ACCIDENT WITH LESS INJURIES THEN EXPECTED

There was an accident on the intersection of Helena and Idaho yesterday morning around 8:45 am. Both drivers were able to talk to authorities and were transported to the hospital to be checked out. It appears to look worse for the vehicles.

Police Chief Paul Craft said his office has deferred the accident to the Montana Highway Patrol for the investigation because that is a state highway.

Mallard's Rest and Valley Garden FAS Reopen

Mallards Rest Fishing Access Site (FAS) on the Yellowstone River south of Livingston has reopened to the public. That is also the case at the Valley Garden FAS on the Madison River south of Ennis.

The lengthy spell of warmer weather recently has eased the ice gorging conditions at both sites. Vehicular traffic is now permitted and both boat ramps are now open.

The closures have been in place since mid-November.

FWP advises the public to use extra caution as ice can still found along the course of the river.

Fiddlers Play for Montana Legislature

Not only are fiddlers busy preparing for the annual Dillon Fiddle Contest on Feb. 14th and 15th, but they were all present to play on the floor of the Montana House Of Representatives and the Senate on Feb. 6th. They were greeted and introduced by local legislators, Jeff Welborn, Ray Shaw in the House and Debby Barrett in the Senate. The fiddlers music received an enthusiastic response from both legislative bodies and each player was given a certificate for "Exemplary Service to the State of Montana" signed by the Speaker of the House. Following their time in the capital, the fiddlers were treated to a visit to the Montana Historical museum and some rides on the carousel. The group then gathered at the Great Northern Convention Center where they were the entertainment for a reception for legislators given by The Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame organization.

Advance tickets are still available for the Dillon Fiddle Contest from any Dillon Junior Fiddler, The Bookstore and Sweetwater Coffee. Tickets entitle holders to door prizes at the contest, but you do not have to be present to win. This is a way to help support the educational program of the Dillon Junior Fiddlers.

Friday Night, Feb. 13th, from 6 to 8 pm, Dillon Junior Fiddler Alumni are invited to a jam sponsored by the Beaverhead Brewery. The Fiddle contest happens both Saturday and Sunday at the Depot Theater, with a concert at the Dillon Elks Lodge on Saturday night in conjunction with the Elk's Valentine's Day dinner. For information on the fiddle contest or the concert call Jeannie James at 406-660-2304. For reservations to the Elk's dinner call 406-683-5552.

SUCCESS OF OUR 2015 CAMPAIGN

On behalf of the United Way of Beaverhead County, I would like to update our community on the success of our 2015 campaign. Back in November we started our campaign for the 2015 year and we set our sights high with a $125,000 goal. This goal was $15,000 higher than the previous year's goal and we all knew that reaching this would mean lots of hard work and lots of generosity among individuals and businesses in our great community. Not only did we reach this goal, but we exceeded the goal and we brought in just over $126,000!!! Not once did we doubt that with everyone's support that we would be unable to attain this goal. Since the beginning of the United Way in Beaverhead County in 1989 it has been proven time and time again that we all really do LIVE UNITED. Started by employees of Barretts Minerals, now with 25 years of partnership with this company, we are humbled to say that Barretts had a record breaking donation year with the United Way and their company matched the employee donations! So many local businesses, such as the University, Great Harvest, vets, the hospital, our various banks, Murdoch's, our schools, our federal, state and county offices, and even mom and pop businesses and ranches share in donating to our great cause. In addition to businesses we have hundreds of individuals donating money and time to make the United Way a success. When push comes to shove and it means helping one another, we all continuously come together and rally behind the great people and agencies that serve Beaverhead County. With every donation, big or small, with every hour lent to volunteering, with every bit of hope that we all have in creating a more sustainable and successful place to live, we have succeeded in improving our community in so many areas, especially those areas focused in education, income, and health. A simple thank you is not enough to express the gratitude that we feel to all those that take part in raising these funds as well as those that support and help make the United Way of Beaverhead County a successful organization that can continue creating a healthy and growing environment to raise our families and care for our elders. Without you, we would not continue to be here and without us we would not be able to help so many of you.

We would love to show our appreciation to everyone in this community by inviting you to a THANK THE COMMUNITY/OPEN HOUSE on Friday, February 13th from 11am-1pm at our local United Way office, located at 18 N. Montana Street next to Wells Fargo. We hope you can find a moment to stop in and meet us, allow us to extend our gratitude, and to have a treat on us! You are the HEART of what we do. EVERYONE in the community is invited!

Sincerely, Hillary Lowell

Executive Director, The United Way of Beaverhead County

Beaverhead County DUI Task Force Meeting

February 11th at noon at Search and Rescue Building

We will be discussing our prevention plans for 2015. In 2014, we were quite busy with several activities:

- Made monetary contribution towards the National College Health Assessment survey
- Erected DUI awareness signs throughout the county on primary and secondary roads
- Worked in conjunction with Dillon Jaycee's to reduce underage drinking with ID checks/wristbands during the Derby and Labor Day weekend rodeo's and concert
- Invited to be guest speakers at area schools to raise alcohol risk awareness
- Created a Beaverhead County Task Force website and Facebook page
- Offered an "Above-the-Influence" poster contest to children in grades 6-8 with great prizes
- Made a monetary contribution to college Safe Ride scholarship
- Currently offering a Good Citizen Scholarship to two high school seniors of Beaverhead County
- Brought the DUI processing van to the county for Labor Day
- Participated in Red Ribbon week in local schools to help raise awareness of risks
- Offered free ride tokens at local bars for citizens during New Year's Eve
- We work in conjunction with various agencies to facilitate Alcohol Server trainings
- We offered radio ads and well as written ads throughout the year to raise awareness of the negative effects of drinking and driving, as well as other high risk behaviors.

We are excited about the upcoming year and have many events and activities planned. Please contact Kim Martinell at 596-1284 if you would like additional information.

BOOK FAIR FOR STUDENTS

Dillon Elementary Schools will hold their annual book fair for students from Pre-School through Eighth grades from February 23-25.

The book fair will be held in the Dillon Elementary School Library. We would like to encourage all members of the community to attend this event. Students and their families may purchase books on Monday and Tuesday evenings at the library from 3:30 - 7:00 pm during parent teacher conferences for the middle school.

Welborn's Weekly Legislative Review

The House of Representatives has endorsed a measure that would require welfare applicants to be screened for drug use before receiving benefits.

I voted for this proposal, which passed the floor of the House 56-44. It now faces a final vote before advancing to the Senate.

House Bill 200, introduced by Republican Rep. Randy Pinocci of Sun River, would require people who apply for assistance under the state's Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program (TANF) to fill out a questionnaire about drug abuse. Staffers could recommend drug tests and people who test positive wouldn't receive benefits unless they complete a 30-day treatment program.

Opponents say the bill wrongly singles out poor people as potential drug addicts. I disagree, and contend it will assist families in need, to get an extra layer of help in instances where drug addiction coupled with hard times have struck many Montana Families.

My reason for supporting this is simply because oftentimes TANF recipients have children, and this proposal creates another path forward for agencies to follow, this also gives the well being of children another layer of public oversight. I also feel it's a reasonable ask of anyone applying for public assistance to go through the same process as anyone applying for a job that requires a drug screen goes through. It's a matter of fairness, and in many instances it's a matter of creating a line of defense for children who may not otherwise have a means of protection, or that matter an advocate for their well being.

Members of the Montana alcohol industry offered differing solutions on how to grow both brewery and tavern businesses in the state, members of both organizations packed our House Business and Labor Committee last week as we heard different bills on each option.

The Montana Tavern Association and Montana Brewers Association supported a "license stacking" bill sponsored by Rep. Pat Noonan, D-Ramsay.

House Bill 326 would allow one person to own licenses for operating both a brewery and a bar, which the two associations said would benefit both brewers who want to expand production while still operating a tap room and bar owners who want to brew beer.

HB 326 is a compromise worked out over the past 18 months by members of both associations, reaching a way for both types of business to expand the scope of what they can offer their customers under current law, but also keeps intact the current system for both tavern owners and breweries that want to continue operating under their current business model. HB 326 will provide all these options for both taverns and breweries.

Under existing law, brewery owners in Montana are limited to producing 10,000 barrels per year if they operate a tap room that charges for beer consumption on site.

This past Saturday after the floor session I attended an informational session regarding the CSKT Water compact, which many of you have contacted me recently seeking my support when it makes its way to the House of Representatives for Debate. I will share a little bit of what was offered on Saturday, in addition to some history and also a few of my reasons for looking forward to supporting this legislation when it reaches my desk.

First of all, three of Montana's largest and most influential agriculture and water rights organizations are publicly endorsing passage of a proposed water compact with the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes. The Montana Stockgrowers Association, the Montana Water Resources Association and the Montana Farm Bureau Federation have each recently announced their support for passage of the compact.

Montana has been negotiating with tribal governments and federal agencies for more than 30 years to sort out all the competing claims on the state's limited water resources. In 1979, the Montana Legislature created the Reserved Water Rights Compact Commission to negotiate compacts for the equitable division of water across the state.

The RWRCC is a bipartisan commission composed of nine members, each appointed to four-year, renewable terms. Four members are appointed by the governor, two are appointed by the president of the Montana Senate, two are appointed by the speaker of the House, and one is appointed by the attorney general.

Since its formation, the RWRCC has negotiated 17 compacts, all of which have been approved by the Legislature. A water rights agreement with the Confederated Salish and Kootenai is the last remaining compact in this decades long process.

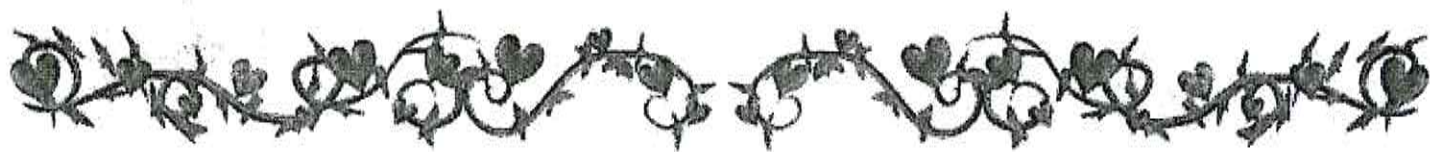

A prior compact was approved by the RWRCC in 2012, but the measure failed to win the approval of the 2013 Legislature. A Senate bill was passed to extend the deadline to complete the CSKT compact adjudication process, but the bill was vetoed by Gov. Steve Bullock.

If the compact fails, irrigators and water users will be forced to shoulder the costs of the litigation that will result. Specifically, the Compact provides provisions that protect irrigators both on and off the reservation and ensure they are able to obtain access to the water resources they need. Protection of water and other property rights is of utmost importance to my district and is precisely why I support its passage.

Two other bills of local interest to both land owners and the sporting public are SB 230. Sen. Vincent (R) Libby is a measure that would require a public scoping process on land acquisitions on parcels over 640 acres, making it more of a public process and creating transparency at the same time. I will support this measure in the House.

HB 329 which I introduced this last week is a proposal to start a pilot project between private, state and federal agencies in cooperative efforts for weed management on neighboring public lands and creating cost share funding mechanisms. This is a proposal I have been working on in conjunction with a local land owner, and so far the agriculture, conservation and outdoor communities have supported this measure. I will keep you up to date as it works its way through the process.

Please keep me updated on issues important to you. My contact info can be found at leg.mt.gov and click on find your legislator icon.
