Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF Offers Abundance of July 4 Recreation Opportunities

As the July 4th holiday approaches, the Forest Service would like to remind those who are planning for the holiday weekend that there are great places throughout the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest to visit. The forest has over 3,200 miles of trails, 76 campgrounds, picnic and recreation areas, as well as being home to the Anaconda Pintler Wilderness and the Lee Metcalf Wilderness.

Among the traditional camping, hiking and fishing activities, visitors are known to also enjoy wildflower viewing, photography, exploring the back country and a multitude of family activities. Additionally, there are 25 rustic cabins available throughout the forest for rent during the summer and fall hunting season. Go to www.recreation.gov <<http://www.recreation.gov>> to find out more and to reserve a cabin or a campsite.

Before you plan your trip, check for current road, trail and campground conditions by contacting the Forest Service, or go online to www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf <<http://www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf>>, always check to see what the current weather conditions are and go prepared for changing conditions. Visitors are cautioned to stay on the road to avoid getting stuck or starting wildland fires and to pay attention to road closed signs.

Many trails may not be open at higher elevations or muddy. Please stay on the trail and do not create new trails to get around hazards. Trail users should expect many trails to be impassable from fallen trees.

Visitors are also asked to be careful when recreating in the forest due to the potential for trees to fall. Here are a couple of handy tips: Be aware of your surroundings and avoid dense patches of dead trees. Trees can fall without warning; place tents and park vehicles in areas where they will not be hit if a tree falls; Stay out of the forest when there are strong winds that could blow down trees. If you are already in the forest when winds kick up, head to a clearing out of reach of any potential falling trees.

Bears, both black bears and grizzlies, are out and about. Keep your camp clean and store food out of reach of all animals. The Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF requires all food and other items that might attract bears to be stored where bears can't access them at night and during the daytime when food and attractants are not attended. 'Attended' means that a person is physically present within 100 feet and in direct sight of the food or carcass. While attended, food and attractants do not have to be stored. To find out more about bear safety go online to the Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF web page at www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf <<http://www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf>>.

Visitors are cautioned to be extremely careful with fire, fuels such as grass, shrubs and trees are beginning to dry out.

Fireworks are prohibited in National Forests. Fireworks and dry grass and trees are a bad combination. Never leave a campfire unattended. Make sure your campfire is extinguished completely and the coals are cool to the touch before you leave.

For more information, call the nearest Forest Service office to the area you wish to visit.

Montana Western rodeo has success in Casper

The 2015 College National Finals Rodeo has come to a close. At the end of three preliminary rounds and the finals the men's national champion team is Tarleton State University with 915 points, and the women's national champion team is Blue Mountain Community College with 517.5 points.

The Bulldogs of Montana Western had good showings from both the men's and women's teams. The men finished in 16th place with 295 points and the women finished in 18th with 115 points.

The women got out of the gates quickly as Tess Turk found early success in breakaway roping. Turk posted a time of 2.1 seconds in the first go, fast enough for a first place tie in the round, earning 75 team points. In the next two rounds, Turk's rope fell short. Turk also competed in the goat tying event, and clocking qualifying round times 7.2, 6.8 and 8.0 seconds. Turk finished the three rounds in 14th place, two spots out of the finals.

Other competitors for the Montana Western women were Connlee Gray and Justinn Marshall. Gray completed three clean barrel racing runs with times of 15.19 seconds, 14.61 seconds and 14.45 seconds. Gray earned a 26th place finish in her first CNFR. Marshall's first round run in goat tying did not result in a qualified time. Marshall recovered to place fifth in the second round with a time of 6.5 seconds, earning 40 team points. In Marshall's final appearance at the CNFR she recorded a time of 8.0 seconds.

The Montana Western men's team was led by senior Kane Cartwright. Cartwright competed in two events at the CNFR, steer wrestling and team roping. In steer wrestling, Cartwright did not record a time in his first two rounds, but bounced back strong to win the third round with a time of 4.1 seconds, scoring 80 team points.

Cartwright competed with Bulldog teammate Holden Garrison in the team roping, and the duo clocked runs of 6.6 and 7.3 seconds in the first two rounds. Despite a miss in the third round, the duo qualified for the finals and finished 10th in the final standings.

Cartwright's two event total of 100 points earned him eighth place in the men's all-around competition.

Newt Novich scored qualifying rounds in all three of his attempts in steer wrestling. Novich had times of 5.4, 6.9 and 13.1 seconds, good enough to qualify for the finals. In the finals, Novich clocked an 8.7 second run to finish fourth in the nation.

Tyler Friend opened the CNFR with a 56 point ride in the first round of saddle bronc. In both the second and third rounds, Friend was bested by the stock.

Senior bareback rider J2 Bridges finished his collegiate career with scores of 71.5, 64 and 66 points to finish 21st in the bareback competition.

Phil Shields, the Big Sky Region men's all-around champion, did not post qualifying rides in the first round of bull riding or saddle bronc. Shields bounced back to win the second round of saddle bronc by scoring a 74.5, earning 80 team points. The go round win was Shield's only qualified ride of the 2015 CNFR.

Ian Austiguy, competing with a partner from Montana State University in team roping, recorded a time of 12.2 seconds in the second round.

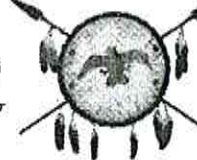

It was a very successful season for both the men's and women's rodeo teams, which finished first and second respectively in the Big Sky Region. The future looks bright for the rodeo teams at Montana Western as five of the ten CNFR competitors will return to school this fall, including the Big Sky Region men's all-around champion Phil Shields and CNFR finals competitor Tess Turk.

Letter to the Editor

What are we going to do about the entire problem? I mean the hole problem! Yes potholes! There are a least a zillion pot holes in American. We have enough pot holes to stretch from your favorite pot hole to the planet Exoginowyz. Last week I saw four men playing golf in a pothole. I yelled at them. They told me all had a hole in one.

Who creates these potholes? Some say it is the car companies who want to sell your extra parts that fall off. Without a doubt the supervisor for pot holes is named Chuck. Chuck is in charge of the hole operation. His friends call him the potentate of pothole. He claims the pot holes are a failure in an asphalt pavement caused by the presence of water in the underlying soil structure. Now I can relate to asphalt. It was the day I fell in a pothole.

Let me tell you! Once I had a pot without a hole. Or was it I had pot that was whole or was it I had a hole that wasn't a lot? I did take a potshot at buying a pot hole. I didn't have enough money. So I had to borrow a hole lot of money. You do know potholes are for sale. You can rent a chuck hole. Potholes are taking over this planet. Last week I saw a woman with pot holders selling potpourri and I saw a man with a pot belly and a big pot hole in the middle.

Pot holes do multiply. Potholes grow larger every day. The potholes in Montana are out of control. The N.P.A., National Pothole Association is protecting these holes. It is some kind of plot.

Some states you get arrested for pot. So if you have a pothole in front of your house you'd better watch out. Call the Pot Hole Orifice to find out your rights. Hope you have potluck. I know this is a hole mess!!

Barrett Hospital Auxiliary Gift Shop Celebrates Its 24th Year

This June marks the 3rd anniversary of the new and improved Barrett Hospital Auxiliary Gift Shop and the 24th year since first opening. The Gift Shop is located in Barrett Hospital along the main corridor just past the lobby.

The once-small shop started in 1991 as the brainchild of Norma Day, Ruth Haugland, Eileen Stephens and Virginia Nelson as another way for the Barrett Hospital Auxiliary to raise funds. The Auxiliary was originally formed in 1956 by Ruth Puyear, Helen Shaffner, Gertrude Lovell and other ladies in our community interested in devoting their time and energy to enhancing the comfort and care of hospital patients. Hospital Auxiliaries exist throughout our nation with similar purpose. Our organization is still very active today, with a combination of longstanding members and others joining in more recent years. The Gift Shop became the most lasting and profitable of many fundraising efforts carried out since the Auxiliary's inception. It has always been run on a strictly volunteer basis, from merchandising and display, to the customer sales staff. From the very first day of operation, all profits have been used at the discretion of the Auxiliary to enhance patient comfort and care.

The original Gift Shop was actually a free-standing retail case purchased from Eliel's Department Store and refurbished by Norma Day's husband, Jim. After several years of selling limited merchandise out of the display case that stood in the hallway of the old hospital building, the Auxiliary took over a dedicated space adjacent to the front entrance, about the size of a walk-in closet. In spite of its size, it provided a means for the Auxiliary to make significant purchases for the comfort of patients and visitors alike. Those included the wooden/safety handrails along the hallways in the old building, additional electric hospital beds, sleeper/lounge chairs in patient rooms, artwork, window blinds in patient rooms, and decorative soothing lighting in Physical Therapy treatment rooms.

With the opening of the new Hospital facility in June 2012, the Auxiliary Gift Shop was relocated to a much larger and more prominent site provided by the Hospital. It carries a greater variety of merchandise and prices can be kept low, thanks to the absence of overhead expenses. Some of the many items available for purchase in the shop include: See's Candy (available throughout the year), baby clothes and gifts, small toys for children, jewelry, scarves, decorative items, seasonal décor, books, cards, and personal care items.

Auxiliary members invite you to stop in for a visit and find out for yourselves what many of our regular customers already know. With your patronage, our Gift Shop will continue to thrive and serve our community.

If you have a desire to serve as a volunteer, either in the Gift Shop or as an Auxiliary member, we welcome your call. Contacts are Kathy Shafer at 683-5384 for Gift Shop volunteering, and Sharon Rice at 683-4831 for the Auxiliary.
