Sheep Die-Off Prompts Conference Call to Close Hunting District

Montana's Fish & Wildlife Commission will meet via a telephone conference call Monday, March 23 at 8:30 a.m. to consider an emergency closure of a bighorn sheep hunting district near Gardiner due to a recent disease-related die-off.

Commissioners will consider closing bighorn sheep hunting district 305, near Gardiner, which suffered a pneumonia die-off that began late last year. At least 30 percent of the herd, and 40 percent or more of the mature rams, have died. This winter, FWP documented a loss of a minimum of 30 sheep found mostly in the Gardiner and Cinnabar areas.

In response, officials are seeking to close the 2015 bighorn sheep season in hunting district 305 this year and preclude hunters from applying for permits in the hunting district.

Baring another disease outbreak, or other unforeseen events, hunting district 305 would reopen to hunting when the population recovers.

The teleconference will originate at FWP Helena headquarters, 1420 East Sixth Ave. Public comment will only be taken at this location.

For the upcoming season, officials offered one legal ram permit in the district. Should the season there be closed, anyone who already applied for hunting district 305's permit will be offered the opportunity to apply elsewhere or be given a refund. Last year about 100 hunters applied for the district's lone permit. The deadline to apply for moose, bighorn sheep, mountain goat and bison permits is May 1.

For the agenda and additional information, visit FWP's website at fwp.mt.gov, then click "Commission Links."

BULLDOGS' SEASON ENDS AT HANDS OF NUMBER ONE SEED

The Montana Western men's basketball opened up an early lead but Hope International, the top team in the nation, was able to fight back to end the Bulldogs' season 72-82.

Montana Western built a double digit lead during the first half behind junior Connor Woodill's 12 points from behind the three-point line. The Bulldogs shot 53 percent from the floor in the opening period as they held Hope to 41 percent accuracy from the floor with only a 10 percent success rate from deep. The Montana Western bench contributed 24 points before halftime as junior Ryan McCarty chipped in 7 and Tim Lott added 5 points to Woodill's effort.

The Royals found their stride in the second half as they cleaned up on the boards, converting for 16 second chance points on their way to 34 points in the paint. Free throw shooting had been an area of strength for the Bulldogs all year, but on this night the team finished 11-20 from the line. The nation's best from the charity stripe, Bulldog senior Stephen McCall failed to get to the free throw line for only the fifth time this season. Montana Western fell behind at the midway point of the period but clawed back to establish the final 10-point margin.

Four Bulldogs, Woodill, McCarty, sophomore Shyke Smalls, and junior Dexter Williams Jr., finished the game with 13 points. McCall led the team in rebounding with five boards.

Montana Western finished the season with a 23-10 record while Hope International advances to Saturday's quarterfinal round.

* Banquet and Sponsorship Information will be available ****

Friends of NRA is a key event that supports thousands of community service activities related to firearm education, hunter safety, wildlife conservation, range improvements, youth marksmanship, and law enforcement among others. Working with NRA field representatives, the members and volunteers organize banquets in their communities, complete with auctions, and special drawings. Much of the merchandise at the banquets is donated or provided at reduced cost by hundreds of participating vendors.

Half of the money raised by each Friends of NRA banquet will be spent in the state in which it was held. The other half supports qualifying national-level programs like the Eddie Eagle GunSafe Program, Women On Target, and other educational and safety services. State Fund Committees made up of volunteers review grant applications from local organizations and make recommendations to The NRA Foundation on how the money might best be used in their areas. For more information about Friends of NRA, visit www.friendsofnra.org.
