Ada Maud (Brothers) Ingram

Ada Maud (Brothers) Ingram passed away February 18, 2015 at her home in Dillon, surrounded by her family. She was 100 years old.

She was born October 6, 1914, in Marysville, Idaho to Walter and Louise (Chambers) Brothers. She had three sisters and one brother. Her family moved to the Centennial Valley where her parents worked on area ranches. Ada attended school in Lima.

She married Ralph Richard Jones and they homesteaded on Jones Creek in the Centennial Valley. They had six children. After divorcing Ralph, she moved to Dillon where she resided for the remainder of life and where she became one of the best cooks in Beaverhead County. She cooked for several crews on area ranches. She also cooked for Skeets Murry at Skeet's Cafe, Luanna Lyons at The State Lounge and the Lions Den. While working on one of the ranches, she met and married Vance Robbins Ingram. Together they had three children.

Ada loved quilting, knitting, crocheting, doll making, gardening, making special gifts for her family and spending time with her family and friends. She will be greatly missed by all that knew and loved her.

Ada was preceded in death by her parents, her husband; Vance Robbins Ingram, sisters; Perssis Joslin and Eva Johnson, brother; George Brothers, children; Maud Jones, Ralph Jones and Helen Prosenick and daughter-in-law Terry Jones, grandchildren; James Jones, Timothy Prosenick, Debbie Prosenick, Brandy McCord and Delmar Rowe Jr. And many treasured friends.

She is survived by her sister; Katie Standridge, children; Leland Jones, Beverly (Delmar) Rowe, George (Faye) Jones, Mildred (Bill) Struthers, Maurine (Lee) Hawks, Lauretta McCord, Vance Rex (Dorthy) Ingram and her special son-in-law Joe Prosenick; 35 Grandchildren; 72 Great Grandchildren, 38 Great-Great Grandchildren and two of many very Special friends Greta Chaffin and Kevin Buttons and family. Memorial contributions may be made to Barrett Home Health and Hospice or a charity of the donor's choice. There is a graveside service scheduled for Tuesday, February 24th at 10 AM at Mountain View Cemetery. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

MHP Announces First Success in Its 'Warrant Wednesdays' Campaign

Today, the Montana Highway Patrol announced its new Facebook outreach tool designed to use public assistance to help law enforcement officers locate wanted fugitives resulted in its first apprehension.

Andrew Jorge Douglas Heiser was arrested last night by the MHP with assistance from the Yellowstone County Sheriff's Office near Billings after a citizen posted a Facebook tip as to Heiser's whereabouts after reading about him in the Patrol's "Warrant Wednesday" post yesterday.

Heiser, 26, had an outstanding $20,000 warrant for charges stemming from a November 2, 2014 wreck near Shepherd, as well as an outstanding warrant out of Meagher County District Court for failure to appear at a revocation hearing with a $10,000 bond. Heiser had recently been involved in a vehicle pursuit and has a history of incidents involving violence.

"This early success of our Warrant Wednesday campaign shows just how powerful a resource social media can be to law enforcement agencies," said Colonel Tom Butler, chief of the Highway Patrol. "We thank the tipster who reached out to us with the information on Heiser's whereabouts that ultimately resulted in his arrest, and we look forward to more successes with the help of the public."

"Montanans care deeply about their communities and the well-being of their neighbors," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Warrant Wednesdays offers a convenient and timely way for the public to team up with law enforcement to help locate dangerous criminals and keep their neighborhoods safe."

Each Wednesday on its official Facebook page, the Patrol posts the name and photo of a person with an outstanding arrest warrant who may pose a risk to public safety and/or whose warrant has been outstanding for an extended period of time. Members of the public who have information regarding the person in question are encouraged to contact the Patrol directly by calling 1-855-MHP-3777, by emailing MHPHQContact@mt.gov, or by private Facebook message only, and are asked not to approach the person in question.

DON'T LITTER

Whether state or federally managed ground, it's important to keep in mind that public lands belong to everyone. That's why Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is asking people who use these lands to pick up after themselves and leave no trace.

FWP wardens and site caretakers are noticing an increase in litter, especially by those using public land for shooting firearms. Spent shell casings and makeshift targets (ranging from bottles to old television sets) are unfortunate leftovers of a day of practice.

Warden Rick Schmauch sees this problem when patrolling his area around Dillon and hopes people will take the time to retrieve their items.

"Not only are we talking about an eyesore and a lack of consideration, but much of what's left behind can be hazardous - glass, rusted metal, propane canisters, you name it," said Schmauch.

Warden Regan Dean of the Butte area says it doesn't stop at shooting practice.

"Unfortunately, some folks go out of their way to dump their

There are rules to protect public lands from littering. In fact, persons found guilty of littering are subject to a fine, and under certain circumstances may lose their privileges to hunt and fish.

If you see someone littering on public land, you may report it to 800-TIP-MONT.
