worth it."

To get free, one-on-one assistance completing the FAFSA, go to the Swysgood Technology Center computer labs on the UMW campus on Wednesday, Jan. 28 from 5-8 p.m. or Beaverhead County High School library on Feb. 3 between 5-7:30 p.m. No appointments necessary.

The items to needed to complete the FAFSA are:

- FAFSA PIN number — to get your pin, log on to www.pin.ed.gov. (Both students and parents will need PINs if the student is under the age of 24.)
- Social Security numbers (students and parents).
- 2014 federal tax returns (or 2013 tax returns if 2014 are not complete).
- W-2s, tribal income, other aid information (TANF, child support, other benefits).
- Additional asset information (money market funds, stocks, other investments).

The priority FAFSA filing deadline for Montana schools is March 1, except for the University of Montana and Missoula College University of Montana, which have a priority deadline of Feb. 15. Students attending schools in other states should contact their school directly regarding priority deadlines.

For important reminders and FAFSA tips, text "FAFSAHelp" to 41411.

For more information about this event, contact Ilene Cohen, 406-683-7311.

Brenda Womack said, "Our printed versions will still be available, this just makes the Dillonite Daily more available."

Harv Lake said, "This allows locals easy access from home or the office. It also increases readership for people coming to the area. Those ads in the Dillonite Daily just got more valuable."

MONTANA WESTERN VOLLEYBALL
INKS BELGRADE HITTER

University of Montana Western volleyball coach Lisa Griffiths announced the signing of 6-foot-1-inch hitter Kylie McCree, of Belgrade Mont., to a 2015 NAIA Letter of Intent. As an outside hitter at Belgrade High School, McCree lead the conference in kills with 191 while hitting .326 for the season. McCree contributed from the back row as well, recording 191 digs and 31 aces as Belgrade claimed the 2014 Montana Class A state title. She was named first team all-conference and earned team MVP honors as a senior.

During the 2013 season, McCree earned all-state honors and a state championship playing at Firth High School in Idaho. "Like a lot of the other players in the incoming class, Kylie has championship experience that has prepared her well to compete at the college level," coach Griffiths said. McCree, the daughter of Heidi and Jason McCree, will major in elementary education at Montana Western. An academic all-state and honor roll student, McCree has maintained a 3.5 GPA. "Kylie is the type of person, student and athlete that we want to add to the Bulldog family. She is a hard worker, a talented outside hitter, and a good student. She will fit in well and help fill the spots left by our senior class," Griffiths said. "I chose Montana Western because it offers the academic programs I want, and I found the coaching staff and team to be supportive and very friendly," said McCree of her decision.

Retired Educators: I need photos for our "Volunteer Album". If you have any pictures you would like to share depicting you as a volunteer, would you please contact me and let me know ASAP. We plan to put the album together within the next couple of weeks and would like very much to have pictures from members who have been involved with the youth and community. Call me, or send your photos to: Fran Schisler P.O. Box 83, Dillon, or phone me at 683-4329.

MONTANA WESTERN RODEO TO BE HONORED BY MONTANA PRO RODEO

The Montana Pro Rodeo Hall and Wall of Fame will recognize the University of Montana Western at its annual awards banquet Jan. 31 in Billings.

Montana Western and Montana State University will be featured for their continued success within the Big Sky Region and nationally. Coach Iola "Olie" Else will be recognized at the event and will be accompanied by a number of Bulldog rodeo national champions. Montana Western rodeo has produced 11 national champions and Else was recognized as National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association (NIRA) Coach of the Year in 2004. Additionally, two Montana Western rodeo athletes have served as student president of the NIRA.

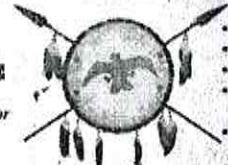

The annual awards slate will feature a number of honorees with Montana Western ties. The Lifetime Achievement award will be presented to the family of the late Benny Reynolds, of Twin Bridges, Mont., who won 1958 Rookie of the Year and 1961 All-Around buckles from the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association. Reynold's daughter Jenny Peterson competed in volleyball and basketball at Montana Western and her husband Jesse Peterson won a steer wrestling national championship for the Bulldogs.

Shawn Davis, a Montana Western graduate and Butte, Mont. native, will be recognized with a Legend award. As a collegian, Davis was a three time national champion with wins in saddle bronc, bareback and all-around. After graduating, Davis won three saddle bronc world championships, and has served as manager of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo since 1986.

The Garrison Family of Glen, Mont. will receive Western Heritage recognition during the ceremony. Tim Garrison won the 1989 steer wrestling national championship for Montana Western, where he competed alongside his brothers Jim and Todd. Todd his wife Latresha, also an alum, are parents of current Bulldog rodeo athlete Holden Garrison.

Here's the Dillon Middle School news for the week of January 26th through 30th

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: On Tuesday, chili salad with trimmings will be served with corn bread, and on Wednesday, we will have local beef hamburger on a school made whole wheat bun with trimmings. Thursday, we will enjoy chicken alfredo with a bread stick. And on Friday, we will have chicken noodle soup served with school made bread with peanut butter and honey, applesauce and fresh veggies.

On Tuesday, January 27th, the teams will travel to Butte East. The bus leaves at 2:00 pm. 7th B plays at 3:30 pm followed by 7A at 4:30, 8B at 5:30 and 8A at 6:30.

This Thursday, January 29th, 7A and 8A will host Butte Central. Games will be in the new gym at 4:00 and 5:00 pm. Mrs. Gibson is organizing a "black out" for the game similar to the white out that she did for boys' basketball. Students wearing all black on Thursday, will get out early to go to the new gym. The first 100 students will receive pom poms to use in their cheering. Rumors have it that "Shadow" will make an appearance.

Wrestling begins Monday, February 2nd. Wrestlers, you need to sign up with Mr. Moreni, and make sure you have your permission slips, physicals, and concussion packets turned in in order to participate.

Last week girls' basketball B teams traveled to Butte Central for the first games of the season. Both 7th and 8th grade teams lost, but they played very hard. Raegan Hale was the MVP for the 7th grade team, and Hallie Maisch was the MVP for the 8th grade team. Great job ladies.

Congratulations to the school winners of the geography bee. First place went to Hunter Bocking. Lindsey Huber achieved 2nd place. Third place was split by Daniel Martin, Cash Atkinson, and Jace Fitzgerald. Congratulations students. Hunter Bocking will be taking a written test in order to move on to the state spelling bee.

Congratulations to the following teams for winning the "rockin relay" in PE: Two sixth grade teams tied for first with a time of one minute, nine seconds: Grant Orme, Kat McWilliams, and Jace Fitzgerald on team one, and TJ Sigman, Abi Deffenbaugh, and Daxon Graham on team two. For the 7th graders, there was another tie at one minute, 32 seconds: Peter Gibson, Cole Johnston, and Jennifer Horner on team 1, and Jackson Nygren, David Podgorski, and Madison King on team two. The first place for the 8th graders went to Tanner Dahlin, Zane Johnson, and Christ Kiewatt with a time of one minute, 16 seconds. Also, congratulations to the winners of the team rock climb. Members of this four person team were: Mary Kidd, Mark Southam, Trent Wahl, and Sarah Hansen.

Several seventh grade classes are doing the WRITE thing. They are giving Montana youth a voice against violence. These seventh graders are writing about violence—the effects it has on others, what causes violence, and possible solutions. They are also making the commitment to being the difference in their schools, communities, and families. This essay contest will award two winners, a boy and girl, from Montana the opportunity to travel to Washington, D.S. and discuss solutions together. Last year, Alfred Peterson won this contest and was awarded an all-expense paid trip for his dad, his teacher, and himself to spend four wonderful days in Washington D.C. Along with meeting other youth leaders from across the United States, Alfred met political leaders, Chief Justice Warren, Harlem Globetrotters, slam poets, published authors, and singers from The Voice. The students will hear if their essay made the first cut by about the middle of April.

The BCHS key club is collecting pop tabs to benefit the Ronald McDonald House. Students, bring your pop tabs to DMS and give them to one of your teachers. The key club will be coming over weekly to collect what we've brought in. Let's support this very worthy cause.
