Attorney General Fox Calls on Phone Carriers to Offer Call-Blocking Technology to Customers

Attorney General Fox today joined 44 other state attorneys general calling on five major phone companies to offer call-blocking technology to their customers. In a joint letter to the chief executives of the carriers, the attorneys general said a new Federal Communications Commission (FCC) rule clarification allows telecommunication service providers to offer customers the ability to block unwanted calls, and verifies that federal law does not prohibit offering the services.

In the letter to AT&T, Sprint, Verizon, T-Mobile and CenturyLink, the attorneys general stated, "Every year, our offices are flooded with consumer complaints pleading for a solution to stop intrusive robocalls. Your companies are now poised to offer your customers the help they need. We urge you to act without delay." The letter is available at: <https://dojmt.gov/wp-content/uploads/Final-Letter-to-Telecom-Providers.pdf>

Attorney General Fox said phone carriers had previously claimed they could not offer such services. At a July 2013 hearing before a Senate subcommittee, representatives from the US Telecom Association and CTIA testified that "legal barriers prevent carriers from implementing advanced call-blocking technology to reduce the number of unwanted telemarketing calls."

"The FCC has made it clear that phone companies can assist us in our fight against unwanted, annoying, and sometimes expensive calls," Attorney General Fox said. "We will continue to press these phone carriers to give their customers what they have been asking for - a way to stop these calls before they ever come through."

Attorney General Fox said call-blocking options already exist for Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) phone service (NoMoRobo.com) and Android cell phones (Call Control), and the phone carriers should move quickly to implement and inform their consumers of these options.

Last September, 39 attorneys general, led by Indiana Attorney General Greg Zoeller and Missouri Attorney General Chris Koster, called on the FCC to allow phone companies to utilize call-blocking technologies <http://www.naag.org/assets/redesign/files/sign-on-letter/Final-Robocalling-Letter-to-the-FCC.pdf>. The FCC chairman endorsed the request in late May and the FCC voted to pass the rule clarification on June 18.

The attorneys general offices that signed today's letter are: Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

Historical Heroes program at Dillon Public Library

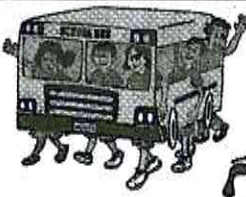

Important people from our past will be the subject of the last regular summer reading program on Thursday, July 23rd at 10:00 a.m. at the Old Depot Theater. Historical Heroes is a workshop where children will hear the stories of individuals who occupy a place of importance in our past. Children will learn about pioneers who bravely set out for the West to settle in the land we now call home, soldiers who responded to our nation's call of duty to serve in international conflicts, and business people who amassed fortunes which are still today benefitting so many. Children will leave this workshop with a deeper understanding of how our lives today have been influenced by so many lives of those from our past. After the program presentations, children will be able to decorate a cape and make a hero hat of their choosing.

Capes and hats may be worn in the Grand Finale parade which takes place on Thursday, July 30th. Summer reading participants are encouraged to visit the Library soon and "cash in" their reading hours for Courageous Cash. This task may be done during any of the Library's open hours. Please do not wait to collect your Courageous Cash until the morning of the Grand Finale.

Also, on the morning of Thursday, July 23rd, we ask that children bring their food items from the "Readers Feed Eaters" campaign to the program so that we can gather all of the food and make a donation to the Food Pantry in Dillon.

FISHERIES PROGRAM AT BANNACK

Have you ever wondered what lives beneath the waters of Grasshopper Creek and other Montana streams? Join us for an inside look at our fish and aquatic life with FWP fisheries technician Lucas Bateman Saturday, July 25 at 2:00 at the Group Use Area at Bannack.

The program will begin with a short talk about Montana's fish and other aquatic species. Then we will follow Lucas to Grasshopper Creek to look at some of the insects, plants and animals found in this stream. Lucas will demonstrate how electro-shocking is used to capture fish for study. The kids are sure to enjoy this one. Lucas will ask for volunteers to help electro-shock fish in the creek so bring your waders kids. Waders are needed while shocking fish due to electric shock hazard. See up close some of the interesting aquatic life in Grasshopper Creek.

All Saturday programs are free, out of state vehicles pay a $6.00 park admission fee. Park hours are 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day. For more information call the park at 834-3413.

dinner by the Soroptomists

To the editor submitted by Chuck Dishno

Ronald Regan: "We need true tax reform... But we cannot have such reform while our tax policy is engineered by people who view the tax as a means of achieving changes in our social structure."

FIRE & ORDER COMMITTEE MEETING COUNCIL CHAMBERS Monday, July 27, 2015 4:00 pm AGENDA

Pledge of Allegiance

1. Discuss Local Interdepartmental Agreement Between Fire District #2 and City
2. Discuss SOP and Bylaws for Camera Uses With the Chief of Police Craft
3. Public Comment on Items of Significant Public Interest Not on the Agenda and Within Jurisdiction of the City
4. Adjournment

To the editor - Question?

Can anyone tell me why President Obama has so much disdain for our military that he refused to flag the US Flag at half staff over the White House until pressured to do it until Tuesday morning? Shameful.

Chuck Dishno

July 22, 2015

Dear friends,

Many of you are familiar with the Wood Bank Ministry here in Dillon. The mission of the Wood Bank is to warm the homes of our neighbors in need by a gift of firewood. You may be surprised to learn that over 100 disabled and low-income households in our area find themselves in need of this assistance each year. In 2014, over 200 cords of wood were distributed.

Under the leadership of Father Harry Neeley, the Wood Bank has grown for more than 20 years. This all-volunteer ministry was recognized with a special award from the Montana governor in 2014. The Wood Bank has received generous support from various organizations and individuals – contributions of money, wood, equipment, services, and volunteer time. Some 90 volunteers per year have been helping cut, split, and deliver firewood, and there is a substantial inventory of equipment for this ministry, from chainsaws and safety chaps to trucks and trailers.

The time has come for Father Harry to retire from his 40-hour volunteer work weeks at the Wood Bank. It will be difficult to fill Harry's size-14 boots! Saint James Episcopal Church will continue to support the Wood Bank, but we need help to ensure this important ministry continues in our community. The Wood Bank has grown to involve so many members of our community that it is time for this ministry to blossom into an interfaith effort, similar to our community food pantry.

It is a daunting, yet exciting time of transition. The Beaverhead Human Services Network is working with us to create an independent charitable organization called the Beaverhead Community Wood Bank Ministry, and we are seeking volunteers to serve on the Board of Directors. As we reorganize, we invite the participation and prayers of all who support this ministry.

Interested parties are invited to a meeting at 7 pm on August 6, 2015 in the Saint James Guild Hall, at 203 East Glendale Street. For more information, please contact St. James Episcopal Church via email: stjamesdillon@live.com or by phone at 683-2735.

In Christ's service,

BEAVERHEAD RIVER COWBOY CHURCH!
AT THE 4H BUILDING
BEAVERHEAD COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS
DILLON, MONTANA
EVERY SUNDAY 10:45
NEW CHURCH!
NEW BEGINNINGS!

Beaverhead River Cowboy Church is having it's very FIRST SERVICE this Sunday, July 26, 2015 at the 4H building located on the Beaverhead County Rodeo Grounds in Dillon, Montana! We will have coffee and doughnuts at 10:45 during our "Meet and Greet". Service begins at 11:15 Good music, good worship, and all in a Western atmosphere.

Beaverhead River Cowboy Church is dedicated to reaching both Christians and the unsaved from all walks of life with emphasis on the Western Culture; from working cowboys to those who just love them.

Have you wondered about your soul? Are you positive you are going to Heaven? Are you ready for Christ's return?

We are living in historical times. Life is changing faster than anyone could have ever imagined. The Bible has predicted this for 2000 years.

We are a church where you "COME AS YOU ARE." We are the community you used to know, those folks at the Feed Store or the Sale Barn, The ones you recognize at the rodeo or the coffee shop, the ones you wave to when you pass them on the road. We are the ones you remembered having respect for America, Love for our Country, Honoring our Flag, and Worshiping our Father in Heaven.

If you believe the Bible is the very Word of God. If you value Morality and the America that used to be, you will be at home here.

Come join us. Worship God the Father and his Son Jesus Christ with us.

Learn what THE BIBLE teaches about today and more importantly, tomorrow. And prepare yourselves and your family for the future.

Come join our family.

And God Bless You.
