"POWER AID BENEFIT TO HELP THE POWER FAMILY"

The Friends of Ben Power are joining forces to organize Power Aid: A Benefit to Support Ben Power and His Family. Ben, husband and father of 4 young children, suffered a stroke in September. Please join us Saturday, November 14th at 6:00 PM at the Elk's Lodge in Dillon for Philly cheese steak dinner, live and silent auctions, live music, and games. Tickets are $8/person or $25/family and are available at The Vineyard, 3-D Store, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, or by calling Tammy Brickzin at (406) 683-3009. To donate an auction item or cash gift, please call Danna Harrison at (406) 683-3131 or Victoria Tomaryn at (406) 683-3036. All proceeds go to the Power family to offset medical costs and other expenses related to Ben's stroke.

AN EVENING WITH BELLA HRISTOVA - VIOLIN AND PIANO

A spectacular young violinist, Bella Hristova, winner of the prestigious 2013 Avery Fisher Career Grant, will grace the stage at UM-Western Beier Auditorium on Tuesday, November 17, at 7:30 p.m. This exciting, virtuosic musician, who has a growing international career as a soloist and recording artist, is brought to our community by the Dillon Concert Association, as part of its current concert series and is sponsored by Ken and Missy Westman and an anonymous donor.

Bella's planned program will be characterized as "light classical" as opposed to a heavy serious classical program. Familiar pieces such as Meditation from Thaïs, the Porgy and Bess Suite, and Carmen Fantasie Brillante will be included.

Whether you have even touched a violin....this is a not to be missed, as it is a spectacular performance by one of the top young violinists around. Please make plans to join the concert series and attend this concert.

Dillon Concert Association membership grants admission into all 2015-16 performances. Single event tickets will be sold at the door: Adults - $15; College - $10; Student/Youth - $6.

For further information, call Chris Kloker at 865-0076.

Bare Bait Dance

The Southwest Montana Arts Council would like to invite the community to two events featuring Bare Bait Dance. On Wednesday, November 11, the Missoula-based dance company will conduct a dance and movement workshop at 6:30 p.m. in the room above City Hall (enter at the City Court entrance on Center Street). The workshop is free and open to all ages and abilities. On Thursday, November 12, the dancers will perform at Beier Auditorium at 7 p.m. Tickets are $15 for adults an $8 for youth. Children under four and UMW students with a valid student ID are free.

Founded in the fall of 2011, Bare Bait Dance offers fresh, original, professional dance-works in Montana for Montanans. Under the direction of Joy French, Bare Bait Dance company aims to build an accessibility to dance by producing concerts that speak directly to contemporary Western audiences and by fostering more possibilities for dance education both in the public schools and our communities. In addition to the two community events, Bare Bait Dance will work with Dillon Middle School physical education classes to demonstrate and instruct on the athleticism of dance.

Dillon Middle School art students will have work on display in the Beier Auditorium lobby of the Thursday evening performance. The artwork is the school's annual Sunflower Contest and audience members are invited to vote for their favorite piece. The top three vote getters will receive gift certificates from The Bookstore.

The Southwest Montana Arts Council (swmarts.org) is a non-profit organization dedicated to advocating for, celebrating and nurturing the arts and humanities in Southwest Montana. For more information, contact Mandy Maass at 683-6208.

BCHS SPEECH & DRAMA

Angelika Jones had an outstanding day, to propel her to first place at the Stevensville Invitational, on Saturday, October 24th. Angelika Jones was ranked 1st in 3 of the 4 preliminary rounds, and received all 1s in the final round to secure the first place medal for the day. Angelika participated in Expository speaking along with teammate Elizabeth Simonsen who finished in 3rd. "Both of these girls had a great day, Angelika is only a sophomore and Elizabeth a freshman, so I am thrilled how well they did at the meet, especially for the first one of the season." Said Head Coach Maria Hansen. Rhiannon Murdoch Kalsta, competed in Dramatic Duo on Saturday, and she placed 3rd for her efforts. Mariah Mosher placed third in Humorous Solo acting. Freshmen Mark Southam and Jovanny Guillen participated in Humorous Duo acting and the duo placed 9th for the day. "I was very pleased with the results from this first meet, the kids had a good day, and I am excited to see how this season will progress." "I only has a very small contingent as many of the team is still participating in Volleyball, and kids also competing at the state cross country meet." The Speech and Drama teams both placed 4th on Saturday.

Bulldog football downs College of Idaho 27-23

The No. 16 University of Montana Western Bulldog football team escaped with another nail-biting victory, as they defeated the College of Idaho 'Yotes 27-23 at Simplot Stadium in Caldwell, Idaho.

For the fifth straight game and the sixth in the past seven, the Montana Western football team played a game decided by one possession. They have won three straight games decided by a touchdown or less.

The 'Yotes started the game on a tear as they opened with a 9-play, 95-yard drive capped off by a Teejay Gordon 45-yard pass to Tyler Higby, to take a 7-0 lead 4:40 into the contest. Higby hauled in 10 passes for 168 yards and the first touchdown of the game.

After trading possessions, the Bulldogs scored twice in less than 90 seconds to take a 13-7 lead with one minute to play in the first quarter.

The first score came on a 78-yard Bradley Smith to George Sherwood catch-and-run, the extra point attempt was missed by Seth Mason.

Following a Dakota Wainwright forced fumble that was recovered by AJ Wilson, Smith found the end zone again just two plays later as he scampered in from 9-yards out to take the lead for good. Mason's extra point attempt was good.

Despite recording back-to-back interceptions from Tim Mundaniohl and Skyler Roope, the Bulldog offense couldn't muster any points as the Yotes responded with an interception of their own to set-up a 41-yard field goal by Hartvig Bondo to bring his team within three points - 13-10 - with 1:08 to play in the first half.

With very little time remaining in the half and a personal foul that put the Bulldog offense at the 23-yard line, Montana Western was content running the ball and heading into half-time with a 13-10 lead.

Following three consecutive drives ending in punts - two by the Bulldogs and one by the Yotes - College of Idaho started the second half scoring on a 5-play, 76-yard drive.

The Bulldog offense had a difficult time getting going out of the break as College of Idaho forced them to punt on their two possessions following the Yotes touchdown run.

Smith was intercepted again as College of Idaho took over with great field position, only to lose it on a Kyle Merritt fumble forced by Dylon Atchison and recovered by Frontier Conference sack-leader Reno Ward.

Unlike before, the Bulldogs were able to capitalize on the fumble, as they went 52-yards on 5-plays to score on a 21-yard Hunter Thomsen run to take a 27-17 lead with 7:40 to play in the game.

College of Idaho answered right back with a long drive of their own, to set-up a 1-yard Martin touchdown run to bring the Yotes within one possession - 27-23 - after a missed extra point attempt.

Smith finished the day 8-23 passing with 172 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions. He also added 49 rushing yards and one touchdown on the afternoon.

The Bulldog offense was fueled by 239 rushing yards, led by Kramer's 76 and Rutherford's 72.

Sherwood led the Bulldogs receiving corps with three grabs for 123 yards, including his 78-yarder in the first quarter.

The stingy Bulldog defense, who ranked No. 2 in the Frontier Conference in total defense, only allowed 112 rushing yards on 36 attempts. They were able to corral the rushing attack of the Yotes, but had very little luck slowing down Gordon through the air, as he threw for a school-record 371 yards.

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by a trio of defenders, linebackers Wainwright and TJ Benson joined safety Skyler Roope, with eight defensive stops. Wainwright also recorded two tackles for loss and Roope added a second quarter interception.

Tyrell Penner and Andrew Gilpin each brought down Gordon one time to record quarterback sacks in the contest. The Bulldogs also had eight tackles for loss as a team.

With the win, the #16 Bulldogs kept their play-off & Frontier Conference championship hopes alive, as they trail #1 Southern Oregon and #10 Montana Tech by one game in the standings.

Montana Western will return to action on November 7th to face Montana State-Northern for Senior Night. The game will kick-off at 6 p.m. due to the Beaverhead County High School play-off game at Vigilante Stadium.

BEAVERHEAD CHAMBER NOVEMBER BOARD MEETING, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3 AT NOON

Montana Western volleyball stuns No. 5 Rocky Mountain College

If ever there was a day for the Montana Western Bulldogs volleyball squad to pick up their first conference win of the season, Halloween was not the day everyone had envisioned.

The Bulldogs had different plans on Saturday in the Straugh Gymnasium, as senior Mikayla Ness took the floor for one last home game, and led her team to a hard-fought five-set upset of #5 Rocky Mountain College (24-6, 9-2) – 19-25, 25-21, 13-25, 25-21, 15-9 – to hand the Battlin' Bears their 2nd conference loss of the year.

Ness, a 5-foot-10 outside hitter, played better than she ever could have imagined in her last home match of her career. She topped her previous career of eight kills in a big way by hitting a .226 and racking up a match-high 25 kills.

Western dropped the first set 19-25, behind the strong serving of Rocky who led a 7-0 run the Bulldogs couldn't recover from.

In a second set that saw seven lead changes and 10 ties, the home team took control down 20-19 by scoring six of the final seven points to knot the game at one set a piece.

After losing the first point in the decisive fifth-set, Montana Western took control by scoring five consecutive points behind the play of Ness and sophomore middle Tessa Miller. The Bears would not go away easily as they cut deficit to one point as they trailed 7-6, before the Bulldogs took control and won the set 15-9.

The Frontier Conference victory was the first for Montana Western in exactly one year, as they defeated the University of Great Falls in straight sets on Halloween night in 2014.

Montana Western will return to action as they travel to Great Falls and Montana Tech on November 6th and 7th to wrap-up Frontier Conference play, both games will start at 7 p.m.
