Special Election Information

By: MJ

Citizens of Ward 4 will be receiving mail out ballots within the next few days. The ballot is for the special election that was requested by Councilman Gore. Mr. Gore was found by District Judge Tucker to have knowingly acted without public notice when doing city business. District Judge Tucker stated in his decision that: The Montana Constitution grants the public "a right to expect government agencies to afford such reasonable opportunity for citizen participation in the operation of the agencies prior to the final decision as may be provided by law." The expenses of special election are paid by taxpayers and not Mr. Gore.

Example of ballot (in bold print) and Judge Tuckers Summary follows.

Shall Derek Gore, who holds the office of City of Dillon Ward 4 Councilperson, be recalled from office?

- ☐ FOR recalling Derek Gore who holds the office of City of Dillon Ward 4 Councilperson.
- ☐ AGAINST recalling Derek Gore who holds the office of City of Dillon Ward 4 Councilperson

STATEMENT OF JUSTIFICATION

My name is Derek Gore. I am being subjected to recall for just signing a letter of request to the District Court Judge. This letter was drafted by an experienced attorney and the president of the city council. It was not an order or directive, just a request to consider an issue. Being drafted by an experienced attorney and the council president gave me no concern that merely signing it, especially on an individual basis, would subject me to recall for violation of open meeting laws. I am not myself anymore of a legal expert than an ordinary citizen. Most council members being ordinary citizens can be good, in that We The People, and not a bunch of Legal Wrangling Politicians are running our city. Does this open us up; to make mistakes? YES, however, this incident proves that even legal experts make mistakes by not informing us that this could be illegal. Realistically, this was a very minor infraction and caused no harm, just concern, and brings a renewed awareness that more care should be taken in the future. I sincerely ask for your continued support as your council person.

Judge Tucker stated the following in the Conclusion of his decision: Councilpersons Spehar, Troedsson, and Gore acted without public notice and without an opportunity for Nye to participate. They acted knowingly when they did so. It is of no consequence if they did not intend to violate the law. The petitions are legally sufficient.

The End of the Civil War:
The 150th Anniversary

Tyrades! By Danny Tyree

When we were teenagers, my "the South's gonna do it again" younger brother bought into some weird conspiracy theory that Gen. Robert E. Lee didn't really surrender at Appomattox Court-house, Virginia. Lee supposedly thought he was merely handing his sword over to someone for cleaning. (The deniers who concocted the theory apparently also believed that Europeans never really landed in the New World but just filmed it out in the desert somewhere.)

I rush to get this into print because April 9 marks the 150th anniversary of Lee's surrender, which for all intents and purposes ended the American Civil War.

One must be careful to specify "the American Civil War," because civil wars remain a dime a dozen around the globe. Thank goodness we'll never see another "brother against brother" conflict in this country. No, it would be "brother against sister trapped in a brother's body" or "blue against gray trapped in a turquoise uniform" or...

Ahem Well, at least there's no more chance of a full-blown War Between the States, with all its sacrifices and upheavals. Or is there? ("Please! We'll wear rags on our feet and eat rat-on-a-stick! Just please ignore our neighbors and give our state that professional sports franchise!")

The string of 150-year milestones over the past four years has given teachers an opportunity to excite students about history. Many young scholars have had a lot to learn. ("That marching song 'Eatin' Goober Peas' — it goes all the way back to Hootie and the Blowfish, doesn't it?")

Yes, students have learned to pay rapt attention to descriptions of the horrors of war. ("Yeah, yeah — amputated legs, shrapnel in the eyes...we want to hear about the coping mechanisms of the poor soldiers who had their texting thumbs amputated!")

People from all parts of the country have been interested in the Civil War sesquicentennial, but Southerners have probably been more passionate. A disturbing number of Yankees just can't fathom lingering southern pride and animosity. ("Why can't they just get over it? Hey, is that Benny Dinglewicz coming out in his front yard? That *&%$# scratched my snowplow back in '93. He's dead to me, I tell you — DEAD!")

After sesquicentennial festivities die down, we'll hear less and less about regiments, blockades, ironclads, raids, massacres, charges, campaigns and the like. People suffering from vicarious combat fatigue will welcome the change, but others will suffer withdrawal. ("It was nice to hear about a few 'campaigns' that the Koch Brothers didn't have any money in!")

Civil War reenactors will find slimmer pickings, but the more dedicated ones will still pour their hearts into their hobby. Maybe drifting public attention will at least weed out some of the ones who didn't really belong. I mean, if you think "secession" was how your new niece entered the world, you probably shouldn't be a Civil War reenactor!!!

In a perfect world, interest in the Civil War would now segue smoothly into widespread acknowledgment of the sesquicentennial of various Reconstruction milestones; but I don't see that happening. It's a shame. Reconstruction lasted 12 years, cost millions and produced uneven results. ("TELL me about it," lamented one aging actress.)

Go out and celebrate heroism and peace on April 9. But be careful about handing over your keys to a valet parking attendant. It could be a trick! ("The South did it again! D'oh!")

SEEKING COVER ART

The Beaverhead County Fair Board is seeking cover art for the 2015 Beaverhead County Fair Book. All submissions are due by May 8 for consideration. Artwork selected for the 2015 cover will receive a $150 award. All artwork and or photos should be original in nature and should reflect the western, cowboy/cowgirl, and or ranching lifestyle of Beaverhead County and the Beaverhead County Fair.

For more information on submission requirements or to submit artwork, please call Keeley (406) 925-3645 or e-mail keeleyfitz@hotmail.com.
