RONALD EDWARD BYBEE

1941 - 2014

Ronald Edward Bybee began his journey to the big camp on the other side on Dec. 10. He passed away in his sleep of natural causes at his apartment in Tacoma, WA.

Ronald was born November 1, 1941 in Townsend. He graduated with honors in Livingston in 1959. Ronald was a devoted scholar, receiving his bachelor's degree at Western Montana College in Dillon for elementary education. He obtained his master's degree in political science at the University of Montana. He was a proficient linguist and was fluent in nine languages.

Ronald moved to Washington to continue his education and earned his doctorate in advanced psychology at the University of Washington.

Ronald was preceded in death by: his mother, Charlotte Scott Kistler; his father, Harry Francis Bybee; and his step-father, Fred H. Kistler. He is survived by his brothers, John A. Bybee, of Spokane Valley, WA, and Harry "Skip" Bybee, of Dillon.

Terry W Sandall, 70

Terry W Sandall, 70 of Dell, Montana lost his battle with pancreatic cancer on Thursday, February 19, 2015.

Terry was born to Arden L. Sandall and Joan Weaver Sandall on January 30, 1945 in Ogden, Utah. He attended schools in Davis County, Utah. He served his country in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. He had his dream job working on a cattle ranch in Montana during the last 20 years of his life. He loved to hunt, fish and watch football.

He is survived by his brother Tim (Shelley) of Kemmerer, Wyoming; Dawn Ellen Sandall, Layton, Utah; Peggy Sandall, San Antonio, Texas and numerous nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles that loved him very much. He is also survived by step-children Troy, Cindy and Debbie and families. His dog Bud will miss him.

A special thank you to his very good friends Tom and Alesia Lappe for the friendship and care they have given to Terry. The family appreciates the care provided by the doctors and nurses at Barrett Memorial Hospital and Hospice and the Huntsman Cancer Institute. In accordance to Terry's wishes, no services will be held. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

REGION 3 CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO MEET THURSDAY EVENING

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Region 3 Citizens' Advisory Committee will meet in Bozeman on Thursday, Feb. 26 at the FWP Regional Office (1400 S. 19th Ave.) from 6 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

The CAC meets quarterly to provide input and guidance on the many natural resource and management issues addressed by FWP in southwest Montana. All meetings are open to the public.

The CAC agreed at its December meeting to focus its efforts (at least in the short term) on a hunter ethics campaign. Therefore, the committee intends to use its time Thursday evening reporting on subcommittee work related to the campaign and discussing next steps in the process (i.e. funding and potential deliverables).

For more information about the Region 3 Citizens' Advisory Committee, visit the FWP Web site at <http://fwp.mt.gov/regions/r3/cac/>.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks ensures its meetings are fully accessible to persons with disabilities. To request special accommodations relative to a disability for this meeting, contact Andrea Jones at 406-994-6931.

BULLDOG RALLY FALLS SHORT

The Montana Western women's basketball team showed its toughness, overcoming a wide halftime margin on senior night. In the end, the effort was not quite enough and the Bulldogs fell 77-85 to the University of Great Falls.

The Argos entered the game determined to stop a three game skid and remain in the contention for a home game in the conference tournament. They hit 7-8 of their three point shots in the opening period and shot better than 70% from the floor. Bulldog senior Jenna Banks answered with 18 first half points, one point shy of her single game career high. The Argos had three players in double digits as they opened up a 14-point lead at intermission.

Bulldog head coach Lindsay Woolley made halftime adjustments to the defense, and the team responded, roaring back into the contest. "In the second half we just did a better job," Woolley said. "Both Kaci Matthies and Kaye Bignell bounced back from tough games on Thursday and had great intensity tonight" Woolley commented.

The Bulldogs clawed back to be down by just two points twice in the final period, but were unable to draw even. "If we had knocked down a few more of our shots in the second half we would have been in a great position," Woolley said. "They were good looks from good shooters, but they just didn't fall. That's been the story of our season."

The Argos completed the contest with four players recording 17 or more points, but were outrebounded by the Bulldogs, who also had had more steals and fewer turnovers than Great Falls. Sophomore Kaye Bignell finished with 17 points and nine rebounds for Montana Western and senior Kaci Matthies collected nine points and 14 boards. Banks lead all scorers with 31 points, including a 12-12 night from the free throw line. "Jenna played like a senior should on senior night," Woolley said. "I'm glad she was able to finish her career in Straugh Gymnasium with that effort."

FLUTE RECITAL

Former Dillon student, Jennifer Hunt, will present a flute recital Wednesday, March 4, in the Beaverhead County High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. as part of a Montana and Northern California tour.

Retold, a flute recital, explores flute music written in a span of 130 years by American, French, and German composers. Each piece on the program gained very specific inspiration from some other art form or instrument other than the flute itself—a novel, a piano, Asian flutes, Greek mythology, and a toy music box. The flute acts as a medium to depict or retell stories and memories, transporting the listener to landscapes in Asia, the frozen desolation of the Arctic, the watery world of Undine, and a child's memory.

Jennifer Hunt is the daughter of Dr. Ken Hunt and Dr. Judy Wilson of Dillon and is a 2004 graduate of Beaverhead County High School. She received her BM from the University of Montana where she studied with Margaret Schuberg and her MM and GPD from the Hartt School where she studied with Janet Arms. Jennifer pursues a versatile musical life as a passionate performer and educator. She is currently adjunct flute faculty at Pacific Union College and Napa Valley College and a teaching artist at Salvador Elementary School and Napa Valley Language Academy. Miss Hunt will be accompanied by renowned Bay Area pianist, Miles Graber, who is Julliard School trained and has performed with many well-known artists, orchestras and ensembles.

Wednesday's performance is sponsored in part by Papa T's of Dillon and presented by the Dillon Concert Association. Tickets are available at the door for $10 for adults and $5 for students.
