MONTANA WESTERN INDUCTS NEW HALL OF FAME MEMBERS

The University of Montana Western kicks off its Homecoming weekend Friday, Sept. 25, 2015 with a social held at the Beaverhead Golf club from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. New members will be inducted into its athletic Hall of Fame on Saturday, Sept. 26.

Montana Western will induct Jason DesJarlais, Wally Feldt, West Hernandez, Bobbi Suhr Konen, and the 1991-92 Men's Rodeo Team during a ceremony at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 26 in the Lewis and Clark Room on the University of Montana Western campus. Inductees also will be introduced during halftime of that day's football game versus Carroll College.

Jason DesJarlais graduated from the University of Montana Western in 1995, known then as Western Montana College. While at UMW, Jason played football from 1992 to 1995, and was part of Conference Champion teams in '93 through '95. He was named Defensive MVP of the 1996 National All-Star Game and is a member of the 1994 Western Montana College Hall of Fame Team. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1995, he went on to receive his master's degree in kinesiology from Humboldt State University in 1999. Jason began his coaching career at Western Montana in 1996, serving as Defensive Line Coach. He went on to coach at Humboldt State University, University of San Diego, Jacksonville University, Yale University and has been a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars since 2007.

Wally Feldt earned a bachelor's degree in liberal studies from Western Montana College in 1973. Wally began what would become a long career in radio and sports writing in Laramie, Wyoming in 1975 and had stints in Las Vegas, Idaho Falls, and Boise. In 1998 Wally made it back to Dillon, Montana to work for KDBM as program, sports and music director, sales person and on-air personality. Wally returned as "Voice of the Bulldog" during his time at KDBM. Feldt began writing for Montana Western in 1990 as a sports information writer and added news and publication duties to his list of responsibilities and held that position until 2009. Wally has served as the director of media relations for the Frontier Conference since 1993 and currently holds that position today.

Bobbi Suhr Konen earned her bachelor's degree in business communications with an emphasis in computer technology in 2003. Bobbi played women's basketball at Montana Western from 1999-2003. During her time at UMW, Bobbi was part of a team that won three conference titles. Bobbi earned three conference MVP awards, a Second Team All-American and two Kodak All-American First Team awards. Additionally, she is Montana Western's women's all time leading scorer, was "Athlete of the week" numerous times, and was featured in Sports Illustrated "Faces in the crowd." Bobbi currently resides in Dillon with her husband, Kevin and four children, Kale, Kylie, Kaitlyn, and Kesslee.

SHERIFF'S OFFICEFranklin D. Kluesner, II, Sheriff
David B. Chase UndersheriffNEWS RELEASE
Search and Rescue 9-15-15

On 9-15-15 at about 10:23 PM The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office received a call regarding a lost hunter in the area of Mystic Lake in The Beaverhead National Forrest. Beaverhead Search and Rescue was activated and a team of 15 members assembled for a search and management of the incident.

Information provided from an individual in the hunting party indicated that a 35 year old man from Holland, NY never returned to camp and was hours past due. The reporting party walked from Mystic Lake to the trail head and was able to report the hunter as missing. The group of four men were bow hunting and camping in the area of Mystic Lake which borders Ravalli County just north of Wisdom, Mt.

Search and Rescue initiated a plan to locate the missing hunter which included the use of Forrest Service personnel. Air support was unavailable due to a weather pattern that resulted in poor visibility as well as snow and rain. At about 12:20 PM on 9-16-15 he was located by Search and Rescue personnel and was found in good health and cold from being exposed to the wet weather.

The missing hunter indicated that he was separated from the group at about 10:30 AM on 9-15-15 and started back to camp when he became disorientated. He ended up walking the wrong direction and became lost. After an unsuccessful attempt of finding his way back to camp he built a fire and spent the night. He started walking again in the morning and walked down to a road where he eventually ran into other hunters and ultimately Search and Rescue members.

It was determined that the missing hunter did have some equipment for survival in the event he was lost. This included a means of starting a fire and obtaining water and a compass but he did not have a GPS device or a map to assist in determining his location or a route back to his camp.

Search managers were Alan Holt and Parke Scott. Thirteen other search and rescue members responded including Tyler Barns, Mike Clark, Don Copple, Cole Cottom, Lee Diedrich, Jim Kajin, Kate Kajin, Dave Matheson, M.D. Peterson, Cody Schnee, Scott Schuler, Steve Scott and Brad Wagner

"TROPHY STATE OF MIND" HOST SENTENCED FOR MONTANA HUNTING VIOLATIONS

Matthew Alwine, host of the cable TV hunting show "Trophy State of Mind", was convicted and sentenced Wednesday for hunting violations which occurred on private property in the Crazy Mountains east of Clyde Park from 2010 to 2014.

Alwine pled guilty in Park County Justice Court to five counts of failing to obtain landowner permission while hunting game animals, one count of unlawful possession of a trophy white-tailed deer, and one count of unlawful possession of a bull elk. Mr. Alwine also lost fishing and trapping privileges for those 48 months.

The judge imposed $11,180 in fines, restitution and court costs, and revoked Alwine's hunting privileges for 48 months. Alwine also had to forfeit all the animal parts that were seized during the investigation which included five elk and three deer.

The yearlong investigation all began with an anonymous tip. It was discovered that Alwine, of Chewelah, WA, had been hunting for years on private property in the Crazy Mountains without landowners' permission. Some of the illegal hunts were featured on "Trophy State of Mind" and other videos Alwine produced.

As part of the investigation, in March of 2015 Regional Investigator Chad Murphy and Livingston area Game Warden Drew Scott travelled to Spokane and worked with the Washington Department of Fish & Game. They interviewed Alwine and collected evidence of the wildlife crimes including antlers, mounts, and capes.

Murphy said, "Warden Scott did an excellent job in the investigation in identifying animals Alwine and his associates had killed over the years. He worked with his local landowners and ranch managers to locate the kill sites."

Other suspects charged in the investigation include Dalton Harum and Zach Samek (both from Washington). Harum was fined $170 for failing to obtain landowner permission and forfeited a set of elk antlers from an elk he killed in 2014. Samek was fined $185 for criminal trespassing.

Matthew Alwine also pled guilty on Sept. 2 in Missoula County Justice Court to unlawfully obtaining Montana resident

Murphy said, "Greed and ego are generally the driving forces behind those that commit multiple wildlife violations. That was especially evident in this case with Alwine boasting about his kills within the same day on his social media sites."

Keegan Burwell

During the early morning hours of Thursday, September 10, 2015 Keegan Burwell was in a car accident. He first was taken to St. James Hospital in Butte and later was air lifted to Seattle, Washington. Where he remains for the time, Keegan endured numerous breaks within his torso region. He has already undergone one surgery to repair his pelvic, which was a success. Anyone wishing to help with the medical bills should visit one of the following: www.gofundme.com/keeganburwell, The Bank of Commerce has a medical fund available, and there will be events held to raise money to help Keegan and his mom, Anita Burwell, in this time of hardship. Also, High Country Glass is holding a raffle with 100% of the proceeds going directly to help get Anita to Seattle. We are working on getting various fundraisers up and going to help them as well.
