Franklin "Don" Westad

Franklin "Don" Westad was born September 19th 1936 in Parkers Prairie, Minnesota and passed away on June 7th 2015 in Meridian Idaho surrounded by his wife, daughter, son-in law and 2 grand-kids. Don was a gentle giant who stood 6'6" tall. He loved and doted on his family, putting their needs above all else. He was hardworking and quite generous. Don was not much of a talker. Those who were fortunate enough to know him, understood he would engage in topics he felt strongly about. He was passionate about his Norwegian roots and cultures and local school sports. Don attended Beaverhead County High School from 1952 to 1955. He was a driving force on the schools Basketball and Football teams. Much like most kids, he worked various jobs in and around Dillon, Helena and surrounding areas. After high school, Don went into the service. He joined the Army National Guard of Montana, then became active in the United States Air Force from 1955 through 1960. While he served in the USAF, he was part of the installation squadron. In addition he received training and successfully completed Engineer school and Draftsman school. After he honorably served the military, he went on to work jobs in Southern California. His position at Los Angeles Unified School District started with Heating and Air Conditioning installation and maintenance and worked up to Inspector. In 2001 he retired and moved back to his hometown of Dillon, MT. Don has a large family. He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Faye Westad of Dillon Montana. He has 3 children, Donald Scott Westad, LaDonna Westad Blackwood and Christopher Westad. Franklin "Don" is brother to Elroy Westad and survived by his sister Marlene Tash of Dillon Montana.

Don is survived by 11 grand children. Janean (of Dillon); Kevin, Sean, Ian, Amber, Cassandra, Adriana, Christopher, Matthew, KelliAnne and Joshua. He is also a Great Grand-Father to Katelyn, Ashley, Tanner (Dillon MT.) Natalia and Jodie. Franklin is also survived by numerous family and extended family and friends throughout the world. Other than his love of local and college sports, he always requested homemade Lefse and Rommegrot whenever the family gathered (including pot luck suppers at his Lutheran Church or meetings for the Sons of Norway). Don wants to be remembered how he was before his illness. We celebrate him warmly with a life well lived. We love you Papa Westad...

Did you watch the big horse race last week? There are some things I just don't understand!! When they have a horse race thousands of humans show up to watch. But where there is a human race, not one horse shows up to watch. Just doesn't seem right.

Dillon Alano Club Seeks New Location

The Dillon Alano Club is in need of space for the current calendar of 12-step meetings. The Alano Club is a 501-3C organization. It is necessary to find new accommodations as soon as possible. Our hopes would be to find something (preferably permanent) but we do need help. At a minimum we would require 2-3 separate rooms to host meetings, a kitchen, bathrooms, room for materials and books as well as space for monthly dinners. There is also a need for easy accessibility. Time is of the essence.

If you know of or have an available house or suite of rooms that could be made available for this purpose please contact Rick at 660-1111 or Scott at 660-2417

Daines Staff to Hold Mobile Office Hours in Dillon

Senator Daines announced his staff will hold Mobile Office Hours in Dillon on June 18.

A representative from Daines' Montana offices will be at the Bank of Commerce in Dillon on June 18 from 10:00 AM until 3:00 PM.

The Bank of Commerce is located at 110 S. Idaho Street in Dillon.

Members of Senator Daines' staff will begin holding "Mobile Office Hours" in communities across Montana.

Staff will regularly travel through Montana's 56 counties and hold public "office hours" so that area constituents can meet with Daines' staff and communicate their ideas and concerns in person.

By making staff available for office hours outside of Daines' physical office locations, Daines and his staff will be able to better serve and communicate with constituents in all parts of Montana.

"It is an honor to represent one of the largest states in our nation, and it's my priority to ensure that all Montanans have access to our team and are able to communicate with our offices on a personal level," said Daines. "Holding mobile office hours throughout all 56 Montana counties will ensure that our team is able to readily serve all Montanans and all communities across our state."

Information regarding upcoming mobile office hours will be regularly announced to local communities. Daines' staff has mobile office hours scheduled in coming weeks for Stanford, Lewistown, Dillon, Livingston, Butte and Anaconda.

Montanans interested in attending the upcoming Dillon office hours or looking for more information about the office hours can contact Morgan Darlington at 406-587-3446.

Members of the media looking for more information about Daines' Mobile Office Hours can email press@daines.senate.gov.

MEDICAL FUNDING

preparation to compete in the 67th Annual College National Finals Rodeo to be held June 14-20, 2015 at the Casper Events Center in Casper, Wyo.Seven men and three women will represent the Bulldogs at the CNFR after the teams each earned an invitation to the event by finishing in the top two for the Big Sky Region. The men claimed the team title by holding onto the top position throughout the 10 rodeos of the fall and spring seasons. The women overcame a slow fall season to pile up points in the spring, moving them into second place in the year-end standings. Montana State University claimed the other invitations to the CNFR from the Big Sky Region.Bulldog rodeo coach Iola Else is looking forward to another trip to Casper and has her eyes set on bringing home championship hardware."We are ready to go and really looking forward to the week," Else commented. "The kids are looking forward to great competition as well as a number of extra activities."The contestants will have the opportunity to participate in softball and golf tournaments and host a morning of rodeo activities for individuals of all ages with special needs. Monday night of the CNFR week also features a scholarship awards banquet."A number of our Montana Western athletes have been nominated for scholarships," Else reported. "The academic success of our student has been recognized by the board of directors, and I am really hopeful that we will be rewarded during the scholarship presentations."These annual events are worked in around three full rounds of competition leading up to the short-go in which the top ten contestants will compete for the national championship saddles.
Both team and individual points are accumulated over the four rounds to create the final standings.The Montana Western men's team underwent a slight realignment in the past week after junior tie down roper Jade Gardner suffered serious injuries while participating in a branding.
Gardner will be unable to participate in the CNFR this season, but the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association allowed Else to name a substitute to round out her team."I am disappointed and heartbroken that Jade will not be able to compete at the CNFR after earning that right with his performanceHitchin' PostRestaurant & Bar this year," Else said. "Jade really stepped up his game this year and was a team leader in making positive choices that really paid off."

"We are pleased that we can take J2 Bridges in Jade's place, he is a seasoned competitor who will represent Montana Western very well," Else commented

The following Bulldog rodeo athletes will participate in the 2015 CNFR:

Phil Shields, a junior from Philipsburg, Mont. won the Big Sky Region All-Around Cowboy award by claiming titles in both the bull riding and saddle bronc riding. This is Shields' second trip to the CNFR, where he the first competitor of the 2015 event as he opens up the saddle bronc competition in the rough stock matinee Sunday afternoon.

Tyler Friend, a junior saddle bronc rider from Tetonia, Idaho will kick off his first CNFR on Sunday afternoon. Friend finished the regular season in second place in the standings of saddle bronc riding and third in the all-around competition.

J2 Bridges, a senior from Melrose, Mont. will represent the Bulldogs in the bareback riding. Bridges finished the season fifth in the Big Sky Region standings, but has a solid history at the CNFR as qualified twice for the event prior to transferring to Montana Western.

Newt Novich, a senior from Twin Bridges, Mont. earned the right to compete in the steer wrestling event after placing third in the Big Sky Region. Novich earned a qualification to the 2013 CNFR while competing for Northwest College.

Kane Cartwright, a senior from East Helena, Mont. will be competing in two events for the Bulldogs at this year's CNFR. Cartwright will be competing in steer wrestling and team roping as a header, he finished second and third respectively in the Big Sky Region standings. This is Cartwright's second straight trip to Casper, where he finished fifth in the 2014 CNFR short go.

Holden Garrison, a sophomore team roper from Dillon, Mont. will heel for Cartwright. Garrison finished third in the final Big Sky Region heeler standings. This will be Garrison's first trip to the CNFR, but he brings with him a family legacy of success at the event. Garrison's father and uncles represented the Bulldogs at the CNFR during their college rodeo careers.

Ian Austiguy, a senior from Bozeman, Mont. will also compete in the team roping event at the 2015 CNFR. Austiguy finished fourth in the Big Sky Region as a header, and will head for Montana State University heeler Jesse Brown during the CNFR.

Connlee Gray, a sophomore from Liberty Lake, Wash. will represent the Montana Western women's team in the barrel racing event. Gray finished the Big Sky Region barrel racing competition in eight place, but is no stranger to running in big events as she claimed a championship saddle in the Pro-West Rodeo Association this past summer.

Justinn Marshall, a senior goat tyer from Saco, Mont. looks to end her Bulldog career on a high note after finishing seventh in the Big Sky Region this season. Marshall, a team captain, will be competing in her third and final CNFR.

Tess Turk, a sophomore from Elko, Nev. is looking to continue her outstanding season. Turk finished fourth in breakaway roping, and fifth in both goat tying and all-around standings for the Big Sky Region. Turk will represent the Bulldogs in both the breakaway and goat tying during the CNFR.
