Welborn' Weekly Legislative Review

Helena:

This past week in the House of Representatives we deliberated on an interesting mix of legislation on everything from creative ways to better fund the Block Management Program, to bolstering native languages in Indian Country, to religious freedoms for public and private employees.

A measure which I reported on earlier in the session, and one broadly supported local Beaverhead County folks, stating that Montanans' constitutional right to harvest fish and game includes the right to trap wild animals, has finally become law. This bill was introduced by Rep. Kirk Waggoner (R) Montana City and was supported by both sportsman's groups and agricultural interests.

With the transmittal of bills that have any revenue or spending attached looming, it has been both a busy time for the House Appropriations Committee, as well as on the House floor voting on these spending measures before they move to the Senate this week. One such proposal that is very important to Southwest Montana as well as our Veterans across the State, is HB 493, a bill that would provide bridge funding to get started on the Southwest Montana Vets home in Butte. This proposal has been tabled in the House Appropriations committee, stalling it in the process. The need for this loan stems from the Veterans Administration continuing to delay their portion of the funding, when this funding comes through, it would back fill the loan from the State, this would allow this worthwhile project to move forward now.

We did make an effort on Saturday to blast this from committee to the House floor so it could have an honest debate in front of the entire body, the blast which would require 60 votes in favor to bring it to the floor failed when only 53 House members voted in favor. I'm disappointed that this effort failed.

HB 493 is the right thing to do for our Vets, and the timing is long overdue. This is a bi-partisan effort, and has been from the beginning back in 2009. The site selection committee decided Butte was the most sensible location, legislators and county commissioners both Republicans and Democrats alike, have been in support of this all along. A majority of both House and Senate members co-sponsored this piece of legislation, so there is broad support there. When this proposal was introduced to the appropriations committee, this proposal had zero opponents, the room was chock full of folks speaking in favor, most of them were the very veterans that have made the sacrifice so we can have these kinds of discussions.

It's one thing to let politics get in the way of good policy, but where our Vets are concerned, I feel it's un-acceptable to let proposals like this to get bottled up in a committee, where a few members, in this case Republicans, can hold good policy hostage, in favor of doing the right thing, and sending it to the Full House for more thoughtful debate. With that said, on the Republican side of the committee, I want to give a shout out to both Republican Representatives Hollandsworth and Cuffe for your efforts, by joining the Democrats and trying to move this out of committee. The two existing veteran's homes in Montana are located roughly 250 (Columbia Falls) and 450 (Glendive) miles respectively away from Butte. To force our veterans to be hours away from their families is a hardship that does not honor the sacrifices that our veterans have made. It's time for this Legislature to show our aging Vets they matter, to not only our Country, but to the entire State of Montana. During the blast motion on HB 493, Representative Ray Shaw, (R) Alder, gave one of the most impassioned speeches I've witnessed in my four terms in the legislature, he is spot on when he says "there are Veterans that need our help now, this project can't wait, and it shouldn't have to wait, let's join together and help make this happen."

As we move to get the remainder of the bills still in the house passed on to the Senate this week, we will be voting on several building and infrastructure proposals, as well as many other pieces of various legislation.

I will close by reporting on a measure that will study the setting up an Alcohol Advisory Council. The time has come to drill down on statute governs taverns, breweries, distillers, distributors, and retail establishments. Alcohol laws are very complex, and there continues to be disagreements between the stakeholders in Montana's three tier system. A separate council, made up of Montana brewers, tavern owners, distributors, distillers, retailers, legislators and executive branch stakeholders is a more prudent way to address the many challenges these industries collectively face. We passed a bill out of our business and labor committee that will provide the framework to start these discussions. I'll keep you posted as this works its way through the process.

One last item, I look forward to joining Senator Barrett, and Representative Shaw in welcoming the Montana Youth Challenge to Helena this week for a tour of the Capitol, also to observe committee hearings, and to be introduced to both the House and Senate Chambers during our respective floor sessions.

I wish you each a Happy Easter, and look forward to being back in the District during our break over the long weekend.

BULLDOG FOOTBALL COMPLETES FIRST WEEK OF SPRING PRACTICE

By Tyler Hulse, Athletic Department Intern

The Montana Western football program began spring practices last week in Dillon, Montana. The Bulldogs are coming off a 6-5 record last season, which included a 4-0 finish, the best season for the Bulldogs in a decade. The 90 returners have been confined indoors for eight weeks of winter conditioning, so excitement and enthusiasm were in abundance as the team hit the field last Tuesday for the first contact practice.

"So far so good," head coach BJ Robertson said after the first two practices. "We've had a lot of energy and excitement."

Montana Western will conduct 15 practices this spring including two scrimmages, the first being this Saturday, April 4. The annual spring game will mark the end of the spring season on Saturday, April 25 as part of the Montana Western Alumni Weekend events.

Team 84 of the Bulldog football program will be led by 17 seniors. The offensive unit returns eight starters including all-conference selections running back Sam Rutherford of Centerville, Mont. and offensive guard Will Thacker from Winnemucca, Nev. The defense which ranked third in the Frontier Conference last season for points allowed returns nine starters including a pair of all-conference linebackers, AJ Wilson and Joe Coker, both natives of Helena, Mont.

The Bulldogs will be looking for a signal caller to replace two-year starter Tyler Hulse who accounted for 26 total touchdowns during the 2014 campaign. Five quarterbacks will be taking snaps this spring, led by returners Charlie Switzer, Richie, Mont., and Bennett Gibson of Mount Vernon, Wash. The Bulldog offense will also be looking to fill open spots left behind by four-year starter and all-conference left tackle Nick Brown, and fullback Tony Wilson.

The defense is also evaluating talent to fill in two key starting positions. The Bulldogs graduated all-conference defensive end Phil Selin, the Frontier Conference sack leader in the previous two seasons. Selin was recently invited to participate in the pro day activities at the University of Montana. Safety Jesse McCloud lead the Bulldogs in interceptions the past two seasons, and was recognized as an All-American as a senior.

Dillon Festival of Trees

After reviewing 10 deserving applications, the Festival of Trees has chosen the Dillon City Library and Beaverhead Search & Rescue for their 2015 Fundraiser in November.

The Library serves an average of 85 people a day - resulting in much hard use. Their funds will go to much needed flooring.

Beaverhead Search and Rescue is vital to our area and is in need of new equipment for their communication system.

Put November 20th and 21st on your calendar to help support these groups.
