BANNAK DAYS TO BE HELD JULY 18 and 19

Each year during the third weekend in July the old ghost town of Bannack comes alive in a celebration of pioneer life. This year, the annual Bannack Days Festival will be held on July 18 and 19. Activities will begin 9 a.m. Saturday and run until 5 p.m., then from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Sunday. Some of those activities include: horse and wagon rides, shootouts, gold panning and candle making. Plus, guests can enjoy cowboy poetry and old time music throughout both days. Visitors can also check out a mountain men camp, blacksmith shop, surveyor's camp, the Great Debate on women's suffrage, and a 1800's U. S. Cavalry camp. There is something for everyone, along with plenty of tasty food and drink.

The stagecoach from Virginia City will be arriving at 1 p.m. on Sunday. Rumor has it that Governor Edgerton and other dignitaries will be aboard along with a big gold shipment. Road Agent activity has been noted recently along the Bannack to Virginia City road. The Vigilantes have issued notice that anyone caught engaging in criminal activity will be the guest of honor at a necktie party! Sunday is a great day to visit as the crowds are smaller and the old time church services, the blacksmith and the stage holdup are on Sunday only.

Many visitors like to dress in period costumes to get into the spirit of things. Bring the family out to Bannack State Park for a fun-filled weekend. Come see what the old west was really like!

Please carpool if possible, as parking is limited. There is a special event fee of $5 per car load for Montana registered vehicles and $10 for out of state vehicles to help cover the cost of this event. Please share a ride to help with our parking and to conserve fuel. Bannack State Park asks that you PLEASE DO NOT BRING PETS TO THIS BUSY EVENT.

Beaverhead Conservation District Tidbit- District Supervisors

Conservation district organization and delegation of duties often seems a bit confusing at first glance. Who are the supervisors and what do they do? In 1939 Montana adopted legislation providing for the formation of conservation districts and how they are governed.

First, a short definition of a conservation district from the DNRC- "Conservation districts are political subdivisions with broad power and authority under the law to carry out programs that conserve soil and water, protect streams and rivers, improve soil health, as well as improve wildlife habitat, improve the tax base, and protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the state." With this definition in mind supervisors oversee the operation of the district.

Who are the supervisors? Each conservation district in Montana has five to seven supervisors. In Beaverhead County we have five elected volunteer supervisors and two appointed supervisors to represent our urban areas of Dillon and Lima. Your local elected supervisors are Byron Martinell, Carl Malesich, Jerry Meine, Rich Nordquist, and Tom Miller. The appointed supervisors are JS Turner for Dillon and Bob Young for Lima. In addition, Beaverhead Conservation District has four associate supervisors- Kelly Rowe, Justin Devers, Meg Smith, and Harold Peterson- that volunteer their time and expertise for district business and projects. Elected volunteers serve a term of four years and urban supervisors three years, there are no term limits. What do they do? District supervisor and associate supervisors volunteer vast amounts of time and expertise to the conservation district through attending monthly meetings, performing 310 permitting inspections, and helping out with various conservation district and watershed projects. They are responsible for district planning, personnel, administration, and finances. Being

DILLON CUBS MAKE MARK IN MISSOULA

Friday Logan Wilson pitched the game with just two hits against him to help get the win over the Tri-County Cardinals 8-2 and they had an impressive 4th inning with seven runs against the Missoula Mavericks to win that game 14-10.

The Dillon Cubs offense kicked in and overtook the Bitterroot Bucs 7-3 in the Missoula tournament this weekend. They had a little help from the relief pitcher for the last inning who allowed the Cubs 6 hits and a couple of walks.

The Cubs were led by Jamey Richardson with a double and a couple RBIs, Gabe Hupp had a couple singles and Logan Wilson had a RBI.

Dinner in the Park this Thursday

Milton Menasco's music has been described as a country-fried, electric-fueled, reggae explosion. This one-of-a-kind artist from Bozeman, Montana, blends reggae, country and funk into an unforgettable sound.

Milton Menasco's songs are catchy, soulful and have a genuine roots feel. Menasco finds the perfect balance between original material and covers. With his ability to call out tunes by artists such as Johnny Cash, Bob Marley and Willie Nelson at the drop of a hat, a Milton Menasco show is like nothing you have experienced before. To listen to his music, visit his website at miltonmenasco.com.

Milton Menasco will be performing at the Southwest Montana Art Council's Dinner in the Park this Thursday, July 16, at 6 p.m. in Jaycee Park. There will be a free art activity for kids of all ages as well as local art for sale. Dinner will be made by Rotary.

Forest Service to Spray for Bark Beetles at Sheepshead and Lowland Rec. Areas

The Forest Service has scheduled the application of insecticide at Sheepshead Recreation Area, and Lowland Campground north of Butte. These sites will be temporarily closed to public use from 6 a.m. Mon. July 13 to 6 p.m. on Tues. July 14 at Sheepshead Recreation Area; and from 6 p.m. Tues. July 14 to 6 p.m. Thurs. July 16 at Lowland Campground. The need for this is driven by the current mountain pine beetle epidemic, which has heavily affected many areas throughout southwest Montana. Depending on weather, the period of closure may be extended. A Forest Service contract crew will be spraying Carbaryl to protect individual pine trees from mountain pine beetles.

Application of insecticide began in late June with individual tree treatments in campgrounds, day-use areas and trailheads. In order to be effective the green trees must be treated late summer before the beetles fly again next summer. In addition, users may notice packets stapled to trees. These 2"x 2" packets are Verbenone and/or MCH and are used to ward off bark beetles in areas that cannot be sprayed with the Carbaryl pesticide because of being too close to water. Please leave these packets in place to protect the trees. For more information, contact the Forest Service in Butte at (406) 494-2147.

Few Montana pastimes enjoy a richer, more storied tradition than hunting. From our fur-trapping forbears to the many native tribes who chased bison across the prairie, the pursuit of wild game has shaped our state's character from the beginning. Even today, the great story of hunting is told and re-told, as elk-obsessed locals share the woods with wide-eyed nonresidents awestruck by the grandeur of the Montana landscape. Hunting reflects both our heritage and our contemporary lifestyle, and is therefore an important element of who we are as a people. But like many traditional activities, hunting faces challenges in the modern world. Foremost among them are the social and technological changes that often distance hunters from their prey and from the intimate nature of the hunting experience. This separation can ultimately degrade the thoughtfulness and careful consideration that ensures responsible, ethical conduct while afield.

In light of recent events, including last year's "flock-shooting" fiascos and the unfavorable news reports that followed, the need for higher ethical-hunting standards has become paramount. The Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks Region 3 Citizen's Advisory Committee, with the support of a wide range of partners who care about hunter ethics and the future of hunting in Montana, have undertaken a multifaceted hunter ethics campaign, called "Hunt Right," promoting greater awareness and practice of ethical hunter behavior.

"People won't tolerate for long the kind of ethical violations we saw last year," says CAC member Dennis Nelson. "The future of hunting in Montana depends on social acceptance, which means improved public perception and support for hunters and hunting, based on ethical hunting decisions and actions. Our aim is to help hunters consider things more carefully, which will help them make better choices in the field."

The campaign, slated for launch prior to the 2015 general hunting season, will include a 30-second PSA to be aired on local TV stations, as well as radio, print, billboard, and online advertising. Stickers and brochures will be disseminated around the region to further inform the public, and social media and other outlets will help spread the message far and wide.

"The success of Hunt Right depends on the involvement and cooperation of the entire community," says Nelson. "At this point, we really need people to chip in to help fund the campaign." To that end, a donation page has been established at the Montana Outdoor Legacy Foundation website, and formal sponsorships are available to businesses and organizations. "This is an issue that transcends individual habits and avocations," says Nelson. "It's about our outdoor lifestyle and its future, which affects everyone."

To donate to the Hunt Right campaign, visit huntrightmt.org. For more

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

The Dillon Unit of the Department of Natural Resources and Conservation would like the public to be aware that commercial timber harvest operations have begun on the "Grasshopper Salvage Timber Sale" in the Polaris/Sawtooth Trailhead area (specifically- Section 4 -T5S, R12W). Log trucks and equipment will be operating from and hauling logs on F.S. Road #7441, and #7442. The Sawtooth Trailhead access road and the trailhead parking area and public toilet will be closed to all public vehicle and foot traffic Monday - Friday for approximately two weeks (July 15 - July 30th 2015). The closure is for safety to allow crews to remove dead and diseased timber from State lands adjacent to the trailhead. Public access is welcome during the periods of Friday after 6:00 PM through Sunday during the closure. F.S. Road #7441 and #7442 will remain open to the public for motorized recreation and through traffic and all State lands in this area are open for normal recreational access and use as posted. Please observe Logging Operation signs, and give crews and equipment a safe distance to operate (minimum 300 feet). For information or questions on this temporary closure call: Mike Atwood, DNRC Forester 406-683-6305 / 406-600-4671.

CRAIGSLIST ASIAN CARP POST TURNS OUT TO BE HOAX

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks Enforcement and the US Fish & Wildlife Service wrapped up an investigation today into a recent Craigslist post in which a man claimed to have dumped buckets of Asian carp fry into regional lakes as well as offering two buckets of his remaining fry to anyone wanting them. The post has been determined to have been a hoax.

An early tip came to FWP about the post from the 800-TIP-MONT hotline Tuesday evening (and numerous concerned citizens also contacted FWP via phone, email, and social media). FWP began its investigation within an hour of the post's appearance online.

FWP wardens and USFWS agents tracked down the man responsible for the post and when faced with the gravity of the situation, he confessed to writing the post and admitted it was just a hoax.

FWP Region 3 Supervisor Sam Sheppard said, "I'm proud of our Enforcement team's response and quick resolution to this case. It's a testament to their dedication to protecting Montana's resources."

Sheppard also offered that while the Department is relieved, this is not a joking matter. Asian carp (and other prohibited species) could pose irrevocable damage to the state's fisheries.

FWP thanks the public for its help in this case and its concern for our resources.
