75th Wedding Anniversary

Jack and Allowee Heiner Briggs will celebrate their 75th Wedding Anniversary on November 20, 2015. Jack and Allowee were married in Manila, Utah in 1940. They ranched in McKinnon, Wyoming before moving to Dell, Montana in 1949 to establish the Briggs Cattle Ranch with Jack's father (John Briggs), three brothers (Harold, Dick and Hugh), and their families. Jack and Allowee raised four children in Beaverhead County: Scott, Marcene (Hamilton), Cordell, and Valaine. In 1979, the couple retired to Polson, Montana where they continue to enjoy their summers. In 1998, they began to enjoy their winters in Saint George, Utah. In 2015, Jack was inducted into the Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame exemplifying those who have made an impact on Montana's Western Heritage.

Jack and Allowee will celebrate on November 20 at a reception given in their honor in Provo, Utah.

James Ernest Beitler, 70

On October 18, 2015, James Ernest Beitler, 70, died of complications from a stroke he had in February. Jim's entire life was an adventure that began early every morning when he would get up in eager anticipation of what the day would bring his way. He worked on construction projects from the southern Mohave Desert to the northern Aleutian Islands of Alaska and was still working for Electrical Consultants, Inc. at the time of his stroke. He also loved traveling with his family all over the US and Canada, even making a couple of trips overseas to Italy and Romania. Along the way, Jim never, ever, met a stranger.

Jim could fix anything and delighted in rescuing fellow adventurers with his gecko green Jeep on the trails in Moab, Utah. His pick-up truck never left the driveway without his faithful companion, Chase, sitting shotgun.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, Gerald S. and Mary K. Beitler.

Jim is survived by his wife and best friend of 18 years, Carol Pivonka, his son and stepsons, Kirk (Chrissy) Beitler of Concord, NH, Adam (Oana) Pivonka of Chatham, NJ and Daniel Pivonka of San Diego, CA. He is also survived by his sister, Jane Fighter of Columbus, OH and his four grandchildren, Alison, Lauren and Lucy Beitler and Damian Pivonka. His family and many friendships meant everything to Jim and we will hold him in our hearts forever.

Per Jim's wishes, there will be a private family service at a later date.

Street Talk

By: MJ

There has been several conversations that have been shared with me about the benches on the street corners of Montana and Bannack. Some of the questions are; will long bed pick-ups with horse trailers be able to make the turn without going up on the newly constructed curb with pavers, what kind of people will be sitting on the benches, why are the light posts/trees not on the other side of the street, we lost valuable parking spaces, why does the museum have private parking on city streets, who were the designers, was the city involved and why weren't the business owners in the immediate area included in the planning...

The benches are placed in public areas however it appears that some people are worried about the type of people who will be using the benches indicating that not all people are welcome. I was always told "never look down on anyone unless you're helping them."

Comments and discussions on the streets about the people that might be using the benches is; will they be tourist strolling through downtown, will they be people that have just enjoyed a meal at the local diner, will it be someone enjoying a cigarette, will it be patrons from the local pub, someone using medical marijuana, two business people having a conversation, a person exercising taking a break, a senior citizens needing a place to rest...

Other comments I have heard are; it might be a little ostentatious, it is attractive, beautiful, makes the corner look good and is an improvement to downtown.

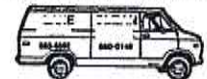

If you have concerns or suggestions call your councilman or representatives at city hall.

Count Down to the Veterinary Technician Program Start Up at UM Western

Montana's first Veterinary Technician Program will start Nov. 9th on the UM Western Campus. Pima Medical Institute is proud to see this charter class on the Dillon Campus. The first class is made up of both Montana and out of state students who are more than ready to get started in learning about both small and large animals and being trained to be part of the animal health care team. Students can enroll right out of high school.

The first sequence is called Career Prep to get them introduced to the veterinary profession. This will be housed on campus in a classroom at Main Hall. After Winter Break, the students will return to a brand new classroom complete with a computer lab and a state of the art veterinary laboratory. Pima is issuing each student a brand new laptop, to help secure student success in mastering the intense curriculum. Then when the first class returns from their externship clinical experience, the remodeled veterinary teaching hospital will be ready to accept the students starting their Vet Tech part of the Program. PMI will be investing over $500,000 in the facility and equipment necessary for teaching and training in essential skills.

Both the facility and the curriculum is in alignment with the American Veterinary Medical Association that mandates equipment and training of the Veterinary Technician. The process of accreditation takes several years. The Dillon Campus is past Step 2 and awaits the walk through inspection in March of 2017. PMI has 8 other AVMA accredited programs on their other university campuses across the West.

This is excellent timing, as the Montana State Veterinary Board has licensure of the Veterinary Technician on its agenda this next Friday, Oct. 30th. The Vet Techs were licensed in Montana in the past. With three meetings of the Vet Board prior to the next State Legislature, the hope is that licensure will be reinstated in 2017, when the first class will be graduating. This has an overwhelming support of the Montana Veterinary Medical Association, the Big Sky Veterinary Technician Association and the Montana Veterinarians, as reflected in a current survey.

There is a huge demand in the state for trained veterinary technicians so job placement has excellent potential. Dr. Rick Scherr, co-chairman of the Montana Veterinary Medical Association's Vet Tech Board, said there is a shortage of educated vet techs in Montana. As a vet, he often looks out of state to hire for his own practice, Big Sky Animal Medical Center in Great Falls, Mont. This new program is very needed, he said. It will fill an employment void across the state. The economic impact of more students in Dillon can already be felt, especially since the students will be attending year round.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

I saw a full moon in the sky, and a witch go flying by. Ghosts floating in the air, and bats flying everywhere.

There was Jack-o'-lanterns skeletons mummies, and black cats to. I heard an owl saying who, who, who.

I saw kids dressed up knocking on doors. Saying trick or treat. Hoping for lots of candy to eat.

It was a very scary night, with lots of spooks in sight.
Then I heard someone scream. Happy Halloween!!
