Bonnie McMannis Burton

Bonnie was born March 28, 1928 to Bill and Elsie McMannis in Dillon, Montana. She grew up in Beaverhead County educated at BCHS with some undergraduate classes from Western Montana College. She married Fred Arbour and together they were blessed with four rambunctious boys and a beautiful baby girl.

After Fred's untimely death Bonnie moved her brood of little ones (Dale, Joe, Danny, Randy, and Cheryl), out to a small farm, she was a country girl at heart. She remained a widow for nine years as she focused on providing for her kiddos teaching them the value of hard work, milking cows, raising chickens, calves, pigs, sheep, goats and an occasional stray dog or cat. There was also the endless weeding of gardens. She so loved the country life. Then in 1969 she was set up on a blind date with a tall lean cowboy from the Big Hole Valley named Clarence Burton. She fell head over heels into the strong arms of this rancher and the ranch life where she felt most at home. They were soul mates through and through, milking cows, pulling calves, feeding cattle, riding horses, fencing, harvesting whole milk, fresh eggs, cream, homemade butter, not to mention again the endless weeding for organic vegetables. We thought we had it tuff not realizing until later how blessed we were to have such a remarkable home.

Mom and Clarence made certain we never went without. She would pile us kids on her lap and read the Bible to us sowing the seed of the gospel of Christ into our lives through prayer and her loving example. Mom had a patient endurance in spite of more than her share of trials and heart aches. She had a tender relationship with the Lord and share in the fellowship of the Day Spring Mission Church and several other church families in the valley. Mom taught us how to never give up and to keep our hand to the plow not looking back, the rewards of working hard, loving one another through thick and through thin, and a love for this amazing Earth our God has graced us with. Mom loved rich black dirt and we have all come to appreciate it ourselves.

Bonnie was preceded in death by her parents William and Elsie Ashworth McMannis, brothers Bill and Wallace and her sister Winibel Hildreth.

She is survived by her sister Carol Farmer, her oldest son Dale and Linda Arbour and granddaughters Bonnie and Jackie; Joe and Joy Arbour grandkids Kathy, Joey and Jeff; Dan and Sampson his big Golden Retriever along with Peter and Annie dog; Randy and Coke Arbour and grandkids Amanda, Kristy, Tyler, Ceth, and Angela; and her baby girl Cheryl and Mike Smith and grandkids Afton, Tracy, Lori and Christa Joy. And, as if these beautiful children were not enough, God blessed Bonnie and this world with twenty one (or more) great-great grandkids. What a wonder life is, has been, and will be! Mom

We would like to extend a huge THANK YOU to Dr. Moore at Barrett Hospital ER and the nurses (Cindy & Deb) for your quick response and expertise in our nerve racking and stressful visit with our son. We would also like to Thank Russ Sigman and Ian Yuhas with the Beaverhead Ambulance and the other nurse (I'm sorry we didn't get your name) whose quick response helped us get to Butte as quickly and safely as possible. Without people like you in our community one only knows what the outcome would have been. Again we send our deepest THANK YOU to all of you that helped us and were involved!!

Rumors on the Street

By: MJ

Why is it people want to read information that they can gossip about. Why is it they would rather read about a murder then a story where someone has achieved a high honor? Would it be that we want people to think we are perfect or are we afraid to be honest about our personal life? Is it that it makes us feel good that other people have problems that we can talk about so we don't have to be honest about our own problems?

Life is no bowl of cherries. Life has it joys and struggles that humble us. There is and always will be overwhelming situations that we must deal with. That could be anything from losing a loved one, eating or drinking in excess, cheating on your partner, spending more money then you have, stretching the truth, always blaming other people for your own faults...

I have had people tell me lately that I am not writing anything good about the city government. Yes, the articles have changed. You might say they have done a 360. The meetings are no longer functioning as they were before Judge Tucker's decision on "Open Meeting" statute, the recall petitions were circulated and a newly elected mayor.

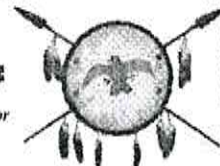

It has been my pleasure to attend the recent council and committee meetings. The council members as well as other members at the table operate as a team working for the community. They listen to each other, they share ideas, they have open above board discussions, comply with Open Meeting statue and most of all they come to decisions where all have participated. They have taken time to learn how the city government works, they have taken tours of the Water Works plant, they work with the mayor, city attorney and treasurer, they are reviewing an understanding of past policies, (growth plan, zoning plans...) and most of all they ask questions.

Enjoy the new articles, get involved with your Ward Representative and voice your opinion. It has been apparent that the council is working for the entire community. If you don't talk to them and give them your ideas then you are tying their hands behind their backs, thus preventing them from doing the job you want to see done.

In this community people are proactive showed that by stepping up and putting their names on the dotted line for the recall petition and then showed up at the polls to vote for what they wanted. Working together does benefit all. Let's work together and bring forth ideas that will help build the economy.

STRONG WOMEN™ STARTING SOON (April 20, 2015)

The Strong Women™ Program is a national fitness program for women developed by Dr. Miriam Nelson, at Tufts University in Boston, Massachusetts. The program will help participants look and feel better while increasing strength, bone density, and balance. Since 2010, when the program began locally, participants have reported improvement in all of these areas. It is a good program for women of all ages and activity levels. One current participant recently celebrated her 100th birthday!

Participants use ankle weights and dumbbells (provided) in exercises done slowly, beginning with minimal weight and increasing the weight very gradually as the exercise repetitions seem easily completed.

The program is not for profit and leaders volunteer their time. A minimal fee of $20 per month is charged so equipment can be purchased and rent paid to the Elks Lodge. New participants are encouraged to try the program free for two meetings before making any payments. If they choose to continue the program, fees are charged at that time.

Currently the program is being run two days per week (Monday and Thursday) in sessions two months long, after which participants have the opportunity to continue a maintenance day (no fee charged) once a week on Mondays until the next session begins. A new session begins Monday April 20, 2015, from 10:30 until 11:45 at the Dillon Elks Lodge, 27 E. Center St. All former and new participants are encouraged to attend. Wear comfortable clothing and closed toe shoes.

For further information contact Jeannette Pittman at 660-2777 (call or text) or call 683-4504.

Trina Health Update

Trina Health of Montana is in the process of making sure that we are able to serve our patients with their insurance needs. We have searched our community and have not been able to locate a medical provider that is available that can accept Medicare. We are in the process of searching outside of our community for a medical provider that meets our needs.

For those of you that are waiting for our clinic to open and for those of you that are traveling at this time for treatment please know that we are doing our best to provide the best clinic and personnel for your healthcare needs. We appreciate your patience while we accomplish this final hurdle. For those of you that are interested in getting more information you can stop by the clinic at 530 N. Montana St. or call us at 988-0721. Trina Health is a diabetic treatment center.
