STRONG WOMEN™ STARTING SOON (September 14, 2015)

The Strong Women™ Program is a national fitness program for women developed by Dr. Miriam Nelson, at Tufts University in Boston, Massachusetts. The program will help participants look and feel better while increasing strength, bone density, and balance. Since 2010, when the program began locally, participants have reported improvement in all of these areas. It is a good program for women of all ages and activity levels. One current participant recently celebrated her 100th birthday!

Participants use ankle weights and dumbbells (provided) in exercises done slowly, beginning with minimal weight and increasing the weight very gradually as the exercise repetitions seem easily completed.

The program is not for profit and leaders volunteer their time. A minimal fee of $20 per month is charged so equipment can be purchased and rent paid to the Elks Lodge. New participants are encouraged to try the program for two meetings before making any payments. If they choose to continue the program, fees are charged at that time.

Currently the program is being run two days per week (Monday and Thursday) in sessions eight weeks long, after which participants have the opportunity to continue a maintenance day (no fee charged) once a week on Mondays until the next session begins. A new session begins Monday September 14, 2015, from 10:00 until 11:15 at the Dillon Elks Lodge, 27 E. Center St. All former and new participants are encouraged to attend. Wear comfortable clothing and closed toe shoes.

For further information contact Jeannette Pittman at 660-2777 (call or text) or Lois Volkening at 925-3774 (call only).

DUI Task Force

The Beaverhead County DUI Task Force volunteers are proud to work in conjunction with the Dillon JC's again this year during Labor Day weekend. If you plan to drink alcohol during Labor Day events, please be prepared to show your identification before purchasing alcohol. The DUI Task Force will once again be checking ID's prior to alcohol sales in order to reduce long lines and eliminate underage sales. We appreciate your support as we continue to work at reducing underage drinking in our communities.

Dillon Jaycee Auxiliary Plans
"100 Years of Rodeo" Parade

This year's theme for the Labor Day parade is "100 Years of Rodeo." To enter, please pick up an entry form at Womack's Printing Place, Pita Pit, or Dillon City Hall.

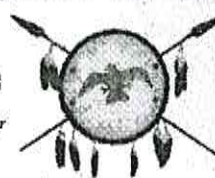

Entries to be judged are due September 2, 2015, by the close of business at Womack's Printing Place, Pita Pit, or Dillon City Hall. Mailed entries must be received by September 2, 2015, to be considered for judging. Day-of parade entries are welcome to participate, but not eligible for judging. There is no cost to enter. Divisions include: Youth Organization, Comic/Novelty, Adult Organization, Youth Horse, Adult Horse, Commercial, Advertising, Car, & Political. Entrants must be in position by 9:00 AM the day of the parade, with the parade beginning at 10:00 AM.

As in previous years, in order to protect our community's children, any group or individual who wishes to throw candy or promotional items must do so while walking, not riding in a vehicle or on horseback. This is intended to keep the candy away from vehicle tires and hooves, discouraging children from running out into the street to pick up candy. Dillon's Labor Day Parade is one of only a handful left in the state that allows candy-throwing. Thank you for your consideration while planning your parade entry.

Black Dot

Submitted by MJ

I read this article and thought it was an inciting article.
The author is unknown to me.

One day a professor entered the classroom and asked his students to prepare for a surprise test. They all waited anxiously at their desks for the exam to begin. The professor handed out the exam face down on the student's desk and then asked them to turn it all over.

In the center of a white piece of paper was a single black dot. The professor then ask the class to write about what they seen on the paper. At the end of the time allotted for the exam the professor collected papers and started reading them out loud. All of the students had described the position of the black dot on the white piece of paper. After all the papers were read, the professor told the students they would not be graded on the paper. He explained that he just wanted to give them something to think about.

In front of us is that same white piece of paper with a black dot. Would you focus on the black dot? Why is it that humans tend to focus on the black spots in their lives and not the white spots that are full of joy, laughter, enjoyment, pleasure, satisfaction and so much more? Our life is a gift and we always have reasons to celebrate – nature renewing itself every day, our friends around us, health, our families, jobs that provides our livelihood, the miracles we see every day...

The black spots are small compared to everything else in our lives. The white areas provide us with numerous rewards, contentment and many other riches.

Still Time to Offer Ideas for 2016-2017 Hunting Seasons

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks reminds hunters, outfitters, landowners and others there is still time offer ideas and comments to help set hunting seasons for 2016 and 2017.

"We'll use these early ideas and comments to help build and revise hunting regulation proposals that will then be available for more public comment for about two months beginning in December," said Ron Aasheim, FWP spokesman in Helena. "The initial online comments are due Sept. 3. The online system is easy to complete and open to everyone who wants to participate."

Initial comments and ideas on hunting regulation and adjustments can be submitted online by visiting FWP's website fwp.mt.gov, then click "2016-17 Hunting Seasons". The deadline to submit these initial comments is Sept. 3.

Proposals that emerge for the 2016 and 2017 hunting seasons will be presented to the Fish & Wildlife Commission in December, followed by public meetings and additional comment opportunity in January 2016. The commission will adopt final regulations in February.
