Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted By: Mel Rice, Public Relations Officer

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue had a very busy weekend from Friday June 19th through Sunday June 21st. At 6:00 pm Friday evening the Sheriff's office received a 911 call requesting assistance to rescue 10 individuals from the Stewart Lake region of the Big Hole Valley. Three individuals, a 13 year old, a 14 year old and a 41 year old adult male, of the party of 10 started walking out cross country over the top of the mountain range adjacent to Deer Peak in search of assistance. On their trek the adult male collapsed so the two teenagers continued their search for help. After the young men found help on Hwy 278, the 911 call was placed.

It was determined there were still 7 individuals, one 41 year old woman and 6 children ranging in age from 16 months to 10 years, at Stewart Lake which is located up Warm Springs Creek out of Jackson. The adult that had collapsed while trying to walk out was still out there somewhere. Search and Rescue was paged out to assist with the rescue along with Sheriff's personnel. Search Manager, Russ Sigman, contacted member MD Peterson who was dispatched to the lake as the hasty team. Upon reaching Stewart Lake he found 7 individuals in quite poor condition and in need of medical attention. They were all, however, able to walk and communicate.

Ambulances from Wisdom and Polaris were dispatched as far as possible and waited for the victims to arrive. Also responding were 21 Search and Rescue members, including medical personnel, who were on their way to complete the rescue. S&R members approached the lake on motorcycles, 4 wheelers, and 6 pack ATV's. After an assessment of each victim was completed and all deemed able to travel, they were transported to awaiting medical care by S&R vehicles. The adult male had also been located by a local individual on an old jeep road off Hwy 278 and taken to medical services. After medical care was rendered at Barrett Hospital, all ten individuals were released.

Without the aid of 6 pack ATV's the transport process would have been much more extensive. Being able to haul more than one or two individuals at a time definitely shortened the task. Beaverhead Search and Rescue wants to again thank Beaverhead Motors and Front Line Ag for providing us with these machines on loan for the remainder of the year. What a huge asset, especially when there are multiple victims that require assistance.

On Sunday June 21st, the Search and Rescue Unit was paged out to aide in the rescue of a 4 wheeler rollover victim in the Thief Creek area of Birch Creek. After being paged out and several members of the unit were heading to the incident it was determined the ambulance could get right to the victim and S&R was not needed. The members were returning to the building when they were diverted to Clark Canyon Reservoir to assist a stranded boat. Before reaching the lake all members of the unit were recalled to home base because the boater had made it back to the dock. We don't always make it to the incident before the individuals are located or for one reason or another and our assistance is no longer needed. Even in those circumstances the Beaverhead Search and Rescue is always ready to respond and render help when and where needed.

Montana Wing Civil Air Patrol

The Montana Wing Civil Air Patrol is searching for history pertaining to the CAP's presence in Beaverhead and Madison Counties. If anyone has any information they can send it to spencer.gilchrist@mtwg-cap.us. Questions about the future presence of the CAP in Beaverhead county may also be sent to that e-mail.

The Civil Air Patrol is the official auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force. We are a nonprofit organization with 58,000 members nationwide, operating a fleet of 550 aircraft. CAP, in its Air Force auxiliary role, performs about 85 percent of continental U.S. inland search and rescue missions as tasked by the Air Force Rescue Coordination Center and is credited by the AFRCC with saving an average of 70 lives annually. CAP also participates in Wreaths Across America, an initiative to remember, honor and teach about the sacrifices of U.S. military veterans. Visit www.capvolunteernow.com for more information.

Jefferson County Montana Sheriff's Office
12 hrs ·

Before I leave on a break for the next few days I need to address yesterday's crash scene. Southern Jefferson County, one vehicle, three injured, two of them ejected, with one having life threatening injuries.
Want to know who kept her alive while we arrived??????
YOU DID!
Thank you to those motorist who stopped and began life saving efforts. That five to ten minutes saved a life and because of you we could continue treatment and keep the victim going. If any one of you are reading this you are special folks. Not only did you start it but you stayed on scene and helped and took over when we got tired.
I'm not going into detail but those people worked on a teenager and the stress involved was tremendous and they rose to a challenge that is hard to comprehend for most.
The paramedic is going to read this....you have a gift of knowledge and how to apply it under the most stressful circumstances. I have no words to describe how thankful we are for what you and the EMT did for her.....and us. I won't name you because I know neither one of you want to be in a spotlight.
Well done everyone....motorist and all responders.

Note: As most of you know, this accident involved Dillon people on their way home in Jefferson County. Ashley Moon is the daughter Nikki and Mike Herren and is Ruth and Paul Pilgrim's granddaughter. She was in a car wreck Saturday and is in the hospital in Seattle. The family is keeping people updated with post on facebook, keep her in your payers.

Humans & Extremes

By: MJ

Studies show humans are prone to extremes: Extreme defined by Webster Dictionary: an existing in a very high degree, archaic or the farthest possible point from center.

We live in a culture driven by an obsession with money and sex. Marketing policies are directly tied to happiness being only possible through sex and money. These obsessions drive us to be angry, opinionated, self-serving unable to be loved or to love.

Are you a person that gets in the face of others and says; "that's the truth, I am only telling you the truth and if you don't like it shove it -- if you don't like it then to bad?" Would this action be a way of trying to control others? Are you communicating by listening to others to find out the real truth or are you trying to shove your truth down their throat? You don't pitch love by telling the truth only your way.

Love is not rude, love has no place in hostility, love is not selfish nor seeks its own, love does not require force, and love is not provoked and won't respond in anger. Example: I am not going to talk to my daughter about her actions last week until I get on top of my anger. Her actions have nothing to do with my anger and my anger has no place in the conversation.

When anger drives ones actions it usually does not work out well. Look back on the results of your actions when anger ruled and then ask yourself if the end results were praiseworthy.

Are your actions driven because of your pride and your ego instead of love? Are you a person that is selfish and demanding to the point where people are relieved when you are asleep? Are you a person that serves on committees or in other capacities that does not required payment for your services or are serving for self-image reasons? Are you a person that walks into a room and dislikes the music that someone is listening because it doesn't serve your wants, so you hit the off switch or do you go to another room?

Is being the head of your own mean, winning everything, having it the way you want it to be your way of doing it. If so then you are not acting in love.

Love is patience, love is kind, love is not jealous, love does not brag, it is not arrogant, love does not belittle others and love endures all things Let all you do be with love.
