Mabel Reese Klose

Our loving Wife, Mother, Grandma, Great-grandma and Friend, Mabel Reese Klose got her wings on Thursday, September 24th 2015. She would hate for us to make this a typical, sad obituary, so instead it will be about her and all the love she gave and received during her lifetime.

She was born on March 30th 1941, was raised in a Catholic orphanage with a brother and sister and later went to a foster home in Foreman, ND. This may have contributed to the reason she was such a compassionate and caring person. She married the handsome Wallace "Wally" Klose on November 26th 1960 and together they raised 4 children Barry, Bonnie, Brenda (Husband B.J) and B.J. (Wife Alena.) The pride and joy of her life were her grandchildren Bradley, Tim, Jennifer, Tiffany, C.J., Shaelee, Garrett, Jesse, Dylan, Elly, Desirae, Skyler, Emilee, Abigail, Makayla, Madison and her great-grandchildren Daimen, Brady, Ryan, Daunte, Raeleigh and Journey.

Her 4 brothers, Richard, Frank, Bill and George and 1 sister, Janet were a very important part of her life, as were her family and numerous friends, near and far. You can't talk about her without mentioning how GREAT a cook she was. Her biscuits and gravy were legendary. She cooked at the hospital for many years and even made the hospital food yummy!!! Mom loved her funny little "Grandma" sweatshirts, soft and silly pajama pants, hummingbirds and Christmas music. If you weren't a fan of Christmas music than you couldn't really hang around the house between Thanksgiving and Christmas!!!

She loved her family with her heart and soul. We do not know how to go on without her because that is ONE thing she did not teach us.

There will be a funeral vigil on Thursday, October 1, 2015 at 7:00 pm at K&L Mortuary in Twin Bridges. A Funeral mass will be on Friday, October 2, 2015 at 10 am at St Mary's Church in Laurin. We would love for everyone to attend a Celebration of her Life on Saturday, October 3, 2015 at 2 pm at the Twin Bridges School Multipurpose Room with a potluck to follow at the lunchroom. Mom's favorite color was blue, baby blue and we would love anyone that attends to wear baby blue. Please bring a story about her with you.

Mom may be gone from our sight, but never, ever from our hearts and minds. Mom we love you to the moon and back.

of death is being determined by the Coroner and State Medical Examiner's Office.

Carter was located in a wooded area approximately one mile uphill from where he had parked his truck.

The search for Carter began last Sunday. The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office and Beaverhead Search and Rescue were assisted in the search throughout the week by numerous agencies and volunteers, including the Flathead County Sheriff and SAR unit, Ravalli County Sheriff and SAR unit, the Madison County SAR unit, Two Bear Air, Butte Lifeflight, search dog teams from Montana and Canada, private fixed wing and helicopters, an aerial drone company from Montana, Plum Creek Lumber Company, the Beaverhead National Forest Wisdom Ranger District, Montana DNRC Dillon Office, hundreds of citizens from western Montana, and the friends and family of Robert Carter, Jr. There are other entities that donated time and goods.

The Sheriff's Office is grateful to all those that assisted in the search and giving us the ability to find some answers for the Carter family.

Former Smokejumpers Give Back to the National Forests

How do five former smokejumpers like to spend part of their summers and give back to the National Forests who helped them become the extraordinary people they are? During the week of July 10-16 Bill Kolar and four of his former smokejumper friends banded together to work at Hogan Cabin located in the Trail Creek drainage 21 miles NW of Wisdom, MT. Their primary job was to construct a jack-leg fence around the cabin and barn. As the work began, three Americorps volunteers joined the former smokejumpers effort. They acquired some new skills as well learn about the careers of the crew.

Crew Leader Bill Kolar along with Chuck Fricke help to build the jack-leg fence. Every day the crew was drenched with rain showers and electrical displays of lightning storms, however, construction of the fence was successfully completed by the end of the week. Another task the crew had was to fall 38 hazard trees that were located around the perimeter of the cabin, barn and outhouse. Thanks to the wonderful cooking skills of Karan Connelly, the crew ate well and enjoyed their stay at the cabin. During the week the crew was visited by Wisdom Ranger District employees John Ericson & Bob Hutton who had arranged for the project through the National Smokejumper Association out of Missoula, MT.

Since 1998, 150-200 former smokejumpers have been volunteering their services for the Forest Service on various projects which includes trail maintenance, cabin and lookout preservation, fence construction and maintenance, as well as trail bridge construction. During the first six to seven years most of the volunteer projects were located in the Bob Marshall and Absaroka/Beartooth Wilderness Areas. As word got out of the excellent work performed by the former Smokejumpers, there was a rush on to obtain their services

While most of the projects are located in Montana and Idaho, work has expanded to Colorado, California, and Minnesota over the last seven years. All travel and lodging to and from the projects is strictly non-pay to the volunteers who come from all parts of the United States. "Our motto is "We work for Food" and a place to throw out our tent and sleeping bag" said crew leader Bill Kolar.

The crew members on this project were Richard Trinity, retired surgeon from Red Oak, Iowa; Jack Atkins, retired Lawyer from Bozeman, MT; Rod Mciver, retired teacher and Christmas tree grower from Kalispell, MT; Chuck Fricke, retired from the Forest Service from Florence, MT; Karan Connelly, retired teacher, packer and cook on several of our projects in the past from West Glacier, MT, and the crew leader was Bill Kolar, retired from the Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF from Dillon, MT.
