BULLDOG RODEO CAPTURES TITLES

The University of Montana Western rodeo teams swept the team titles at the spring rodeo hosted by the University of Great Falls.

The women's team posted 495 points during the weekend, providing a 200 point cushion over second place Northwest College. The advantage increased the margin between Montana Western and the third place team in the Big Sky Region, the University of Montana. Montana Western now sits in good position to earn a team bid to June's College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR).

Sophomore Tess Turk captured the women's all-around title after a second place finish in breakaway roping and a win in the goat tying. Senior Justinn Marshall also scored points in both events, finishing in third place in the breakaway event. Junior Jamie Riley earned points for the team in the barrel racing.

The Bulldog men earned the team title with a 110-point lead over Northwest College, further extending its lead in the regional standings.

Freshman bareback rider Tristan Hansen finished fourth and senior J2 Bridges earned points in the event. Three Bulldogs finished in the top four of the saddle bronc event, juniors Tyler Friend, Phil Shields and Dakota Munns. Shields and Friend hold the top two spots in the Big Sky Region standings, with their eyes on CNFR invitations. Shields also retained a slight lead over Friend in the regional all-around race.

Seniors Kane Cartwright and Ian Austiguy finished second and third in the steer wrestling and Cartwright was the all-around runner up after earning points in the team roping as well. Austiguy and fellow seniors Newt Novich and Nick Xerox also earned team roping points during the weekend. Junior Jade Gardner came away with points in the tie down roping but slipped to second place in the regional standings.

The Montana Western rodeo teams are completing the final three class days of the semester as they prepare for the final weekend of rodeo competition, hosted by the University of Montana. In addition to seeking to solidify their bids to the CNFR, head coach Iola Else and a large contingent of seniors will be traveling back and forth during the weekend to participate in commencement activities.

BEAVERHEAD BREWERY JOINS HOOK A KID ON GOLF TEAM

The Beaverhead Brewery has joined the Hook a Kid on Golf Team. On Friday, May 8 and Saturday, May 9, the Beaverhead Brewery will donate one dollar for every pint sold to the Dillon Kiwanis-Community Youth Initiative Hook a Kid on Golf program.

The 2014 Dillon program was named the number one new Hook a Kid on Golf program in the United States. The program teaches area youth the fundamentals, rules and etiquette of golf, and each child participating receives their own set of golf clubs and bag.

60 children participated in last year's program. The 2015 program is set for June.

Letter to the Editor

You probably saw on the news the Atlanta teachers who helped students cheat on tests!! The judge fined these educators and gave them twenty years in jail. I know they did wrong, but twenty years in jail!! Over the past 20 years we have had at least 96 federal politicians convicted of crimes. "Big crimes!!" Not one got a sentence of 20 years in prison. Here are a few examples of federal crooks:

Representative Michael Grim of NY pleaded guilty of felony tax evasion. His 4th count in a 20 count indictment brought against him for improper use of campaign funds. He spent three months in jail.

Lewis Libby chief of staff for Vice President Cheney. Convicted of perjury, obstruction of justice. Was sentenced to 30 months in prison. President Bush commuted his sentence.

Elliott Abrams, Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs, convicted of withholding evidence. He was given two years probation. Later he was pardoned. No jail time!

General David Petraeus, gave the nation's most sensitive secrets away, lied to the FBI, gave away eight notebooks containing highly classified information. Some said he was a traitor to America. No Jail time!

Then we had many bankers and wall street executives who stole billions of dollars, took life savings of many Americans, derailed the U.S. economy. What was their sentence? Nothing! Not true. They were given bonuses!

There are many calling for President G.W. Bush and many in his administration tied to the War in Iraq and to the CIA torture program to be tried as war criminals. You know the answer!

But those teachers and educators who helped students cheat on tests got 20 years in prison. Where is the justice. Oh, yes, I forgot those teachers and educators are black. And we wonder why people are unhappy with the justice system.

Handkerchief Program at Old Depot Theater

Terese Blanding, the presenter of "HANDKERCHIEFS: The Artful Little Squares of History," has had a life-long interest in and love of vintage textiles. A Montanan for most of her life, she attended the University of Montana, majoring in art. She owned a bed and breakfast on Montana's Rocky Mountain Front for 12 years where she shared her collection of vintage linens with guests and friends. Terese currently resides in Billings, Montana.

The Dillon Public Library is sponsoring Terese Blanding's presentation on Saturday, May 9, at 2:00 pm in the Old Depot Theater. Blanding's extensive collection of vintage handkerchiefs appeals to her interest in design, needlework, textiles, history and storytelling and she delights in sharing the collection and accompanying history with others. Tea and cookies will be served after Terese's presentation. Please join us for this program which could be a fun Mother and Daughter activity on the day before Mother's Day.

The Dillon Public Library currently has a handkerchief display with an extensive representation of these "little squares of history." Please stop by to enjoy this display during library hours: Monday - 11-7, Tuesday through Thursday - Noon to 7, Friday 11 - 6, and Saturday 11 - 3. See you @ the Library!
