Public Right to Know.

By: MJ

The street talk lately has been about the "Right to Privacy" and "Right to Know" issues. Humans just can't stand being kept in the dark and not knowing all the details. The Montana Constitution provides for the right of individual privacy but also establishes the public's right to examine documents and deliberations of all public bodies and agencies. These competing interests must be balanced to determine whether the individual privacy clearly exceeds the merits of public disclosure under the facts of each case.

Right to Know: Section 9 of Montana Constitution says that no person shall be deprived of the right to examine documents or to observe the deliberations of all public bodies or agencies of state government and its subdivisions, except in cases in which the demand of individual privacy clearly exceeds the merits of public disclosure

Right of Privacy Section 10 Montana Constitution: The right of individual privacy is essential to the well-being of a free society and shall not be infringed without the showing of a compelling state interest.

Why is this and issue? After the last election where the position of mayor and council members changed, several of the city employees were dismissed. The mayor and council had the burden of balancing the "Right to Know" and "the Right to Privacy" when it came to issuing detailed information on these dismissals. They came to the conclusion that it would be for the betterment of the community to not release detailed information.

You can find more detailed information in the "Open Government Guide." The guide gives instructions on how you may proceed to obtain more information.

FIRE CALLS

Dillon Volunteer Fire Department was called to the smell of Natural Gas at the Mormon Church Monday morning and then to a dryer fire at Sunshine Laundry in the afternoon. They were called twice to the laundry as they turned the power back on and set off another fire alarm.

Beaver Froshmore Unbeaten

Congratulations to each player and the coaching staff of the Froshmore Football team. These talented athletes represented our school and community with respect and sportsmanship to each other, the coaches and fans as well as each school they faced, both on and off the field. They all deserve recognition for their accomplishments in achieving an undefeated season. From the DFL Program, their love of the sport drives them to improve as a team, these young men may be the future Varsity of BCHS and we applaud each of them and thank them for an outstanding season as we look forward to supporting and enjoying their efforts in the years ahead.
