Marti (Martha) Rest Carlson, 60

Marti (Martha) Rest Carlson, 60, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, May 9, 2015, as the result of a ruptured aneurysm.

Martha Munro Rest was born Jan. 12, 1955, in Chicago, Ill., to Walter and Phyllis (Brewer) Rest. She spent her early childhood in Homewood, Ill. While attending elementary school, she often sneaked home at lunchtime to eat peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and watch Bozo's Circus on WGN-TV. Marti's lunchtime escapades went on for quite some time, but her covert operations ceased abruptly when her mother arrived home early one day.

Her family moved to Evanston, Ill., in 1967. After the loss of her mother to cancer when Marti was 16, Marti took on a motherly role to her younger siblings, Melanie and David, and became suburban Chicago's youngest station wagon driver. Marti graduated from Evanston Township High School in 1973.

After several summers working on a guest ranch with her older brother, Andy, in Grand Lake, Colo., Marti fell in love with the Rocky Mountains and chose to attend college at Colorado State University. She graduated with a degree in agricultural journalism in 1978. While at CSU, she met a veterinary school student named Layne Carlson. Shortly before they met, Marti had fallen on the ice and fractured her leg; she was in a cast up to her hip. Layne saw her on campus attempting to climb stairs with an armload of books. He helped her get to her class, and nonchalantly said, "Where I come from, a broken leg means we either shoot 'em or make brood mares out of 'em." Marti often remarked that this was a unique line and she'd never heard one quite like it before. Marti and Layne were married May 13, 1979 in Fort Collins, Colo.

After Layne's graduation, the newlyweds moved to Burley, Idaho, where Marti worked in a bank until the arrival of daughter Erin in 1982. The following year, Marti, Layne, and Erin relocated to Layne's hometown of Twin Bridges, Mont., and began

Mountainview Veterinary Service. Son Kelly was born in 1984. Besides being a full-time mother, Marti not only worked tirelessly to help build the veterinary practice, but also returned to school and earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Western Montana College in 1992. She student taught in the second grade at Twin Bridges Elementary and was honored to accept the permanent position in the fall of 1993. For the next 22 years, Marti delighted in teaching and nurturing "her kids." She went above and beyond for her students, striving to ensure that each had the very best she could provide. She wanted nothing more than to make sure that each second grader felt the depth of her commitment not only to their education but also to their overall well-being. Marti also believed strongly in being lifelong learner; as such she earned a master's degree in technology education from Leslie University in 2011.

Marti greatly valued hard work, kind words, and a humble attitude, and she epitomized these daily. Marti enjoyed early mornings and late nights, a hot cup of coffee or a cold beer and a good steak. She had a soft spot for animals; from bum lambs to orphaned kittens, and especially her horse Molly and her dog Maggie. Without a doubt, though, Marti's biggest love was her family. Her greatest pleasure came from being "Grammie" to her three grandchildren, Avery, Liam, and Ariana. She dearly loved caring for them, teaching them, and unapologetically spoiling them!

Marti was preceded in death by her mother, Phyllis Brewer Rest.

She is survived by her husband of nearly 36 years, Layne of Twin Bridges; her daughter, Erin Price and husband, Seth, and grandchildren, Avery and Liam of Bigfork, Mont.; and son, Kelly Carlson and wife, Amanda, and granddaughter, Ariana of Stevensville, Mont. Marti is also survived by her father, Walter Rest (Charlotte) of North Charleston, S.C., and her five siblings: brother, Andy Rest of Billings, Mont.; sister, Emily Stottlemire (Karl) of Hewitt, Texas; sister, Melanie Stull (Mike) of Phoenix, Ariz.; brother, David Rest (Carol) of Washington, Ill.; and brother, Daniel Rest (Colleen) of Chicago, Ill. She is survived by sister-in-law, Lorna Salisbury of Silver Star, Mont., and special friend, Verta Dorseth of Twin Bridges. Marti had many much-loved nieces and nephews. Additionally, Marti leaves behind

The family wishes to extend a sincere thank you to the Twin Bridges QRU, the Ruby Valley Ambulance, and the Ruby Valley Hospital team.

A celebration of Marti's life will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday, May 21, in the Multipurpose Room at the Twin Bridges School. A reception will follow. Spring Concert & Awards

The Beaverhead County High School Band will present its Spring Concert & Awards on Tuesday, May 19. It will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the BW Lodge Gymnasium. The program will feature the BCHS Symphonic Band, Jazz Bands, and festival ensembles.

The concert will begin with ensembles that recently performed at the District & State Music Festivals. First on the program will be the Brass Quintet playing two Canadian Brass arrangements. They will be followed by the Saxophone Quartet, Clarinet Quintet, Flute Choir, Brass Choir, & Woodwind Ensemble. The ensembles will perform repertoire by Johann Sebastian Bach, Johann Christoph Bach, Josef Bodin de Boismortier, Orlando di Lasso, and others.

Following the festival ensembles is the Jazz Band. They will perform two selections. The first is an arrangement of Fleecie Moore's "Caldonia." Originally recorded by Louis Jordan, it will feature Taryn Mercer on tenor saxophone. The next piece will be a jazz funk original by Jim Cifelli entitled "Groove Machine."

The final portion of the concert will feature the Symphonic Band. The first selection is a setting of the English dance tune "Shepherd's Hey" by Percy Aldridge Grainger. Following will be works performed by the band at the District Music Festival. The works include a setting of "O Magnum Mysterium" by Morten Lauridsen & H. Robert Reynolds and "Undertow" by John Mackey. The final selection will be a medley from the musical "Hairspray."

This concert will be a farewell for the band's talented seniors. They include Holly Andersen, Kayla Bojkovsky, Kelsey Brown, Reilly English, Cameron Freebury, Shelby Kluesner, Taryn Mercer, Jordan Peterson, Carmen de los Rios, Joel Rivera, Don Williams, and Hayley Williams.

The instrumental music program at BCHS is under the direction of Mr. Christopher Kloker.
