A Republican Sweet Sixteen... Plus One

Raging Moderate by Will Durst

Get to high ground everybody. Our nation is in danger of being inundated by a candidate tsunami of 17 Republicans. The Sweet Sixteen and Never Been Kissed Plus One. Seventeen Shades of Grey. If they used a designated pitcher they could split up into two teams and play softball against each other. No hardball allowed.

In an attempt to winnow the enormous aggregate down to a manageable number, Fox News, host of the big first GOP presidential nomination debate, has declared only the top ten in an average of recent polls will be allowed to participate. Welcome to the Big Boys Table.

They also announced another earlier debate with everybody else. The little kids table. The consolation debate. The also-rans. The B-sides. Most at 3 percent or less in polls with margin of errors of plus or minus 3 percent.

Accustomed to their constant whining about the media treating elections as horse races, we think this is the perfect time to fuel their paranoia by handicapping the voluminous number of contending plugs. So here's the morning Line on the 17 dark horses of the apocalypse. And down the stretch they come!

PROBABLY MAKES THE BIG BOYS DEBATE

Jeb Bush. 4-1. Deserving favorite. Best chance is to convince America he's adopted.

Donald Trump. 6-1. Race would be over if his feet ran half as fast as his mouth.

CANYON FERRY POND 4 DRAW DOWN SET TO BEGIN THIS MONTH

On Tuesday, Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks announced its decision to move forward with the drawing down of Pond 4 on the west side of the Canyon Ferry Wildlife Management Area (CFWMA) beginning this month and lasting through the fall. The project aims to kill off invasive carp, restore native vegetation, and improve waterfowl habitat.

Waterfowl hunters should expect Pond 4 to have low levels of water or be mostly dry this fall hunting season.

Biologist Adam Grove says the effort is about looking ahead and promoting better conditions for the future of CFWMA.

"The goal will be to completely dry up the pond or to at least get water levels low enough in winter that carp will be winter killed. Then, if the draw down is successful, the pond will be kept dry for an extended time period in order to promote a better invertebrate and submergent vegetation response to the drawdown," said Grove.

The pond will likely start filling again with water flowing or seeping in from Canyon Ferry Reservoir sometime in the late spring or summer of 2016.

The announcement comes after the completion of an environmental assessment and public comment period. The Decision Notice can be found online at <http://fwp.mt.gov/news/publicNotices/>.

HELP NEEDED

At one time or another, we have all had something in our house break down and need to be repaired or replaced. Well, it happens at the Beaverhead County Animal Shelter too.

They have a piece of equipment called an Autoclave
Sterilization Container that they use when doing surgeries.
Just as it's name implies, it sterilizes the equipment and other items used during a surgical procedures. Their Autoclave is not working properly and the technician was at the Shelter Monday. As of mid-morning, he wasn't too hopeful that it can be fixed. He is willing to loan them one for a short period of time, but they need to raise the money to buy a new one, which he estimates will be about $4,000.

As you know, they do not adopt out the cats/dogs without them being spayed/neutered. They cannot do these procedures without properly sterilized equipment.
If you can help out with this new expense, please note
"autoclave" on your donation.

Their mailing address is 80 Lagoon Lane, Dillon 59725 or you could drop it off at the Shelter where you will be greeted with a chorus of "thank you's". Those of you who care about the Shelter, and the animals that pass through their doors, have always been generous, so they thank you in advance for helping them meet this financial need.

Letter to the Editor

Is the City of Dillon Government above board or not?
PLEASE READ THIS article and make your decision.

Thank you.

Hello fellow Dillonites,

Let me introduce myself, I am John Ranno, my wife Bev owns the Dillon Bar and we have been members of this community for 3 years and are happy to call it home.

I would like to call your attention to an interesting turn of events I feel that you the tax payers should be aware of. For the last year I have been working with the City of Dillon to put a scrolling sign in the front of the Dillon Bar to enhance business. I have filled out permits spoken to members of the city and of the zoning board to keep everything above board and legal. I have been denied my because scrolling signs are not legal within the city limits. This would not be hard for me to take if it weren't for the scrolling sign in front of McDonalds that was erected 8 months ago.

OK FOLKS DOES THIS SEEM FAIR????

Is it fair that the members of the zoning board can tout their power and personal preference at the expense of tax paying citizens? Is it fair that the local business owners are required to follow one set of rules and the corporations another? This is Dillon folks! We know better! I know in my business at the end of the day when I put my head on the pillow my decisions have been fair and honest - can you say the same, City Fathers, knowing that you watched a huge corporate giant erect a sign that you knew was illegal on December 2014 until now and at the same time deny me a sign.

Folks, I need your help to make this fair - please contact your representatives to turn off the illegal sign.

To this day, McDonald's has not received a letter to turn off the sign. Attention! Small businesses in Dillon, beware they will step all over you if you "let them".

What's good for the "Gandor - McDonald's" is NOT good for the "Goose - Dillon Bar" in the City of Dillon.

Kudos to the City of Dillon, bravo for beating the Dillon Bar "local business"! You should be very proud of yourselves - I surrender (KEEP YOUR SIGN). Did you beat me fairly?

John Ranno

"On the Air" with the Dillon Junior Fiddlers

Sunday evening, Aug. 9th at 7:00, The Virginia City Opera House will open its doors for "On the Air" with the Dillon Junior Fiddlers. This production features an old-time radio show format and is an opportunity to hear traditional fiddle music played by an outstanding group of young people. The Dillon Junior Fiddlers and the Virginia City Preservation Alliance are pairing up to bring this show to the Opera House with proceeds from the show going to both non-profit organizations. Revenues will be used to help fund Montana State Fiddle Camp 2016 scholarships for Dillon Junior Fiddler members. With funding in short supply for school and private arts programs, organizations such as the Dillon Junior Fiddlers become even more important for the development of Montana youth. The Dillon Junior Fiddlers Association, with a track record of making music education and entertainment available for 32 years, provides a very important arts option for the young people in Southwestern Montana. The Virginia City Preservation Alliance will use their portion of the profits to further restoration efforts.

Those in attendance will meet Oliver Snordly, the radio announcer for "KPOP, your local radio station, for the good times only". Played by Ernie Gilbert, the audience will hear Oliver joke around with Snuffy McDuff (Zach Curtis) from the Toad Holler String Band. Bobby and the Buckeroos will delight with Old West Music and the Amarillo Armadillos will present a section of Western Swing music. The Singing Glory Gospel Group will entertain with well-known favorites and there are even visitors to the radio station from Ireland and Bulgaria.

Dillon Junior Fiddler Music Directors, Sandy and Jeannie James, are especially enthusiastic about playing "On the Air" at the Virginia City Opera House. We are very grateful to Bill and Christina Koch for their donation of the theater for this performance."

Tickets are available at Rank's Drug Store in Virginia City and at the door for $15 per person. Children under 4 years old will be given free admission. For information or reservations call: 406-660-2304.
