Rotary Club Meeting
Alyse Baker will be the featured speaker at the noon Rotary meeting scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2015. Made possible via a "Work Visa", Alyse spent approximately five months abroad, living in and touring New Zealand for approximately three and a half months along with spending additional time in Laos. Alyse will describe her experiences and impressions of the two countries and provide complimentary photos.

Anyone interested in exploring membership in Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch. The Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, 203 East Glendale St. For more information, email Craig Rehm at crehm@dadco.com or Roxanne Engellant at engellant@gmail.com.

MONTANA WESTERN PRESENTS "ROMEO AND JULIET"

"Romeo and Juliet," Shakespeare's story of two star-crossed teenagers, is brought to life by students of the University of Montana Western.

It plays in the Beier Auditorium on Feb. 19-23. On Feb. 19-21, shows begin at 7:30 p.m., and on Feb. 22 at 3:30 p.m. General admission is $8, and students of all ages are $5. On Feb. 23, there will be a matinee for public schools, starting at 9:30 a.m., and tickets for youth are $2. The play is an hour and 45 minutes long.

MONTANA WESTERN HOSTS HORSEMAN JOE WOLTER

The Western Horseman's Club and Natural Horsemanship Program welcomes renowned horseman Joe Wolter Feb. 19-21.

Sessions to observe Wolter's clinics on Feb. 19-21 are from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 1:30-4:30 p.m. Montana Western students are free and general admission is $30 per day.

btpdillon@qwestoffice.net • (406) 683-9844*EIGHT MONTANA WESTERN VOLLEYBALL
PLAYERS HONORED

Eight members of the Bulldog Volleyball team were recognized by the Frontier Conference as members of the 2014 Academic All-Conference Team. All six seniors on the 2014 Montana Western squad were honored for their academic achievement, and they were joined by two underclassmen.

"I'm extremely proud of how hard this group of girls works both on the court and in the classroom," head coach Lisa Griffiths said. "The upperclassmen definitely set the standard for what it means to be a student-athlete at Montana Western and the younger group is working hard every day to reach that standard. I'm glad they are not only preparing for the season, but also for life after volleyball."

To be eligible for selection, student-athletes must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0, be a sophomore in standing, and have been enrolled at Montana Western for the previous two semesters.

The Montana Western volleyball student-athletes receiving academic all-conference recognition were:

Emily Erickson, Broadview, Mont., a senior is completing her degree requirements in Health and Human Performance. Erickson lead the 2014 team in kills, averaging 3.8 per game, and finished her four-year career with 932 kills.

Jami Flink, Missoula, Mont., is a sophomore Business Administration major. A defensive specialist, Flink recorded a career high eight digs in a match early this season.

Breanne Kelley, Polson, Mont., is a senior Elementary Education major about to begin her student teaching experience. Kelley played in 367 games during her career, averaging more than two kills per game.

Paige Latimer, Kalispell, Mont., a senior Business Administration Major, is completing her final three classes this spring semester. A setter, Latimer led the Bulldogs in assists in each of the past four years, and this year averaged nearly 10 assists per game, placing her in the NAIA national rankings.

Madison Mansch, Missoula, Mont., is completing her senior internship as part of her degree in Health and Human Performance. Mansch played for three years as a member of the Bulldog volleyball program, and recorded 184 assists and 18 service aces.

Kendra Mendicino, San Diego, Calif., is in her final year as a Health and Human Performance major. Mendicino started at libero for two seasons with the Bulldogs and was recognized as a first team all-conference player in 2014. Mendicino ranked in the top 20 nationally

The Gipper: "[Any time you and I question the schemes of the do-gooders, we're denounced as being opposed to their humanitarian goals. It seems impossible to legitimately debate their solutions with the assumption that all of us share the desire to help the less fortunate. They tell us we're always 'against,' never 'for' anything."

This was written by a friend of mine in Cibola, NY
OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE, AND FOR THE PEOPLE

By Fred Wickert

When our forefathers wrote the Constitution they were creating what was intended to be, and the intention was so stated, that we have a government, "Of the people, by the people and for the people." In the beginning it was just that. The government was made up of candidates from among the people. They ran on platforms of doing various things for the people. They were then voted upon and elected to office by the people.

It was good, and it worked vastly superior to any other form of government. Our nation grew great because of it. It became the greatest nation on earth.

Times have changed. Ours is no longer a government of the people. The only ones who can become candidates any more are the ones who can come up with the money to run, or the financial backers to help them run. Otherwise, they don't stand a chance.

Our government is no longer a government for the people. Those who run for office or are already in office are beholden to the people who financed their getting elected. Most want to get re-elected so they bow to those who paid to get them in office to begin with, because they are the ones who hold the purse strings to their future.

Our government is rapidly becoming no longer a government by the people either. More and more there are ways contrived to cheat at the ballot box. All kinds of little gimmicks are used. We learn for example that some people vote in several different districts in the same election. Others who have been dead for a few years have never been removed from the registered rolls and those dead persons mysteriously show up to vote. If photo ID is required then our Justice Department under Erick Holder sues in the courts to stop that on the grounds that it is somehow racist.

Where finances are involved for financing campaigns, we find that companies from other states interfere in the elections of a state with major contributions to push or to defeat a particular candidate because they have an interest in the outcome, even though they are not involved in that state. I have received requests by mail and e-mail to donate to a candidate in a race in another state where I don't even reside. I know this is a nationwide practice by both parties.

I recall when Bill Clinton was running for re-election, his Vice President Al Gore was caught accepting a huge check from the Chinese government while visiting a Buddhist Temple. This is an interference in our presidential election by a foreign government. Obviously they were not doing it out of the kindness of their heart. Clearly they expected to get something in return for it if Bill Clinton won the election, and he did.

We are no better. Ever since the end of the second world war at least, the CIA has spent millions of our tax payers dollars interfering in the elections of other countries in an effort to have the outcome of their elections more to our advantage. Sometimes they may have succeeded and sometimes not.

Now, Obama has a group of more than a hundred of his election experts who helped engineer his two victories, in Israel trying to cause the current Prime Minister to lose in his coming election, together with his party because Obama does not like the current Israeli Prime Minister and wants to get him defeated. As far as we know this is all privately funded by some of Obama's largest contributors.

Who determines in these interferences in foreign elections what is best for us? Do we the people? No. Those determinations are made by those who provided the majority of the donations to get whoever is in power elected. In this case, Obama, but it works both ways. Obama is by no means the first to interfere in the elections of a foreign country. In this particular case I believe his actions are to our nation's detriment but others probably believe the opposite of what I do.

The point is that I believe it is wrong and should stop. I don't believe in politicians jumping from state to state just because their chances of winning are good either and that has been practiced freely. The Kennedys and the Clintons have done it and so has Mitt Romney. His father was governor of Michigan and he was governor of Massachusetts. George Bush was governor of Texas and Jeb Bush was governor of Florida, and so on.

I believe we need to make some amendments to the Constitution regarding our election laws. I believe we need to get back to government of the people, for the people and by the people. I think we need to keep other countries out of our elections and we need to stay out of the elections of other countries. Fair and free elections are a thing of the past. They need to be brought back again.
