Council Meeting 8.19.15

By: MJ

Present: Councilman Hand, Hodge, McIsaac, Shafer, Manley, Garry, Straugh, City Treasurer, Director of Operations, City Attorney...

"My Way or the Highway" is an idiom that might have been used to describe some of the discussions at the council table. This action may be described as micromanaging or not having a complete understanding of issue at hand. Micromanagement interferes with performance and productivity and may result in huge costs. After listening to the discussions on 8/19/2015 between council members and the public, it appears there might have been a breakdown in communication and understanding during the process that delayed wrapping up the project.

Councilman Shafer felt that "water users only" should not have to pay for Waste Treatment Plant bond. The council working with the public discussed the significance of "water users only" paying for bond. Council voted to table water rate issue and sent it back to committee to do follow-up research to clarify the questionable issues.

The bond reconstruction and rate changes was an extremely complicated task. Dillon is fortunate to have qualified and well-informed people at the helm for this complicated procedure. The city was rewarded with a 7± million dollar savings, provided a system where people pay for only the water they use and developed a system that follows the law.

Councilman Manley felt that the water rate issues was pushed through quickly and not enough time was taken. Note: (9) months ago on Dec. 9, 2014 at a water sewer meeting Mayor Klakken made an extensive presentation outlining the city's bond debt, defeasment process, and rate savings.

Defeasance Definition: a technique by which a debtor unit removes liabilities from its balance sheet by pairing them with financial assets, the income and value of which are sufficient to ensure that all debt service payments are met.

Note: The mayor has no power to make any decisions. The mayor and staff do the leg work and provide the council with information. Council takes that information and votes yea or nay on the final decisions.

ANGLING RESTRICTIONS LIFTED ON SEVERAL SOUTHWEST MT RIVERS

Longer nights combined with cooler air temperatures have made a sustained impact on southwest Montana rivers and their water temperatures. As a result, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks has lifted the angling restrictions on the following rivers:

- Ruby River
- Shields River
- Madison River
- Gallatin River
- East Gallatin River

The following stretches of the Big Hole River remain closed to all fishing:

- Big Hole River Saginaw Bridge on Skinner Meadows Road to North Fork Big Hole River
- Big Hole River Notch Bottom Fishing Access Site to the confluence with the Beaverhead River

For up-to-date information on drought-related restrictions, visit <http://fwp.mt.gov/news/restrictions/>.

The Montana Department of Justice Warns Consumers of Deceptive Vehicle Warranty Notices

Attorney General Tim Fox and the Montana Department of Justice want to make Montanans aware of deceptive vehicle service contract "notices" that claim to be issued from the "Motor Vehicle Division" that may be appearing in consumers' mail boxes.

"We consider these notices deceptive because neither our Motor Vehicle Division nor the motor vehicle division of any other state is mailing them," said Attorney General Tim Fox. "These governmental entities are not in the business of selling vehicle service contracts. However, these notices are often addressed from senders going by names similar to the Montana Motor Vehicle Division."

The notices can also appear to be coming from the car dealer or vehicle manufacturer, and may suggest that a previously purchased warranty has or is set to expire, even if no such warranty was purchased. The notice, which usually demands an immediate response on the part of the recipient, sometimes contains the year and model of the recipient's vehicle. Additionally, the envelopes which contain these notices include warnings similar to those placed on some official government mailings.

Sarah Garcia, Administrator of the Motor Vehicle Division at the Montana Department of Justice, said, "It's understandable that vehicle owners would be confused after opening one of these deceptive mailers. In Montana, these notices have been observed as having official-looking logos and are being sent from companies entitled "Motor Vehicle Division, "Vehicle Services Department," "National Warranty Services," and "Auto Repair Network," among others. I want to assure people that the Montana MVD has not issued these letters and does not offer vehicle warranty services."

Ed Eck, Chief of Montana's Office of Consumer Protection, says his office has started to see an influx of calls from concerned consumers. Eck offers this advice: "If you respond to these notices by calling the number provided on the letter, be advised you would not be dealing with a government entity. Also, keep in mind that it's always a good idea to obtain a written copy of the contract being offered before purchasing any warranty, even if a representative says the warranty can be canceled and refunded at any time."

ELKS LABOR DAY WEEKEND

The Labor Day Weekend activities of Dillon's Elks Lodge will have something for everyone.

They begin with the return of Mike Tyler and his Rolling Smoke BBQ with ribs, slaw, and beans platters in front of the Center Street Lodge. Hours are 11-3 and 6-9 on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Bring your appetite!

There will be a Beer Corral available for purchase located inside the lobby entrance on Saturday and Sunday.

Sat. and Sunday nights will showcase Monte D Entertainment DJ & Live Music from 9-1AM and there will be a Wild Horse Calcutta on Saturday night at 11 sponsored by the JCs.

The Elks Labor Day Breakfasts will be held Saturday night immediately after the Wild Horse Calcutta until 3AM and Sun. night from 11:45PM-3AM. The breakfasts are open to all.

There will be a "Rolling 4 Ashley" group in Monday's Labor Day Parade followed at the Lodge by Bloody Mary specials and the drawing for the 2015 Can Am 4 wheeler raffled off as part of the Ashley Aldene Moon Medical Benefit. This will be your final opportunity to buy tickets for this wonderful prize.

Enjoy the Labor Day Weekend and help support the Dillon Elks serving our community.

SMOKE MONITOR

Smoke monitor USFS R1-307 was deployed in Dillon, Montana on Friday, August 21st by the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest.

The smoke monitor takes a reading every hour; however, it is important to note that the time zone is UTC (Coordinated Universal Time), and is 6 hours ahead of Mountain Daylight Time, so subtract 6 from the reading to determine the local time of reading.

Go to this site for smoke monitor USFS R1-307: <http://www.wrcc.dri.edu/cgi-bin/rawMAIN4.pl?id1307> Hover your mouse over the line on the chart to see the ug/m3 reading.

Labor Day Weekend Kickoff

The Southwest Montana Arts Council will be presenting a free concert on Friday, September 4, as a Labor Day Weekend Kickoff Concert at 6 p.m. in Depot Park in Dillon, Montana. The concert will feature local cowboy poet Rick Kuntz as the opening act and the Kenny James Miller Band as the headliner. Dillon's Rotary Club will serve their signature beer-braised brats.

The Kenny James Miller Band is a blues band from Kalispell that was recently featured on Montana PBS's 11th & Grant and was described by the show's host as "powerful, evocative, and a unique rock/blues band. . . These guys are 'the real deal'." Some of the band's highlights include: opened for the international blues recording legend Robin Trower in Spokane; Main Stage at Rockin' The Rivers in Three Forks; headlined for the Mother Lode in Butte; Untapped Blues Festival in Kennewick, WA; Whitewater Festival in Bigfork; kicked off Wallace Blues Festival in Wallace, ID; opened for The Outlaws at the Montana Music Festival in Whitefish.

The Labor Day Weekend Kickoff Concert is free and open to the public thanks to the generous sponsorship from the Dillon Jaycees, Mac's Last Cast, and Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan.

*Participant is responsible for initial set of labs.

For more information or to sign up, please contact Deanna at 683-3170, Jill at 683-3041, or Jenny at 683-1183

Here is what past participants are saying about the HIP Program:

"After 8 weeks of this program my A1C went from 9.1 to 6.2. I can live with that!" ~Bill

"I Realize that the past week or two I have been sleeping so much better than for years. Enjoy the sharing and getting to know others and know that we all face the same issues.

Appreciate the time all of you have put into this journey. Coming alongside us to help us learn new habits. Accountability and the realization that there are no band aid quick fixes and instant gratification, but long distance plans and goals that are achievable. Thank you for thinking we are worth all you put out for us."

~Sue
