Burr Leonard Lively, 88

Burr Leonard Lively, 88, was born on Dec. 3, 1926, to parents Leonard Burr Lively and Clara Delilah Lively.

His mother took the train from their home in Gilmore, Idaho, and Burr was born above the Moose Bar with a midwife attending. Burr passed away in the early morning hours of June 2, 2015, at Barrett Hospital in Dillon.

Burr spent his childhood in the mining camps around Melrose, including McCartney Mountain and Soap Gulch, where he spent many happy days with his Grandmother and Grandfather. Burr wore many hats during his 88 years, miner, postmaster, and vigilante road builder. He was a wonderful provider for his family, always working more than one job.

Burr attended grade school and high school in Melrose and graduated from Butte High School in 1944. He served his country in the U.S. Navy from 1944 until July 1946. He was stationed in Oakland, Calif., and served at Oak Knoll Hospital as a pharmacist mate.

Burr and Connie (Walhood) were married on June 22, 1947. They celebrated their 67th Wedding Anniversary on June 22, 2014. Our Mom took wedding vows very seriously. Even though it became very difficult to care for Dad in these last few years, she never wavered with her love, caring and support for him. She did a wonderful job of making sure his every need was taken care of as well as the rest of our family.

He worked at the Anderson Phosphate Mine at Maiden Rock in the late forties after serving in the Navy and then left to mine with his father at Soap Gulch.

He was postmaster in Melrose from 1952 to 1982. He was a member of the National Association of Postmasters United States (NAPUS), serving as State President in the '70s. He was a member of the Montana Mining Association; the Beaverhead Chapter of the American Legion, Post No. 20, where he served as Commander; and the Melrose Fire Department where he served as Fire Chief for many years.

He was a member of the Southwest Montana Tavern Association for numerous years, serving as its president. He was also a member of the Montana Tavern Association, receiving the "Durkee" Award for outstanding service.

Burr started hosting a 4-wheel run to Hecla attended by many family and friends and he continued to ride a 4-wheeler up until the last few years, even taking an expedition to the top of Sheriff Mountain for those with enough courage to go with him.

FIRE WHISTLE

Dillon Volunteer Fire Department was paged to a semi roll over on Hwy 41, mile marker 11 on Tuesday evening. Set up traffic control.

"EVERY HERO HAS A STORY"

Dillon Public Library will launch Summer Reading 2015 – Every Hero Has a Story - with a program about astronauts on Thursday, June 4th at 10:00 a.m. at the Old Depot Theatre. Library staff will be present beginning at 9:30 to assist readers in signing up for participation in this year's summer reading program which will be ongoing throughout the months of June and July. Thursday's program is sponsored by the Museum of the Rockies (MOR) in Bozeman, Montana. MOR supports summer reading across the state by designing a program around the summer reading theme adopted by Montana libraries. MOR develops a theme-based program with lessons and an accompanying trunk of supporting materials. Thursday's program will be about the heroes of space programs – astronauts! The children will learn about what it takes to become an astronaut – how they train for their travel and what they do while they are traveling on a spaceship. We will explore the principles which create the conditions for sustaining life in space. And we will learn about individual astronauts, including one from Bozeman, Montana! A rocket launch will be the featured activity of this program.

Summer reading at Dillon Public Library is an informal program for children of all ages designed to create interest in topics and encourage children to read throughout the summer. Weekly programs, a movie matinee series, and evening storytime readings are some of the activities planned this year. A child who doesn't read during the summer will experience a loss of literacy skills, and will enter school in the fall needing a two to six week review of skills already taught the previous year. A child who reads during the summer enters school in the fall ready to begin learning on a new and higher level. Incentives are a part of the summer reading program. This summer children will earn "Courageous Cash" by keeping track of the amount of time they spend reading and by attending library programs. The Courageous Cash will be used to purchase prizes on display in the library throughout the summer and to participate in the Grand Finale, which is a carnival sponsored by the Library at the conclusion of the summer reading activities. This year the Grand Finale will be on Thursday, July 30th.

Burr and his Father mined many different properties over the years, most notably his beloved Hecla, where he and his Father would sometimes leave when he finished working at the Melrose Post Office and ride a Weasel snowcat to Hecla where they would do underground mining most of the night and return to Melrose for his Postmaster job in the morning.

Burr spent many years helping out his parents at their Melrose Bar. It was just one of his many extra duties he provided for his family. He enjoyed the bar and all the friends from near and far. Everyone knew Burr even though in the later years, he could not totally remember who they were.

Burr was always an adventurer who loved traveling. Mom and Dad took many special trips, cruises to the Caribbean, Alaska, Hawaii; other trips to Australia and Brazil and many trips to Arizona to visit friends and family. Dad was always the first one to want to learn something new on one of his trips and in Hawaii; he was the only one that would spend a full day touring a pineapple plantation.

Burr enjoyed bowling, where he bowled on leagues in both Dillon and Butte for many years. He enjoyed being outdoors the most and there were hunting trips both guiding hunters for years and hunting with family and friends. There were many adventures and misadventures. We always said he had nine lives.

There were always animals in Burr's life, dogs, horses and a mule. He took excellent care of his animals, the same way he did his family. He, at one time, thought he would raise a few cattle but those also became his pets and he ended up just snowmobiling in the winter to his place at Soap Gulch to feed them hay.

He spent his 88 years in Melrose, the place he loved more than any other place in the world. He was instrumental in bringing a sewer system into Melrose in the early '80s. He loved Melrose and all the people who lived here and

Charlie Russell's Pranks and Stunts as Told by Sid Willis

On June 6 at 2 pm in the old church at Bannack State Park, Richard Baker will perform a living history depiction of Sid Willis. Shortly before he died, Charlie Russell wrote, "Life has never been too serious with me. I've lived to play and I'm playing yet." Richard Baker, speaking in old-time cowboy lingo, depicts Sid Willis bringing to life his recollections of his best friend, the likeable, humorous, and mischievous young wrangler the cattlemen called "that ornery kid Russell." Most of these yarns did not appear in Russell's own writings.

Sid Willis was the proprietor of the Mint Saloon in Great Falls, which until 1948 housed the largest collection of Russell's art in the world. In his life, Willis was also a cowboy, sheriff, U.S. marshal, state representative, state senator, and national election delegate. He probably knew Charlie better than almost anyone, except for Russell's wife.

In addition to relating humorous accounts of Russell's wild years, Sid Willis discusses the controversial sale of Russell's "Mint Collection" and explains, from his point of view, why the famous collection now resides in Texas instead of Montana.

Richard Baker, author of six books, lecturer, historical musician, and amateur historian, is a life-long student of C. M. Russell. He grew up one block from the late cowboy artist's home at a time when many of his neighbors still remembered Russell and told many accounts of Charlie's interesting life. He has written two historical fiction books about Russell that have won national literary awards.
