Luminaria for the Relay for Life

So many people "light" our lives. Now it is our turn to be a "light" for our loved ones that endure the battle with cancer. You can honor or memorialize that special someone by purchasing a Luminaria that will be displayed at the Southwest Montana Relay for Life on July 24 -25. This year we will be setting up the Relay on the Kennedy Walking Path at The Barrett Hospital. A minimum donation of $5.00 a bag will help us all look to a brighter future without cancer. You may honor survivors or ones currently facing the courageous fight with cancer. Let's celebrate birthdays and our survivors! Caregivers of those special survivors may also be honored with purchase of a Luminaria. Also you may memorialize a loved one that has passed away from cancer with a Luminaria. Decorated or plain bags, that you can decorate, can be found at the 3-D store, the NV Salon, or the KnockAbout. Kirsten at the KnockAbout is setting up a table so you may decorate the bag right at her store. Please be sure to print the name of your special person clearly on the bottom of the bag so we can add the name to the list that will be read during the Lighting Ceremony. We would like to have all bags turned in by July 22nd but will add bags until the lighting ceremony.

Anyone wishing to help set up the bags may come to the Hospital at 4:30 pm on July 24 or clean up at 7:30 am on July 25. Ask for Deb and she'll gladly give you a chore ☺! Please contact Deb O'Neil @ 683-5733 for further information.

Come one and come all to the Lighting Ceremony that will begin at dark at the Kennedy Walking Trail at Barrett Hospital.

DILLON PUBLIC LIBRARY PROGRAMS

Pajamas in the Parks is basically bedtime stories read to the children from the park-like setting for the next three Tuesdays in the Library's back yard at 7 pm. Bring your kiddos in their pajamas, with their favorite stuffed toy and blanket. When the children reach their limit of stories, we serve cookies and milk and hope we send the kids home ready for slumber and dreams of stories full of fun and adventure!

In case of inclement weather, the program will move into the Library's basement programming room. The programs are free and open to all children and their family

SUMMER MATINEE SERIES

7/8/18 Mr. Magorium's Wonder Emporium Molly Mahoney is the awkward and insecure manager of Mr. Magorium's Wonder Emporium, the strangest, most wonderful toy store in the world. When Mr. Magorium, the 243 year-old who owns the store, bequeaths the store to Molly, a dark change begins to take over the once remarkable Emporium. Rated G 93 minutes

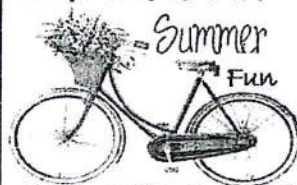

This will be presented by the Dillon Public Library summer reading program Wednesday afternoon at 1:00 pm at the Old Depot Theater. It is free and open to the public.

Birds and the Bees

By: MJ

In one of the articles I wrote I asked the question; "why is it that we humans seem to have problems leaving personal vendettas out of the decision process?" Maybe there is an answer.

1. If you put a buzzard in a pen that is 6 feet by 8 feet with the top being open, the bird will never leave. Reason: The buzzard always begins a flight from the ground with a run of 10 to 12 feet. Without the space to run, as is its habit, it will not attempt to fly and will remain a prisoner.

2. If you put a bat on a flat surface it cannot take off and fly. The bat must have a slight elevation from which it can throw itself into the air and will struggle until it finds that area.

3. If you drop a bumblebee into an open glass, it will stay there until it dies unless you take it out. The bee does not see the open top or escape hatch.

People: In many ways humans are like the buzzard, the bat and the bumblebee. Humans continue to struggle with their problems and frustrations without looking up or stepping out of their comfort zone thus finding new ways to fly.

As a human can we take a page out of the birds and bees book? Do we need to live a simpler life, love generously, respect others, care deeply, speak kindly... Do we need to somehow learn to see the exits, learn from the past and let it go, get out of the old ruts when solving our problems and let faith replace worries?

What I've learned... by the late Andy Rooney

"I've learned... That no matter how serious your life requires you to be, everyone needs a friend to act goofy with."

Fox Appointed to National Association of Attorneys General Executive Committee

Montana's Tim Fox has again been appointed to the executive committee of the National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG). Newly elected NAAG President Marty Jackley of South Dakota made the appointment and praised Fox for his leadership.

"Tim is a strong leader amongst state attorneys general and is widely respected by his colleagues around the country," Attorney General Jackley said. "I often seek his guidance on legal issues, matters of public safety, and more. He will play a key role on the National Association of Attorneys General executive committee as we work on critical issues facing our states and our nation."

"I am grateful to Attorney General Jackley for this appointment and look forward to working with him on the leadership team," Fox said. "I know from my experience serving on the executive committee of the outgoing NAAG President, Mississippi Attorney General Jim Hood, that it makes a real difference when attorneys general work together on law enforcement issues and protecting our states' legal interests."

Founded in 1907, the National Association of Attorneys General exists to foster interstate cooperation on legal and law enforcement issues, conducts policy research and analysis of issues, conducts training, and facilitates communication between the states' chief legal officers and all levels of government. NAAG's members are the attorneys general of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the chief legal officers of the Commonwealths of Puerto Rico (Secretary of Justice), the Northern Mariana Islands, and the territories of American Samoa, Guam, and the Virgin Islands.

NAAG's executive committee oversees the association's staff, multi-million dollar budget, and activities for the fiscal year 2015-16. Fox is one of three presidential appointments to the twelve member bipartisan committee. Attorney General Jackley also appointed Attorneys General Pam Bondi (R) of Florida and Karl Racine (D) of the District of Columbia.

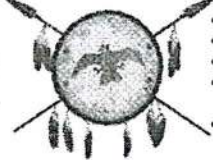

More information on the executive committee can be found online at <http://www.naag.org/naag/committees/executive-committee.php>
