Bulldog football sneaks past Eastern Oregon

The No. 22 Montana Western football team escaped La Grande, Oregon and the Mountaineers from Eastern Oregon in a back-and-forth Frontier Conference battle by a score of 30-23.

Senior linebacker Dakota Wainwright blocked a punt and returned it 36-yards for the go-ahead game winning touchdown with his team trailing 23-22 with 2:09 remaining in the game. Quarterback J.D. Ferris ran in the ensuing two-point conversion to make the score 30-23.

Eastern Oregon (2-5, 2-4) started the scoring on their first offensive play.

Montana Western (4-2, 4-2) answered with a 7-play, 79-yard drive that was capped off by a Matt Fuhrman 44-yard touchdown run, the extra point attempt by Seth Mason was no good, making the score 7-6.

The Bulldog defense then stood strong as they forced EOU to punt. The Bulldogs took their first lead of the day, 13-6.

The teams exchanged possessions as the Mounties were forced to punt on their ensuing possession, only to get the ball back on a Gary Posten interception at the 15-yard line of Ferris.

JD Ferris took the field and led the offense on another long drive - 16-plays, 70-yards and 7:35 - that ended with a 38-yard field goal from Greth, taking the lead back and ending the first half with a score of 16-14. Ferris continued his strong true-freshman season as he threw for 207 yards and rushed for 39 more.

The third quarter was a defensive battle as Montana Western defensive back Ben Sulser intercepted Bartlow at their own 10-yard line, and returned it 38-yards to almost mid-field. The Bulldog offense was unable to capitalize on great field position as they were stuffed on a fourth-and-two and turned the ball over on downs.

After a defensive stand by Eastern Oregon that forced Montana Western to punt the ball away with 4:45 remaining in the game, it was Wainwright's time to shine. On a fourth-and-two with 2:16 to play, Wainwright blocked Nathan Harden's punt and returned it 36-yards for what proved to be the game-winner.

Junior linebacker TJ Bensen paced the stingy Bulldog defense with 12 tackles, he also recorded one tackle for loss. Senior defensive back Dakota Pineda and linebacker Joe Coker each made nine tackles and .5 tackles for loss. Defensive end Reno Ward continued to excel on the defensive line as he made eight defensive stops, had two quarterback sacks and two tackles for loss.

AJ Wilson, Tyrell Penner and Jay Owens each added seven tackles for the Bulldog defense that held Eastern Oregon under their average rushing yards per game with 127 in the game.

Hot shooting leads Montana Western to victory

The University of Montana Western women's basketball team earned their second consecutive victory to start the 2015-16 season. An offensive explosion propelled the Bulldogs over non-conference opponent Northwest Indian College. Montana Western won running away, 107-40.

A young Bulldog squad scored early and often as they scored 61 first half points, including 38 in the second quarter. Montana Western scored 21-plus points in each quarter as they held the Eagles to 12 or less in each frame.

The Bulldogs balanced attack led to their largest point total since 2010, when they reached 111 points. Senior guard Sierra Higheagle scored 22 points to lead the Bulldogs, who placed four scorers in double figures, had eight players score seven-plus points and saw all 12 players score a basket in route to 107 points. McCall Hasquet scored 14 – including four three-pointers – Brandy Bookout and Sierra Bignell each scored to round out the double-digit scorers for the evening.

The successful shooting from behind the arc and the 57% shooting mark was made possible due to an abundance of open shots that were created by the unselfish Bulldogs, who also recorded 28 assists on 40 field goals. Sophomore Callie Kanthack paved the way with eight assists, as Bignell and Aniese Palmore pitched in five apiece. Seven Bulldogs recorded assists in the game.

Palmore continued her stat stuffing performances by adding nine points and six rebounds to her five assists.

Freshman center Darby Schye notched seven points and reached double-digit rebounds with 10. Fellow freshman Britt Cooper added nine rebounds to her seven points and junior Kaye Bignell added to the rebounding efforts with seven. Bignell also scored nine points.

The defense of the Bulldogs was equally as impressive as their offense in the contest as they limited Northwest Indian College a 20% field goal percentage, and only five made two-point baskets. They also dominated the glass, out-rebounding the Eagles 66 to 20.

After a 2-0 start to the young season, Montana Western will have a few weeks off as they prepare to travel to Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada to face the University of Lethbridge and Mount Royal University on October 30th and 31st.

The University of Montana Western volleyball team dropped a conference match to No. 25 Carroll College at home to drop to 7-13 overall and 0-6 in conference, as Carroll improved to 15-8 and a perfect 6-0 in conference. (stats)

Carroll College took the match by the scores - 25-19, 25-22, 25-18 - on route to a sweep over the host Bulldogs.

Montana Western was on the wrong side of two big momentum swings in the second and third sets that saw a 22-all tie end in a 25-22 defeat and lose a 13-10 lead in the third set.

The Bulldogs were led by Kylie McCree's 10 kills and Callie Hanson's 31 assists. Joanna Avery added in seven kills in the match. Hanson also had three service aces.

Defensively Brianna DeCock paced Montana Western with 19 digs as Cady Siemion also tallied 15 digs. Tessa Miller recorded one solo block and two block assists to lead the Bulldogs net defense.

HUNTER, BOWHUNTER EDUCATION
INSTRUCTORS NEEDED IN DILLON

Montana Fish, Wildlife &amp; Parks is seeking volunteer instructors for its hunter and bowhunter education programs in the Dillon area. Currently, there are no bowhunter education instructors for the Dillon community for 2016, so bowhunters are especially encouraged to apply.

Hunter and bowhunter education are state mandated courses which are taught by dedicated volunteers. Montana Fish, Wildlife &amp; Parks is seeking more of these dedicated men and women to help serve these areas. Anyone who is at least twelve years old is eligible to apply.

The heart of Montana's Hunter and Bowhunter Education programs is the corps of dedicated volunteer instructors. They stand as examples of how each hunter should demonstrate ethics, behavior and responsibility to themselves, landowners, other hunters and the resource.

These instructors choose to honor Montana's hunting heritage and "Pass it On" by sharing their skills, experiences and their love of hunting and Montana's vast resources with those new to hunting and the outdoor adventure.

For information on becoming a hunter or bowhunter education instructor, please call Sara Smith in the FWP Helena Region Information and Education Office at (406) 444-9948 or visit <http://fwp.mt.gov/education/hunter/instructors/> to learn more and apply.Hitchin' PostRestaurant & Bar

Bulldog basketball bounces back

The UofM Western men's basketball team bounced back in a big way from their season-opening loss of Friday night as they rolled past Northwest Indian College 110-77.

The 110 points are the most they Bulldogs have scored since 2009, when put in 127 against Multnomah. The scoring was very balanced as seven players scored in double figures and 12 Bulldogs scored in the game.

They were led by senior Ryan McCarty's 17 and Dexter Williams, Jr.'s 11. Five others scored exactly 10 points on the night - Shyke Smalls, Quinn Smith, Connor Woodill, Cameron Evans and Troy Scott. Kurtis Parson just missed double digits as he scored nine points on three 3-pointers.

Western who struggled to find the bottom of the net last night as they shot 36% from the field, found much more success tonight as they finished 41-80 from the field for a 51% mark.

Freshman Kooper Kidgell led Western with nine rebounds and five assists to go with his seven points in the second game of his career, he also played a team-high 20 minutes. Smalls added seven rebounds and five assists, Scott and Evans each grabbed six rebounds.

As a team, Montana western had 23 assists and knocked down 12 3-pointers in route to a big bounce back win.
