MONTANA WESTERN HARRIERS GAIN GROUND

The Montana Western cross country team continues to make strides in their second meet of the new programs history.

The Bulldogs traveled to the Montana State University open in Bozeman, Mont. over the weekend where they faced stiff competition across the NAIA and NCAA ranks. Other teams competing in the race were Utah State, Montana State, University of Montana, Idaho State, Carroll College, Montana State-Billings, Montana State-Northern and Rocky Mountain College.

Mindy Kaufman finished in 19 minutes 25 seconds to place 9th on the day and lead the Bulldog women's team for the second consecutive race. Following closely on her heels was teammate Beth Jansma who finished in 11th with a time of 20 minutes 4 seconds. Other finishers for Montana Western were Gabi Gomez-Wint (21:14), Amanda Stobie (24:14) and Caleigh Buckmaster (24:24). The women finished in 3rd place against the stiff competition.

"Mindy ran another stellar race and is having a strong freshman season," stated an enthusiastic coach Dylan Zitzer.

The men's team was led by Russell Kujala and Paul Bielawski, who finished 20th and 22nd in 28 minutes 32 seconds and 28 minutes 53 seconds respectively. Other competitors for the Bulldogs were Dalton Delaney (29:46), Tanner Lehr (30:53) and Cole Davis (33:20). Montana Western finished in 5th place against other NAIA and NCAA division II competition.

"The kids competed well against tough NCAA Division I competition, I am proud of their efforts," said Zitzer.

The Bulldogs will return to the course on October 3rd in Missoula, Mont. for the University of Montana Invitational.

NO. 19 BULLDOGS ROLL PAST LIGHTS

Sam Rutherford rushed for three touchdowns and caught another as the junior from Centerville, Mont. tallied 97 total yards of offense to go with his four touchdowns as Montana Western (3-0, 3-0) rolled past Montana State-Northern (0-4, 0-3) 44-2 on Saturday. (Box Score)

The Bulldog defense continued to play fast and physical as they limited Northern to 109 yards of total offense on 58 plays, just 1.9 yards per attempt. Montana Western held Zach McKinley, the Frontier Conference rushing leader, to 42 rushing yards.

Lights quarterback Jess Krahn had a long day under center, he was sacked two times forced into two interceptions and limited to 47 yards passing on the day. Dakota Pineda and TJ Benson each recorded interceptions for the Bulldogs, Reno Ward and Dakota Wainwright had the sacks for Montana Western.

The Lights offense was held scoreless as their only points of the day came on a blocked P.A.T returned for two-points in the loss.

Ward, who constantly faced a double team, led the team with seven total tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss to add to his sack, he now has five sacks on the season. Pineda, Riley Martello, Calub Thilmony and Dakota Wainwright all recorded six total tackles in the game. Montana Western had seven tackles for loss for 30 yards in the game.

Martello, a sophomore from Bozeman, was a special teams stalwart, where he tallied three special teams' tackles, recovered a fumble and took out numerous blockers as the Bulldogs recovered two additional fumbles on kick-offs.

Offensively, Montana Western scored early and often, as they took their first drive 5-plays for 54-yards for Rutherford's first touchdown of the day.

The Bulldogs used a balanced attack in the game, using eight different ball carriers to combine for 226 rushing yards and four touchdowns. They were led by sophomore Hunter Thomsen's 98 yards on eight carries, Thomsen also scored his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter.

True freshmen quarterbacks J.D. Ferris and Bradley Smith split reps in the game and combined for 294 yards on 25 completions to 10 receivers. Smith threw for 184 yards and two touchdowns in his first game with extended playing time on the season. Rutherford and Matt Fuhrman both caught touchdowns.

Fuhrman seemed to be open all day as he caught eight passes for 95 yards to go along with his third quarter touchdown reception. Tyler Murray also tacked on five reception for 55 yards in the contest.

On the day the Bulldogs gained 520 yards on 94 offensive plays and averaged 5.5 yards per play on the afternoon.

Seth Mason added a 36-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to round out the scoring for Montana Western.

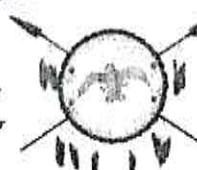

Montana Western will return to Dillon for Hall-of-Fame and Homecoming weekend on September 26th to face Carroll College at Vigilante Stadium, kick-off is set for 2 p.m.

Casino Open*Sandi Eby Update

Hi - it's me, Sandi Eby and here I go again.....YUP I haven't given up yet. The adult stem cells I received in India in January worked nothing like the cells I got in Israel in 1/10.* :( Sad - so I have been accepted in another stem cell trial!!! This time the best bro in the world and I will be going to Freeport, Grand Bahamas for a treatment at Okyanos on 10/7. This will be a MUCH shorter trip (we'll be gone a total of 4 days in the Bahamas and a few more days for me to get to Ed's in Las Vegas). This will be a slightly different procedure than the other 2 I've had. Instead of the stem cells coming from my bone marrow.....they will be coming from my fat via a mini lipo suction - perfect = I've always wanted a flat stomach!! The most awesome thing about this procedure is: it is costing me $0.00!!!! The only things I will be paying for is our travel (I am buying plane tickets this time so we don't have to spend 24 hrs in the airport), hotel and meals. This trial is being paid for by "angel fund investors" and I feel really blessed that I was chosen. The doctor who is performing this procedure is from Scottsdale, AZ. He noticed when he did reconstructive surgery for breast cancer survivors using cells from their fat any autoimmune diseases they had usually saw improvement.

So again - this is NOT a cure but might relieve some of the MS symptoms I struggle with every minute of every day. My battle probably began in '81 after a tumble down the embankment while hotpotting in Yellowstone. The MonSter has been rearing it's ugly head more and more every year and I am TIRED.....just looking for a little relief and God's healing cells still seem to be the best bet for the kind of disease I have. Thanx for including me in your prayers!!!

SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Franklin D. Kluesner, II, Sheriff
 David B. Chase Undersheriff

Monday, September 21, 2015

The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office and Search and Rescue are currently trying to locate an overdue hunter west of Wisdom, Montana.

Robert Carter, Jr. a 53 year old man from Kalispell was expected to return from hunting Sunday night. His wife became concerned when he had not contacted her via cell phone or Facebook since Wednesday night. She reported her concerns to the Sheriff's Office Saturday afternoon. Deputies received information Saturday night and early Sunday morning indicating that Carter was hunting in Tie Creek, a few miles west of the Big Hole Battle Field National Park.

Sunday morning, the Beaverhead Search and Rescue Units were activated and operations began. Carter's campsite was located in the forest about a 1/4 mile north of Hwy 43 on the Placer Creek Road. Carter's 1999 yellow Dodge truck was located about 5 miles north of that location parked in the forest between Tie Creek and Johnson Creek. Information from other hunters in the area indicated that Carter was bow hunting and had parked his truck early Thursday morning to hunt on foot in the area.

On Sunday, Search and Rescue efforts included a 40 square mile ground search, using 4 wheel drive vehicles, ATV's, hikers, as well as an air search during daylight by Butte Life Flight and T.J. Reynolds of the Dillon Flying Service, and a night search using FLIR Technology by Two Bears Helicopter from Flathead County.

Today's, Search and Rescue efforts include a ground search utilizing 4-wheel drive vehicles, ATV's, hikers and horses. Dog teams and aircraft have been ordered.

Please see the description of Carter:

White male, Gray/Blonde Hair, Ht: 6'02", Wt: 185, Eyes: Gray, Clothing: Bow hunting Camouflage.

The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office and Search and Rescue are asking for the public's help. If anyone has seen or had contact with Carter and has information that could help search efforts, please notify us immediately at 406-683-3700.

Sheriff Franklin D. Kluesner, II

I have been driving school bus for several years and have had people pass the bus while loading/unloading children. With stop signs out and lights flashing, we drivers do our best to get a description of the offender and turn it over to the Dillon P.D. But on 9/16/15 was the closest it's come to one of my passengers getting hit. These people passing the bus illegally, in my opinion, have no concern for others, just themselves. I teach that there are two statements everyone would remember, one is very stupid and the other is very sad. The first is, "Don't worry, it will never happen to me."

The second one is, "I never thought it would ever happen to me." If you are driving a vehicle and are not concentrating on driving and are daydreaming, texting, on the phone, driving with your windows covered with ice, or reading, you fall under the second statement, then it's too late. At that time you will have to live the rest of your life with the image of the horrifying look on that child's face just before the impact.

It baffles me how someone can miss an object the size and color of a school bus, 10' tall, 8' wide, 40' long, 32,000 lbs., bright yellow, red lights flashing, a stop sign out, and children loading/unloading in the area. Scientists have proven that the human eye can pick up the color yellow first & faster than any other color. Here are some very terrifying facts from the National Association of State Directors of Pupil Transportation Services. Please read it slowly so you will get the full impact of the article.

Si, Local School Bus Driver

79K Vehicles Illegally Passed School Buses In National Study

By Thomas McMahon

Nearly 80,000 vehicles illegally passed school buses in a one-day survey conducted in multiple states earlier this year, according to results released on Monday. This was the fifth edition of the survey, launched by the National Association of State Directors of Pupil Transportation Services (NASDPTS) in 2011. In 2015, a total of 102,371 school bus drivers in 26 states participated. That represents about one-fifth (21%) of the nation's estimated 485,000 school bus drivers.

The one-day tally of stop-arm violations this year was 78,518. NASDPTS officials noted that this figure can be extrapolated to more than 14 million illegal passes of the buses surveyed in a 180-day school year.

The 2015 survey found a violation rate of 0.77 vehicles passing per bus. That rate has been fairly consistent over the past few years: It was 0.78 in 2014 and 0.79 in 2013.

NASDPTS officials said that the most alarming finding of the survey is that 1,483 (about 2%) of the total illegal passes were on the right side of the bus, where students load and unload. Still, the majority of the violations, 75,986 (about 98%), were on the left side of the bus.

As for the direction of the vehicles, more passed from the front of the bus — 45,353 (59%) — than from the rear — 31,835 (41%). Slightly more violations occurred in the evening — 38,795 (49%) — than in the morning — 36,165 (46%). The other 3,558 (5%) were mid-day.

NASDPTS officials said that the data collected in the national survey helps in raising public awareness about illegal passing of school buses, making policy changes and targeting violators — all with the goal of increasing student safety.

"We know that students are far safer in school buses, but when they are outside the bus, they are more vulnerable to injury or death," NASDPTS President Leon Langley said. "Any driver who passes a stopped school bus illegally is endangering children and possibly even his or her own future. Trying to save a few seconds by passing a school bus and hitting a child can be devastating not only for the victims and their families, but also for the motorist who will have to live with the sad consequences."

Many states have taken steps to cut down on stop-arm violations, such as enacting stiffer penalties, launching law enforcement campaigns, and passing legislation to allow stop-arm cameras on school buses.

The danger of illegal passing of school buses is also emphasized by national data compiled annually by the Kansas State Department of Education. The latest version of that report found that six students were killed by vehicles passing their school bus in the 2013-14 school year.

Detailed results from the NASDPTS stop-arm survey for 2015 and previous years can be found at www.nasdpts.org/stoparm.
