ACCLAIMED CERAMICS ARTISTS VISIT MONTANA WESTERN

Visiting ceramics artists Jeni Hansen-Gard and Kyungmin Park recently lectured and gave demonstrations to a Montana Western introductory ceramics class.

Both artists are currently in residence at the Archie Bray Foundation in Helena, Mont., where they are encouraged to focus intensely on their work, explore new ideas and techniques and push their work to new levels.

"Having Hansen-Gard and Park come to Montana Western connected a professional practice to the classroom, providing the students with a footprint to move towards their envisioned success," said ceramics professor Michael Hengler.

The students had the opportunity to engage with professional working artists Kyungmin Park and Jeni Hansen-Gard, who exhibit artwork nationally and internationally. They were able to observe technical skills, inquire about inspiration and motivation, and have contemporary art theory and methodology demonstrated before them.

"I believe art is powerful enough to change lives. I love the opportunity to share with these students the impact my art has made to expand their knowledge of what art is and what it can be," Hansen-Gard said. "For an introductory ceramics class it is my hope that by witnessing my passion for my art the students will become intrigued, start thinking and asking questions."

Due to UMW's Experience One program, students are able to spend three hours a day for 18 days, creating art and learning a depth of technique that wouldn't be available in a traditional university setting.

"I wanted to inspire these students, spark their interest and give them hope that an artist can make a living doing what they love," Park said.

The Archie Bray Foundation is a public, non-profit education institute founded in 1951 whose primary mission is to provide an environment that stimulates creative work in ceramics.

Letter to the Editor

I am writing to express my deep disappointment in the recent announcement that there will not be a cost of living increase for Social Security beneficiaries next year. As healthcare costs continue to rise, the strain on seniors, like me, is becoming unmanageable especially as previous COLAs have failed to keep pace.

Though there is a growing movement in America to expand Social Security, next year's lack of COLA demands immediate action. 79% of likely voters--Democrats, Republicans and Independents support expanding Social Security benefits and paying for it by asking the wealthy to pay their fair share.

It is critical that Congress acts now to maintain dignity for seniors and people with disabilities by addressing the lack of a cost of living adjustment next year.

People like me are counting on it.

Ornament Workshop, Saturday at Public Library

The Dillon Public Library is offering a free paper ornament workshop this coming Saturday, November 7th from noon to 3:00 in the Library's basement programming room. This workshop is designed for adults and children ages 12 and up. All materials and instructions for making the ornaments will be provided. Some of the ornaments we make will be simple and require only a few steps. Others take more time and patience to complete the ornament. We are hoping to make enough ornaments during this workshop to decorate the Library's tree for this year's Festival of Trees. You will be able to keep one of the ornaments you make, but you will be given written instructions to take home for all of the ornaments.

Please join us for this fun and constructive workshop. So much of the Christmas season is focused on consumer buying and spending. Make this an exceptional holiday with the special memories of making homemade holiday decorations with your friends and family. Hope to see you @ the Library!

Bulldog men hold on for 90-84 victory over Lethbridge

Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, October 30th, 2015 – The University of Montana Western men's basketball team raced out to a 38-21 halftime lead behind the hot hand of senior Connor Woodill, before having to hold on to emerge with a 90-84 victory.

The Bulldogs (2-1) were able to get a little revenge by handing the Pronghorns a home-loss of their own as Lethbridge defeated the Bulldogs at home in the first game of the season.

Woodill, a 6-foot-4 senior, started the first half on a tear as he knocked down all four of his attempts – all three-pointers – in route to 13 first half points. Woodill's sharp-shooting rubbed off on his teammates as the Bulldogs shot 16-34 from the field, including 5-12 from behind the arc.

Woodill picked up where he left off as he knocked down his fifth three-pointer of the game on the second possession of the second half. The shot put the Bulldogs up by 20 points early in the second half and seemed to blow the game open. Lethbridge had a different plan as a three-pointer cut the lead to 57-54 with 1:50 to play in the 3rd quarter.

Montana Western was able to end the quarter with an 8-4 run putting the score at 65-58, heading into the final stanza.

Lethbridge was able to take a one-point lead before preseason All-American Dexter Williams, Jr. scored five-straight points to give the Bulldogs the lead back for good. Williams scored 22 points and grabbed 12 rebounds to lead the Bulldogs before fouling out with 1:02 remaining in the game.

Lethbridge shot 12 more free throw attempts in the contest – 35 to 23 – as a result of the sloppy defensive play in the second half. They also converted on 27 attempts compared to just 17 for the Bulldogs. Lethbridge also forced Montana Western into 20 turnovers, which almost helped them complete the late comeback.

Three other Bulldogs players joined Williams Jr. with double figures as Woodill cooled down in the second half and finished with 18 points, Kurtis Parsons added 16 points and big man Quinn Smith chipped in 13 points and eight rebounds in the contest.

Junior Shyke Smalls continued his strong start to the young season as he scored eight points, handed out seven assists, grabbed six rebounds and coming away with four steals.

His back-court partner, senior Demetrius Balark, fought of a poor shooting performance to come away with eight points, nine rebounds and five assists.

"All-in-all, it was a great balanced team effort against a well-coached team," stated Keller.

Keller also noted the great atmosphere they were able to play in during their first trip to Canada. The Bulldogs will return to the floor for an exhibition match-up against the same Lethbridge squad at 4 p.m. on Saturday.

rapidelectricmt@gmail.comWestern women improve to 3-0

Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, October 30th, 2015 – The University of Montana Western women's basketball team improved their record to a perfect 3-0 on the young 2015-16 season with a 71-53 win over the University of Lethbridge.

For the second time this season, the Lady Bulldogs were able to put away their Canadian counterparts behind the strong play of junior Molly Klinker. Klinker who scored 21 points and grabbed 16 rebounds in the first game of the season, was equally as impressive as she pumped in 19 points and tracked down 11 rebounds to lead the Bulldogs again.

Montana Western proved to be much more physical in the paint than the Pronghorns, as back-up, true freshman center Darby Schye pitched in 14 points, three rebounds and one block in just 10 minutes of action.

The Bulldogs raced out to a 22-8 first quarter lead and did not let up as they extended a 14-point lead to a 42-22 advantage at the intermission. The stingy defense of the athletic Bulldogs continued to suffocate the Pronghorn offense through the 3rd quarter, as they stretched their lead to 61-31 heading into the final frame.

"I really liked our effort the first three quarters," stated Woolley, "but we had a letdown at the start of the 4th quarter."

That letdown played to the tune of a 22-10 4th quarter run, as Lethbridge nearly doubled their point total in an effort to mount a late comeback.

Despite the offensive outburst in the final frame, Montana Western held Lethbridge to a 25% shooting percentage and 26% success rate from behind the arc. The Bulldogs also forced 20 Pronghorn turnovers.

On the other hand, the Bulldogs shot 37% from the field and made 15 free throws compared to Lethbridge's eight. After knocking down a school-record 16 three-pointers their last time out, Montana Western shot only 2-13 from three-point territory.

"The game was much more physical than we are used to," Woolley said, "but it was good to see the girls respond positively to the physicality."

Senior Sierra Higheagle tossed in 11 points, four rebounds, two steals and one block despite shooting 2-11 from the field.

Junior Aniese Palmore continued to fill the stat sheet from her point guard position as she scored eight points, grabbed nine rebounds, dished out two assists and recorded one steal.

McCall Hasquet, a senior from Missoula, Mont., also played well of the bench as she knocked down four of her eight shots in route to nine points, she also corralled five rebounds and handed out three assists.

The Bulldogs will return to action on Saturday at 12 p.m. as they take on Mount Royal University.

Local Family's Generosity Ensures
Healthcare for Generations to Come$250,000 gift from Walsh family honors history, community
If a community's strength can be measured by the commitment of its residents, the recent generosity of the Walsh Family shows that the Ruby Valley is a force to be reckoned with.On Friday, the Ruby Valley Hospital Foundation announced a $250,000 gift from Robert and Coralene Walsh and their children,
Ken and Mary Beth Walsh of Twin Bridges, Fred and Karen
(Walsh) Town of Twin Bridges, and Duane and Kathy (Walsh) Gebhardt of Cascade, Mt. The Walsh family's gift was made to honor and benefit the entire Ruby Valley community by supporting the Ruby Valley Hospital."The Ruby Valley has given a lot to our family," said Ken Walsh. "It's where we grew up, made lifelong friends, received our education, and learned to appreciate the importance of volunteering and community service.""As a family, we feel that it is important to give back in any way we can," added Ken.The Walsh family, who also owns the Ruby Valley National Bank, has a long history of generosity, both individually and through the bank. However, this is the Walsh family's largest single gift to community cause to date."The Walshes and Ruby Valley National Bank have a commendable legacy of volunteerism, philanthropy, and community involvement throughout the Ruby Valley," said John Semington, Chief Executive Officer of the Ruby Valley Hospital.
"This generous contribution represents their commitment to the health and prosperity of our residents.""The Ruby Valley Hospital is a focal point of the community, with dedicated and talented providers who serve everyone at anytime," said Ken. "Our family has always supported and believed in the importance of the hospital to this community."

Ken, who serves as president of the Ruby Valley National Bank, is the President of the hospital's Board of Trustees. His mother, Coralene, previously served on the hospital's Board of Trustees as its President and Trustee.

Built in 1964 and expanded to capacity in 1978, the Ruby Valley Hospital is the valley's healthcare hub and is as the primary medical provider for over 2,500 residents and thousands of seasonal visitors. Designated as an Acute Care Hospital and Critical Access Hospital, Ruby Valley Hospital serves seven rural communities, including Virginia City, Nevada City, Alder, Laurin, Sheridan, Twin Bridges, Silver Star. On a monthly basis the hospital manages over 500 clinic appointments and over 100 emergency visits, and those numbers continue to climb.

"Everyone at the Ruby Valley Hospital is so grateful to the Walsh family for their generosity, as well as their ongoing support," said Semington. "This gift is such a testament to the exceptional people and exceptional care at the Ruby Valley Hospital."

"Here in the Ruby Valley, the sense of community is strong. We take care of one another," said Les Gilman, Chairman of the Ruby Valley Healthcare Foundation Board of Directors. "The Walsh family understands this."

"Our family is committed to this community," said Ken. "By making this gift, we know our family will have a positive impact on the entire community by protecting and preserving high-quality, compassionate rural healthcare for generations to come."

"And, hopefully, it will inspire others to do whatever they can to do the same."

About the Ruby Valley Hospital Foundation:

Founded in 2006, the Ruby Valley Hospital Foundation, Inc. is organized exclusively for the purpose of securing, managing, and providing financial support for the Ruby Valley Hospital and its affiliated clinics and programs. Governed by a local Board of Directors, the foundation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and contributions to it are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.

For more information about the Ruby Valley Healthcare Foundation visit <http://www.rubyvalleyhospitalfoundation.org>.
