Art Mobile of Montana is coming to Dillon

The Southwest Montana Arts Council is excited to announce that the Art Mobile of Montana is coming to Dillon on Saturday, August 29. The only program of its kind in Montana, the Art Mobile of Montana is an educational, art outreach program providing access to a high quality, original, and contemporary art exhibit with instruction by a professional artist.

The Art Mobile will be providing two art workshops focused on turning old books into works of art. The first will be open to Kindergartners through 5th graders and will be from 10:00-11:00 a.m. The second is open to 6th through 12th graders and will be from 11:30 - 12:30 a.m. There will also be a reception to display the art and a presentation from the Art Mobile that includes a traveling art exhibit, which will be open to the public from 4-6 p.m. All events will be at the Mason Building at the corner of Bannack and Idaho streets.

Each workshop is open to 25 students, so please call 683-6208 to reserve a spot. All events are free and open to the public thanks to generous sponsorship from United Way of Beaverhead County and Eric Hammer and Sandra McIntyre.

The Southwest Montana Arts Council (swmarts.org) is a non-profit organization dedicated to advocating for, celebrating and nurturing the arts and humanities in Southwest Montana.
