Southern Oregon drops Bulldogs in overtime

In a battle of offense vs. defense, the No. 2 Southern Oregon Red Raiders (4-1, 4-1) and No. 16 Montana Western Bulldogs (3-2, 3-2) squared off in a Frontier Conference battle. The high-powered offense prevailed as the defending NAIA National Champion Red Raiders emerged victorious by a score of 37-30 in overtime. (Stats)

Southern Oregon, who leads the Frontier in scoring with 45 points per game, struck first on the first possession of the ball game, traveling 84-yards on six plays, to take a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter behind the arm of Tanner Trosin, including a 47-yarder to Adonis Griffin to set-up Sean Tow's 16-yard scamper.

The Bulldogs, who rank No. 1 in the NAIA in scoring defense by only giving up nine points per game, answered by scoring on back-to-back J.D. Ferris touchdown tosses to take a 14-7 lead early in the second quarter.

The Red Raiders took to the field and drove 76-yards in 12 plays to knot the score up at 14-all with 8:18 remaining in the second quarter on a Trosin 7-yard strike to Keegan Lawrence.

Montana Western took little time in answering with points of their own on the very next possession as junior kicker Seth Mason tacked on a 23-yard field goal with 5:44 to play before intermission.

The Bulldogs then forced a three-and-out and drove down the field, only to be denied on a fourth-and-inches from the 20-yard line with 30 seconds remaining in the half.

The first half came to an end with a score of 17-14 in favor of the Bulldogs behind 238 passing yards from freshman quarterback J.D. Ferris. Ferris completed 15 of 26 passes and added two touchdown passes, a 25-yarder to Matt Lickfold and a 16-yard catch-and-run by Tyler Murray.

Southern Oregon limited Montana Western to 45 rushing yards on 21 carries, as they gained 95 yards on 22 attempts in the first half.

The second half provided those in attendance with a back-and-forth affair for the season. Southern Oregon started the scoring in the second half with a 30-yard field goal by Marcus Montano that knotted the game at 17. After forcing a three-and-out the Raiders marched down the field and scored on a Melvin Mason 1-yard plunge to take the lead, 23-17, for the first time since it was 7-0. Mason rushed for 41 yards and caught 3 passes for 31 yards on the day.

In the absence of starting running back Sam Rutherford, who left the game with sickness, Dylan Kramer punched in a 7-yard touchdown at the end of the third quarter to tie the game at 23, the ensuing P.A.T was blocked by Southern Oregon.

After a defensive battle to start the fourth quarter, Southern Oregon scored the first points of the quarter on a nine-play, 60-yard drive that ended with a 16-yard pass and catch from Kamerun Smith to Sean Tow.

With 2 minutes and 49 remaining the game, Montana Western mounted a seven-play, 75-yard drive that was capped off by Kramer's second touchdown of the day. Kramer had 34 rushing yards on the afternoon to add to his two touchdowns.

That ended the scoring in regulation as the game entered overtime tied at 30.

On the first play of overtime, Trosin found Tow for 16-yards to set up first-and-goal, Tow took the second play around the right end and found the end zone to take the lead 37-30.

Montana Western's TJ Leep took the Bulldogs first play of overtime 24-yards on an end-around to get the ball to the 1-yard line. The Bulldogs were denied three straight plays and the fourth down pass fell incomplete, sealing the victory for Southern Oregon.

For the second straight game, Montana Western was unable to score from the 1-yard line against a top-5 ranked squad.

Tow led the way for Southern Oregon as he racked up 126 total yards of offense and scored three touchdowns, including what proved to be the game winner in overtime.

Receiver Adonis Griffin caught six balls for 138 yards to lead the Red Raiders potent receiving corps who was without start Matt Retzlaff. Trosin and Smith split duties at quarterback and combined for 315 passing yards and two touchdowns. Trosin also added 59-yards on the ground.

Montana Western was led by Ferris who threw for a career high 371 yards on 27 completions, on top of his two touchdowns, he was also intercepted by Karrington Jones twice in the contest.

Beau Brekke, in his first game of the season after suffering and injury during two-a-days led the Montana Western receivers with eight grabs and pitched in 65 yards, Matt Fuhrman added six receptions for 95 yards and had one carry for 12 yards. Lickfold added five snags for 67 yards to go with his scoring grab.

The Bulldogs were anchored by some familiar faces on defense as Joe Coker and T.J. Benson each recorded nine tackles, Coker added one tackle for loss as Benson had 2.5 tackles for loss. Dakota Wainwright also had a stellar day, tallying eight tackles, one tackle for loss and one sack.

With the win, Southern Oregon stays atop the Frontier Conference in a tie with Montana Tech, each team has one conference loss and the Bulldogs drop into a tie for third with Carroll College with 3-2 conference records.

Parking in Dillon.

By MJ

At many meetings I have heard the public complain about trailer, motor homes, campers, fishing boats, broke down autos, and neighbors blocking other property owner's street access by parking multiple vehicles in front of their house. I have continually heard this complaint ever since I came to Dillon in 1967. It's a problem that seems to never go away and often obstruct the view on street corners for vehicles entering an intersection.

What to Do? Would a 48 hour city parking regulation? Just a thought.

Beaverhead GOP To Meet Tuesday Oct. 13

The Beaverhead County Republican Central Committee will meet Tuesday, October 13, 2015 at 7 p.m. in the Courthouse Annex. On the agenda will be Brooke Erb reporting on the Environmental Quality Council. Tim Tollett may report on the water turbidity concern and John Helle may talk on their grazing lawsuit. The public is welcome.

Fall Cemetery Cleanup

Bulldogs spike competition in Denver

The University of Montana Western volleyball team snapped an eight-game losing streak and started a new three-game winning streak over the weekend in Denver, Colo., at the Johnson & Wales Invitational.

The Bulldogs (7-12, 0-5) took the first game of the tournament against tournament host Johnson & Wales in straight sets – 25-16, 25-18 and 25-22. The win kick-started momentum for the young Bulldogs who have struggled to get a win in almost a month.

Montana Western picked up where they left off by defeating former Frontier Conference foe, Dickinson State in a five-set battle that saw no team win two consecutive sets. The Bulldogs won by scores of – 25-8, 22-25, 25-21, 29-31 and 17-15. The win was the fifth consecutive over the Bluehawks.

On the second day of competition, Montana Western continued to build off the momentum from the previous day as they swept the St. Louis College of Pharmacy – 25-12, 25-19 and 25-18.

As a team, Montana Western had a season high hitting percentage of .273 and limited themselves to 14 hitting errors. They forced Johnson & Wales into a .161 hitting percentage and 16 errors on the afternoon.

Immediately following their victory over the Wildcats, the Bulldogs returned to the floor to face the Dickinson State Bluehawks, in what turned out to be a back-and-forth battle.

In the weekend finale, the Montana Western made short-work of the Eutectics from the St. Louis College of Pharmacy. Avery continued her stellar play as she totaled 12 kills and a .280 hitting percentage to lead the team. McCree added 10 kills as Miller and Kyla Paulsen pitched in with seven kills.

Hanson again led the way with 30 assists as she averaged more than 10 assists per set on the weekend. She also was second on the team with 13 digs in the match.

DeCock put herself in good position all weekend as she led the team in digs for the second time in three matches as she recorded 14 in the victory, Jami Flink pitched in 8, as Fowler and Wilson added seven and six respectively.

Montana Western was able to gain some momentum heading into the second half of conference play, as they return home to face Carroll College at 7 p.m. on Friday, October 16th and Montana Tech at 2 p.m. on Saturday, October 17th. Both contests will be in Straugh Gymnasium.

Team Member Position Available

Hi I'm Katelyn, the team leader at Precision EyeCare & Optical. I recently returned from a leadership workshop training in Phoenix. It was a great experience but made one thing very clear; we need to expand our team. We recently added a new doctor to our practice and now we need to add more team members.

So if you love working with people and making a difference in their lives, look forward to a challenging and rewarding role in your job, come in and see us.

Please deliver your resume and cover letter expressing your interest and how you would be a great addition to our team. And please ask for me when you drop that off, I would really like to meet you.

I look forward to meeting you,

Katelyn
