Western's Handlos named Frontier Conference Athletic Trainer of the Year

Frontier Conference Commissioner Kent Paulson has announced that Montana Western Athletic Trainer, Dr. Janelle Handlos, has been named the 2014-15 Frontier Conference Athletic Trainer of the Year.

Handlos automatically becomes a finalist for the NAIA National Athletic Trainer of the Year Award.

The recognition, which is voted on by Paulson and the athletic directors of the Frontier conference, was awarded to Handlos for her exceptional treatment and prevention, leadership, and commitment to the athletes at Montana Western.

Receiving awards is nothing new for Handlos, who recently received the Northwest Athletic Trainers' Association (NWATA) Excellence in Service Award.

Handlos goes above and beyond her job description when dealing with patient care. Russ Richardson, athletic trainer and associate professor of health and human performance, said, "Janelle is viewed as a leader with great character and integrity. She is a tireless worker, giving of herself without recognition and often behind the scenes."

On top of the countless hours that Handlos has worked, ensuring that Montana Western's student athletes prevent injuries and recover properly, she also serves on the board of directors for the Southwest Montana Community Health Clinic and voluntarily teaches first aid and CPR classes throughout the region. Handlos works with the local emergency medical service providers to ensure optimal care in emergency situations involving student athletes.

Dr. Handlos is actively involved in legislative issues relating to the improvement of healthcare for Montana athletes and has served on NWATA's scholarship committee awarding over $100,000 to students in the northwest.

She has been the treasurer of the Montana Athletic Trainers' Association for the past 10 years and was recently selected by the NWATA to present her original research titled "The Importance of Leadership, Management, and Personal Characteristic Competencies in College and University Athletic Trainers."

Handlos receives this award in her final year as the Head Athletic Trainer at Montana Western, having served this position multiple times, she has also served as the Interim Athletic Director, Sports Information Director, and professor of health and human performance. Handlos will be transitioning into a full time assistant professor of health and human performance at Montana Western.

Handlos graduated from Montana Western in 2000, with a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education, Health and Human Performance and a minor in English.

FIRE CALLS

On Sunday at 2:16 pm, the Dillon Volunteer Fire Dept. and Dillon DNRC Fire responded to a grass fire on Highway 91 North near Brown's Bridge where a Union Pacific Train Derailment took place. The fire was extinguished. At 7:57 pm.

The DVFD was paged to a Semi accident on Interstate 15 at mile marker 39. Lima Volunteer Fire and Ambulance also responded. Scene Safety was conducted as well as extrication of one of the victims, and assisted Beaverhead and Lima Ambulances.

Letter to the Editor

OK guys, it's time to stop stumbling around Dillon at night half drunk (or even 10%). There seems to be a somewhat tame and friendly black bear that's fond of Dillon, or perhaps Dillonites or Dillon Dogs or beavers.

Last night I couldn't sleep so at about 3:00 I went out on my porch (at Snowcrest) with my two cats to smoke a cigar. After a few minutes I heard their distinct Woof and my cats went pwang for the nearest hole and I jumped back into my apartment to get my .45 but when I came out it was gone.

My sister Karin who lives up at the east end of Glendale said she opened the curtains on here sliding glass door and stood face to face with the friendly black bear. Luckily for her he just said "Woof" again and disappeared.

SO!! Please be safe. If you have to walk out alone at night you'd best carry nothing less than a .45, preferably a Colt 1911. Or just stay home, in bed, with your cat, or something safe.

LEARN THE ART OF GOLD PANNING

Do you know the difference between a bench placer and a stream deposit, a picker or a color? If you want to learn about gold mining for fun and profit then join us for an informative look at panning for gold. In July of 1862 the first major gold strike occurred on Grasshopper Creek and the gold rush to Montana was on. Although millions of ounces of gold have been mined in Montana, much gold remains to be found. The gold pan has been around for hundreds of years and is still an indispensable tool for prospecting and recovering gold. Learn where to look for gold and the different methods of using the gold pan. Gold pans and paydirt will be provided. Learn the art of gold panning from the knowledgeable staff at Bannack The program will be held Saturday, July 4th at 2pm at the gold panning area at Bannack State Park.

All Saturday programs are free, out of state vehicles pay a $6.00 park admission fee. Park hours are 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day. For more information call the park at 834-3413

Help Prevent Wildfires this Holiday Weekend

Hot and dry temperatures are predicted for the upcoming holiday weekend, and firefighters are asking for the public's help to prevent human-caused wildfires. "We are asking the public to be extremely vigilant when out recreating this holiday weekend and to take all fire safety precautions," says Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF Fire Management Officer Mike Goicoechea. "So far this year we have extinguished 11 human caused fires. The number of these human caused fires is taken into consideration when we determine if fire restrictions are necessary."

A U.S. Forest Service fire prevention order is in effect making it a misdemeanor to carry, discharge or otherwise use fireworks on federal lands. Violations to the order may bring fines and jail time, and violators who start wildfires can also be liable for the costs of damage and suppression.

In addition to fireworks, the use of incendiary/tracer ammunition and exploding targets is prohibited on federal lands. In general, please be proactive and take precautions while shooting by clearing all flammable materials and rocks away from the target area and make sure to have fire safety equipment on hand (shovel, fire extinguisher and/or water). Sparks from steel core/steel jacketed bullet fragments have been found to cause fires as much as lead core/copper jacketed and solid copper jacketed fragments.

During the summer, kongming lanterns, sky candles, fire balloons and sky lanterns are being used at a variety of celebrations. Such items are a fire hazard if they come into contact with dry vegetation.

Sparks can be thrown from vehicles and trailers that are not properly maintained, causing roadside fires without knowledge of the driver. So before you depart, make sure your vehicle and trailers are properly maintained by ensuring safety chains are not dragging, wheel bearings are well greased and tires are properly inflated to help prevent a blown tire.

The effects from an escaped campfire can last for many years; please completely extinguish your campfire before you leave. Before heading out to camp, find out what restrictions are in effect by going to <http://firerestrictions.us>

For more information, call the Forest Service in Dillon, Butte, Ennis, Sheridan, Wisdom, Wise River, or Philipsburg, or go to <http://www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf>.

LOCAL CAREGIVERS AND KIDS INVITED TO ENJOY "THE STORY OF FERDINAND THE BULL."

University of Montana Western Librarian and Assistant Professor Anne Kish is the next featured reader for "Storytime Thursday" --children's literature events for Beaverhead County moms, caregivers and children. She will share "The Story of Ferdinand the Bull" Thursday, July 2 at 4 p.m. on the lawn adjacent to Curious Minds Preschool.

"The Story of Ferdinand the Bull" by Munro Leaf was my favorite book as a child," said Kish. "I love to spend time relaxing in nature, and smelling the flowers and I think it's wonderful that mighty beasts might feel the same way and be more connected to nature than we realize."

Kish will also read "Don't Let Pigeon Drive the Bus," by Mo Willems. Stories will be followed by a "Ferdinand Flower" craft activity.

Upcoming series dates include English Professor Shane Borrowman on July 9, Parkview Elementary School Teacher Roberta Raffety on July 16, and Frontline Ag Solutions Salesman Alden Cashmore on July 30.

The preschool is located on the northeast side of the Montana Western campus off Cornell St. Parking is available on the street and in the parking lot east of Mathews Hall.

About Curious Minds: Curious Minds Preschool is dedicated to the academic, social and emotional growth of children three to five years old and is accredited by the state of Montana and the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). It employs licensed educators and university students pursuing an early childhood career and features a curriculum that facilitates child-initiated learning. For more information, please call 406-683-7320.
