CITY COUNCIL RESIGNATIONS

Judge Tucker ruled in favor of recall petitions and writ of mandamus last week.

by: Brenda Womack

Last night at the Dillon City Council meeting councilmen listed on the recall petition Troedsson and Spear resigned. Councilman Gore was listed on the recall, however, he did not resign. He stated an attorney drafted the letter he signed and he did not feel that he broke the law when he signed that letter.

There will be a special election held for Ward 4 because Gore did not quit. The electors will decide if Gore continues in his position or is removed.

Judge Tucker found Mr. Gore, along with the other six council members that signed the letter, guilty of breaking the open Meeting Law via the letter according to the judgement.

Mayor Klakkan will advertise for replacements for the vacated positions for two weeks. Applicants will be submitted to the remaining council members. The council chooses the replacements.

Before he resigned, Mr. Troedsson made a recommendation that the City of Dillon make a deal with School District #10 to acquire Jaycee Park, located in the block surrounded by Idaho, Washington, Reeder and Sebree Streets. He said he has thought a lot about it and has changed his mind because his Ward (Ward 4) is the only one that doesn't have a city park.

Editors Note: If you have a strong desire to serve the people of Dillon in a constructive and productive way please consider going to city hall and turning in an application.

All government bodies need checks and balances and no one is expected to agree with everyone else all the time. However, the issues do need to be discussed among the council, the committees and the voters need to be able to have due process. I think it is time now that the city move forward in a respectful and positive way for the betterment of the people in the community and for the dignity of the voting process.

Dillon Tree Board Receives Sixth Program Development Grant

The City of Dillon and the Dillon Tree Board recently received $4,250 in grant funding from a federal award of the U.S. Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, sub-awarded by the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC), Forestry Division. The City matches the grant funding at 100% to accomplish project work.

The 2015 grant will fund several urban forestry projects in Dillon. These projects include pruning/removal of green ash trees on city boulevards, planting new trees at the Cubbies ball field and assisting homeowners in planting trees on boulevards through a cost-share program.

The first project involves the pruning of 27 and removal of seven green ash trees located on city-owned boulevards. The City is responsible for the maintenance of these trees. The results of a tree inventory completed in 2010 identified trees in need of pruning and those that have a high likelihood of failure under storm conditions. A certified arborist will complete the work; all woody material will be removed from the sites, and the City will grind the stumps after removal. Property owners adjacent to the project locations will be contacted before the work begins.

The second project involves the purchase and planting of at least 15 trees at the new Cubbies ball field at Ray Lynch Park. Anyone wishing to donate additional funds to supplement this project should contact the Tree Board.

Lastly, the grant will assist private homeowners in planting trees in city boulevards. Through a cost-share system, the program will defray some of the costs of planting new trees along the boulevards. Homeowners can purchase a tree for $75, with the Tree Board covering the remaining portion of the purchase price. This cost-share program provides the incentive for private homeowners to participate in enhancing the City's beauty by adding to the boulevard plantings and providing a tree canopy for future generations.

Since 2008, the Dillon Tree Board has secured over $69,000 in funding to enhance Dillon's urban forest. The mission of the Tree Board is to preserve, enhance, and expand our community forest through educating the public and promoting community involvement and individual dedication.

For additional information, contact J.S. Turner at City Hall or call the DNRC office at 406-683-6805. Information can also be found on the Dillon Tree Board website at www.dillontrees.org.

2014 NEW SITE OF THE YEAR

The Dillon Kiwanis - Community Youth Initiative brings the first junior golf program to Dillon.

Basketball was the sport of choice for Kevin Engellant. Now he is bringing the game of golf to children as the site coordinator of the Dillon Kiwanis-Community Youth Initiative hook A Kid On Golf site in Dillon, the winner of the 2014 New Site of the Year award.

Engellant teamed up with Kasey Briggs, the general manager at the Beaverhead Golf course, to offer the area's first junior golf clinics. They were looking for a program that would teach the participants the fundamentals, rules and etiquette of golf. Sending each child home with their own golf bag and set of clubs at the end of the Hook A Kid On golf clinic was an incredible feature of the program.

Engellant said he secured a grant from the USGA, as well as donations from several organizations in the community. The Kiwanis generously donated and was the main sponsor, The community Youth Initiative donated, processed invoices and kept the books for the program, and the men's Senior Gold Association donated also. He said the local media, The Dillon Tribune, The Dillonite Daily and KDBM-KBEV did an outstanding job of helping them promote the Hook A Kid On Golf clinic.

PINK ZONE EVENTS CONTINUE TO GROW

Seven years ago, a group of community members teamed up with the Western's women's basketball program to stage a breast cancer awareness game to honor survivors and increase awareness of the disease.

From t-shirts and a bake sale, the program has grown to include events throughout the month of February, and has generated more than $22,000 in the past five years to support the Southwestern Montana Mammography Program.

In 2007, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association created the Pink Zone concept to raise awareness the impacts of breast cancer and to raise funds for breast cancer research and support programs. The following year, former Bulldog coach Kevin Engellant enlisted the help of supporters to organize the first Pink Zone game at Montana Western. The event expanded quickly to include the girl's basketball team at Beaverhead County High School as part of over 6,000 women's basketball programs across the country participating in Pink Zone events.

Thursday, the Montana Western Bulldogs will don their pink uniforms when they take the floor against Montana State University – Northern. Donated to the program in honor of Stana Landon, a UMW sports medicine alumna, the uniforms debuted during last year's Pink Zone game.

This season, the team will sport the uniforms in games throughout the month of February. The players also take an active role in fundraising for the project by selling Pink Zone t-shirts and volunteering time to work at Pink Zone events in the community.

The 2015 Pink Zone fundraising events kicked off with a wine tasting and Bras for the Cause auction. The event was a sellout for the second year in a row. Throughout this week, local businesses including Vision Source – Dr. Douglas Creger, Sparky's Restaurant, NV Salon and Beaverhead Brewing Company will donate proceeds from the purchase of goods and services.

Supporters including Taylor Realty, Prudential Montana Realty and Edward Jones financial advisors Trent Cottom and Dennis Schurg, have pledged donations for each three point shot, assist and free throw made during the Pink Zone game. Campus clubs will be staging games and 50/50 sales throughout the contest in addition to the annual silent auction and bake sale.

Funds raised through the Pink Zone events are donated to the Southwestern Montana Mammography Program at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare. The mission of the program is to provide breast health services to underinsured women under the age of 50 in the community. Nearly 150 women from Dillon and the surrounding areas receive free or reduced cost services through the program each year, resulting in an increased rate of early detection, a key factor in successful treatment of breast cancer.
