Mary Elizabeth Merino

Mary Elizabeth Merino passed away on October 28, taken from life much too early and under the saddest of circumstances. She was born on April 21, 1983, in Boston, MA, to Margaret Noyce and Tony Merino.

Throughout her short and wondrous life, she lived all over the continent, touching lives everywhere she went. A free spirit and beautiful woman, she cared for others more than she cared for herself, and gave of herself every single day. A true cowgirl and a dedicated rancher, she never tired of working the land and improving everything around her through hard work and faith in others. She loved her dogs, her cows, and her horses, and she loved the ranching life more than any other. Everyone who knew her was awed by her beauty and her strength, and all the lives she touched will forever be changed by her influence. She was a beacon of light, and the world will be a darker place without her. She will be sorely missed, and treasured in memory forever.

She is survived by: her daughters Savanna and Aziza Merino, her mother Margaret Noyce, her father Tony Merino, her brothers Michael Merino and David Noyce, her sister Jessica Merino, her partner Blake Nuffer, and her dear friend Andrew Bugni, as well as her extended family and many close friends.

Her funeral will take place at the Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon, on 7 November, at 5 p.m. The service is open to family and friends. To send flowers, please visit www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

children and shared 62 years of marriage before her death in 1999.

In 1943, after working for the ATF in Washington D.C., Chicago, and Peoria, Illinois, Bud's love of ranching brought him and Frances home to Jackson to take over the family ranch. Bud particularly enjoyed haying and was part of the crew until his late 80's. He also had a passion for boxing and fought in several pro fights. Bud dedicated himself to fitness and stayed active walking and exercising. His other joys included hunting, riding horses and reading. But above it all, he loved to ranch. He spent his life doing what he loved, building his family's ranch, and operating it well into his 90's.

Bud is preceded in death by his parents, wife, baby brother and sister Bonnie. He is survived by his three children; Sandra Lapham, Amber Szafruk of Plains, MT and Max and Debbie Lapham, as well as 8 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Bud's family wants to give special thanks to Kindred Parkview staff, Dr. Ron Loge, Dr. Sandra McIntyre, and Marie Holt and staff at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare for their dedicated service and excellent care.

At his request, no service will be held. Donations in memory can be made to the Jackson Fire Department and the Wisdom and Grasshopper Ambulance. Bud will be forever remembered and missed.

Harry (Muzzy) Faroni

On Oct. 29, 2015, the Heavens became filled with an extra abundance of joy and laughter with the passing of Harry (Muzzy) Faroni. Muzz was surrounded by his loving family every step of the way on his journey to Eternal Life with Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Harry Joseph Faroni was born Aug. 10, 1929, in Ogden, Utah to Joseph and Catherine (Fiorani) Faroni. He was the youngest of three children, having two sisters -- Isma and Severina. His parents and his oldest sister, Isma came to the U.S. from Sassoferrato, Italy. This made Muzz a first-generation U.S. citizen.

Muzz was raised on the East Side of Butte and attended the Grant Grade School. A major career accomplishment came in 1954 was when he and his friend and brother-in-law, George (Judo) Stanisich became partners managing the Rose Garden Bar. It was during this time the U.S. Interstate came through the location of the Rose Garden Bar and the two partners joined efforts in 1962 to relocate and own their own business, forming the legendary, landmark local business, Muzz and Stan's Freeway Tavern. They were noted for their delectable Freeway chicken, as well as offering their famous Judo Chop (pork chop) Sandwich, which later was named as we know it today, The Wop Chop. The Wop Chop became a world famous favorite sandwich enjoyed and requested by many today.

We are all at comfort knowing that there is a reunion filled with love and joy as you are greeted by your son Joe, family and friends at the table that is awaiting you. Go with God Muzzy ... Until We Meet Again!

In staying with true Muzz fashion, as Muzzy would say, "you can all KMA!"

Funeral Services will be held at St. Ann's Church on Wednesday Nov. 4, with visitation from 10 to 11 a.m. The Funeral Mass will begin at 11 a.m.

BEAVERS VOLLEYBALL

Thursday night the Dillon Volleyball was at home with senior night against the Belgrade who blocked their way to a win for the Panthers.

The Dillon girls saw senior Alex Rouse come away with 11 kills, and 27 digs, Kylie Christiansen had 28 digs and 8 kills, and Bailey Berriochoa had 29 assists, 17 digs and 8 kills.

Dillon is seeded #4 going into the Western A Divisionals playing against Columbia Falls in the first round in Hamilton.

Choteau's Achenbach signs with Western Basketball

Montana Western men's basketball coach Steve Keller is excited to announce the signing of Collin Achenbach to an NAIA Letter of Intent. Achenbach will join the Bulldog basketball program in the fall of 2016.

Achenbach, a 5-foot-9 guard from Choteau, Mont., helped lead Choteau High School to a 2014-15 state Class B basketball championship and an undefeated 26-0 record. He also garnered all-state honors after his nightly performances his undefeated junior season in which he averaged 15 points and 7 assists per game.

Achenbach plays for former Western standout, Matt Luedtke, who knows what it takes to play for Coach Keller, "Collin has great ball skills and is a fierce competitor," he stated about his newest signee.

"Collin is a very good three-point shooter," said Keller, "and does what a good point guard needs to do, score and distribute the basketball (see his 7 assist per game average)."

Achenbach will join Choteau teammate Derek Durocher, who signed with the Montana Western in August, both student-athletes will continue to wear Bulldog gear as they transition from high school to college.

"It's nice knowing that I'll get to keep playing with someone I've been playing with since we've been in Kindergarten," stated Achenbach, "That definitely added some comfort to the decision."

As his football career just came to an end as Choteau was unable to qualify for the playoffs, Collin and his teammates are ready for the upcoming basketball season in which they start as the defending Class B state champions.

"I'm definitely excited for basketball, we've got a lot of good guys, but it will be hard to duplicate what we did (by going undefeated and winning state), but we'll do our best to try and get it done again," stated Achenbach.

Collin is the son of Nate and Patty Achenbach and plans to major in Business and the University of Montana Western.

"We are looking forward to watching him (Achenbach) become a very good player in our league," stated Coach Keller.

AMERICAN LEGION POST 20 MEETING

Meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 4th at the Legion Hall on 437 E. Glendale St. with a social hour 6:15-7:00 pm and meeting at 8:00 pm.
