ANGLING RESTRICTIONS ON BIG HOLE & JEFFERSON EFFECTIVE FRIDAY

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is alerting the public to angling restrictions on the Big Hole and Jefferson Rivers effective Friday, July 3 as a result of high water temperatures. Restrictions on other southwest Montana rivers are likely in the near future.

The restrictions beginning Friday will close the following rivers to fishing daily from 2 p.m. to midnight until conditions improve.

- The entire length of the Big Hole river except for Dickey Bridge to Maiden Rock FAS
- The entire length of the Jefferson River

Regional Fisheries Manager Travis Horton says biologists are keeping a close eye on all area rivers as we continue to see above average temperatures and low flows.

"Not only does this heat stress our fish, but the low water reduces available habitat," says Horton. "We cannot control those elements, but we can ask anglers to reduce their impact."

As restrictions are implemented, FWP recommends anglers seek out opportunities for fishing waters less susceptible to fish kills (i.e. high mountain lakes and reservoirs).

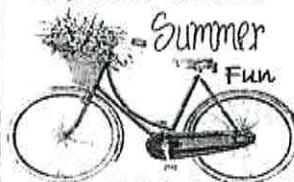

For up-to-date information on restrictions related to drought, visit <http://fwp.mt.gov/news/restrictions/>.

Long May it Wave...

By Chuck Dishno

The week of our independence for 239 years...1776-2015
 With all of the hype about the Rebel flag, I think it is time we took a good hard look at our own Star Spangled Banner. There is nothing wrong with being proud of the Rebel flag because it stood for a cause but we are all united now and it should never be flown over or even with our Star Spangled Banner. I have no problem with the southerners owning and displaying their flag. All this hooey about political correctness that some stores are showing by taking off the shelves the Rebel flag is just nuts.

Our National Anthem, the Star Spangled Banner, is the only anthem in the world that begins with a question... "Oh say can you see..." and ends with a question... "O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave, O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?"

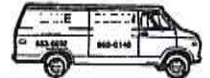

With this in mind I invite you to read aloud the words of the four stanzas that Francis Scott Key wrote on September 14, 1814. We all know words and can sing them but take time to really read them and see if you don't agree with me that it is the greatest poem of our time and worth fighting for. Let's make sure that no one tries to change it after all the men and women who gave their lives to defend this wonderful tribute to our flag.

The Star Spangled Banner

Oh say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines in the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner, O! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country, should leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave:
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation.
Blest with victory and peace, may the Heav'n rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."
And the star spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave! [I am the flag of the United States of America.

Council Meeting 7/1/15

By: MJ

It appears that some of the city personnel are struggling to work together and communicating. It was discussed that city personnel may be giving the public mixed messages. At the meeting last night it was pointed out that there was inconsistency in the information passed to a concerned citizen by the Mayor and Director of Operations on the new construction of (2) 4-unit apartments located at 714 Barnett Ave. A brief recap of Director of Operations and Mayor Duties follow.

The Director of Operations Duties (JS Turner): To supervise, direct and plan the daily work activities of the water and sewer, street and alley, cemetery and parks departments of the City and generally assist the Mayor in managing the affairs of the City. He will perform such other duties as may be required by the Mayor or City Council.

Mayor Duties (Mike Klakken): Prepare budget, appoint one or more administrative assistants to assist in the supervision and operation of the local government, and such administrative assistants shall be answerable solely to the Mayor; appoint and remove, with the consent of the Council, all department heads and appoint and remove all other employees in consultation with appropriate department head; exercise control and supervision of all departments and boards to the degree authorized by ordinance.

There was another inconsistency where a member of the public learned that their complaints of the stench via gases being released from the newly built Treatment Plant was never relayed to the Mayor. This is a huge problem that may affect the health of people and could have an effect on the entire city.

When push comes to shove the buck stops with the Mayor. He must depend on all personnel to keep him informed and for the ship to float everyone needs to communicate. Let's float the ship for the betterment of the community and work together starting with honest communication.
