Michael Benincasa Jr., 81

Michael Benincasa Jr., 81, passed away at Barrett Hospital in Dillon, Montana on February 24, 2015.

He was born October 1, 1933,
in French Camp, Calif to Michael and Mary Benincasa. He attended Webber Grammar School in Stockton, Calif, and then graduated from Stockton High School in 1952. He worked 8 years for the Stockton Record in Calif before going into the trucking company PIE & IML as a data entry. After his wife retired in 2000 from Lipton Food Company, they decided to move to Silver Star, Montana where they have home for the last 14 years.

Mike had numerous hobbies; he enjoyed collecting wolf figurines, plates and plaques. He had a large collection of Louie La' Moure books, Jason Bourne Trilogy and Sherlock Holmes Series. Had a love for photography and always made sure everyone had copies of what he admired. Anybody who knew Mike, probably know he has the largest collection of DVD's, over 1000, from Westerns to Classics, he had them all. He enjoyed car rides with his dogs, rock polishing, visiting with his neighbors Glen and Carol Lince and spending quality time with his family and grandchildren.

Mike is survived by his beloved wife of 27 years Charlene Benincasa of Silver Star, MT. He is also survived by 2 brothers, John David and Ronald Joe Benincasa both of Stockton, CA. He also is survived by his daughter and son-in-law Eva Marie(Beth) and Glenn Barbera (Castle Rock, CO), and 2 sons, James Christopher Benincasa (Paso Robles, CA) and Michael Lyle Benincasa (San Francisco, CA), stepchildren, Emily Richards, (Lima, MT), Jason Richards, (Stockton, CA)
and Jeff Richards, (Tampa, FL); also 12 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

There will be a private family gathering at a later date. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

The Children of Bannack Days Need Your Help!

For more than 30 years, children and adults have experienced the fun of making their very own hand dipped candle during the annual Bannack Days celebration. But, this opportunity is about to become extinct unless some kind hearted person or group steps up to the wax and takes the lead for this booth. What is needed is someone to continue the tradition.

The supplies are available on site. You can be assured of a hot fire, ever changing weather (sunny, rainy, windy), wax cans that need refilling constantly, steady visitors to the booth and no monetary compensation but more smiles from kids of all ages than you can imagine – No boredom expected at this booth.

After 35 years of making candles the way our ancestors did, age and a tired body have slowed me down to the point I can't keep up with the physical needs of the candle booth. But I can certainly be on site to share my knowledge and guide you through the preparations and the operation of the booth. Over the years, I have seen children that came back year after year to make candles, grow up and bring their children and grandchildren to make candles. Its' become a family tradition for many folks – a tradition I hope we can continue.

If you are up to the challenge and want to keep a very special and free event going at the annual Bannack Days celebration, please contact a park employee and say "I am ready for the challenge and I want to help". Call 406-834-3413.

If you would like more details about the candle dipping both, you can also give Cathy Speich-Ferguson, AKA the candle lady of Bannack, a call at 406-925-1994.

BOZEMAN AREA MEN SENTENCED IN MOUNTAIN LION KILLINGS

A Bozeman man and a Manhattan, Mont., man have been sentenced for the illegal killing of two mountain lions in early January in Meagher County.

A third wounded lion was never found but is presumed dead, says Fish, Wildlife and Parks Game Warden John Lesofski of White Sulphur Springs.

Dwain E. Robertson, 54, of Bozeman, pleaded guilty Feb. 3 and was fined $3,075 by Meagher County Justice of the Peace Paula Wildman for attempting to take an over limit of mountain lions ($635), unlawful possession of a lion ($535), hunting during a closed season ($535) and two counts of trespass ($370). Robertson was also ordered to pay $1,000 restitution and had his hunting, trapping and fishing privileges revoked for 4 years.

Douglas L. Smith, 65, of Manhattan, pleaded guilty and was fined $605 by Wildman for two counts of criminal trespass ($370) and driving off established roads ($235).

Smith pleaded not guilty to unlawful possession of a mountain lion. No trial date has been scheduled yet. If found guilty, Smith could be fined $535 and lose his hunting, trapping and fishing privileges for two years.

The case started Jan. 1 when Lesofski received a tip that Smith and Robertson were trespassing on the Brewer and Miller ranches south of Ringling and had a dead juvenile lion, which was closed. The next day Lesofski and landowner Rod Brewer found a blood site on a ranch road, and followed it. They discovered a dead adult female lion and blood in the tracks of another juvenile lion that had wandered off but was never found because of severe winter conditions.

After obtaining a search warrant, FWP game wardens from Regions 3 and 4 searched Smith's and Robertson's homes, yielding the evidence for the convictions.

"In my 20 plus years as a game warden" Lesofski says, "this is the first time I have ever dealt with someone shooting a group of lions; that happens more often with elk and deer. This case was solved because of landowner and sportsman cooperation."

"PASS YOUR STASH"

A fabric garage sale "Pass Your Stash" event will be February 28th, from 10 am to 3 pm at the 4-H building. Drop off at the quilt store.

If you have any questions please stop in at the quilt store, 34 N. Idaho Street, Dillon, call us 683-5884!
