MONTANA WESTERN HONORED BY MONTANA PRO RODEO

The Montana Pro Rodeo Hall and Wall of Fame recognized the University of Montana Western at its annual awards banquet Jan. 31 in Billings.

Montana Western and Montana State University were featured for their continued success within the Big Sky Region and nationally. Coach Iola "Olie" Else was recognized at the event and was accompanied by a number of Bulldog rodeo national champions, current student athletes, Montana Western supporters and UMW alumni.

"We're so proud of legendary coach Olie Else and our excellent rodeo program," said Montana Western Chancellor Beth Weatherby. "What a memorable experience for our amazing students and alumni to be honored by the greats of Montana rodeo."

Montana Western rodeo has produced 11 national champions and in 2004 Else was recognized as National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association (NIRA) Coach of the Year. Additionally, two Montana Western rodeo athletes have served as student president of the NIRA.

"It's a great honor for the Montana Western rodeo program to be honored by the Montana Pro Rodeo," said Else. "We have had many of our athletes go on to be national champions and we have more individual college champions than many of the rodeo programs in the state. We are a program that has seen a lot of success."

Else was joined by some of her current rodeo student-athletes at the event in Billings. These students shared the honor and the successes of the UMW rodeo program.

"To me, it is going to be great to be recognized along with the people I have looked up to as a kid and during my rodeo career," said UMW rodeo athlete Doug Hall. "Some of the guys the Montana Pro Rodeo has honored are guys who kids dream of being like. It's going to be awesome to be among those people."

The annual awards slate featured a number of honorees with Montana Western ties. The Lifetime Achievement award was presented to the family of the late Benny Reynolds, of

Speech, Drama and Debate

The Beaverhead County High School Speech, Drama and Debate team traveled to Columbia Falls on Thursday, January 29 the compete at the state tournament which took place on Friday, January 30th and Saturday, January 31st. The Drama team placed 6th this weekend, all 13 members advanced to the semi-final round and 6 advanced to the final round, two members lost tie breakers and finished in ninth. The Speech team only had two representatives and Rhiannon Murdoch Kasta advanced to the semi-final round, placing 13 for her tournament.

Maggie Magee, had a wonderful tournament, placing fifth in Humorous Solo acting, "Maggie does a great rendition of Pippi Longstocking, and she fits the part perfectly." Said Head Coach Maria Hansen. Teammate Ray Shipman also did well this weekend, he advanced to semi-finals, then he lost a tie breaker to advance to the final round and finished his day in the ninth place spot. Finley Andrew also had a strong showing placing her in 10th, in Humorous Solo Acting as well.

Senior Josey Creger ended her High School Drama career with her third trip to the medal stand, she emerged in sixthth place for her efforts, in Serious Solo Acting and is hopeful to continue her acting career in college. Abbey Thomas had a strong showing as well but fell short of competing in the final round when she also lost a tie breaker to continue her day, she placed ninth.

Jade Winters and Abbey Thomas were rewarded for their efforts at the tournament by finishing in sixth place in Serious Duo Acting.

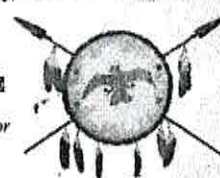

Freshmen Heidi Martin and Sarah Griffin continued to show that they will be a force to be reckoned with then next three years by ending their state run placing seventh in Humorous Duo Acting. Heidi and Sarah are so natural and work very well together, the future of our team looks great with these two. Shelby Kluesner and Mariah Mosher advanced to the semi-final round and placed 11th.

Rhiannon Murdoch Kasta and Madison Mosher represented the Speech side of the team, and did well at the tournament. Rhiannon advanced to semifinals, and placed 13th competing in Memorized Public address. Mariah Mosher missed the semifinal round, by one point, she competed in Oratory.
