FIRE WHISTLES

The Dillon Volunteer Fire Department had 2 calls on Wednesday to Bicentennial Apartments at 76 West Center St for smoke alarms. Both calls were false alarms.

The community is lucky to have this crew of volunteers that are willing to respond for us at any time. Thank You Dillon Volunteer Firemen!! Dillonite Daily & Womack's Printing.

MONTANA WESTERN SHOOTSPAST ST. THOMAS

On a cold and snowy night in Dillon, the Montana Western women's basketball team was on fire inside the Straugh Gymnasium as they shot 52% from the field and 41% from three-point territory to shoot their way past St. Thomas University (FL), 70-57, to improve to 5-0 on the season.

Despite shooting a mere 11-31 from the field in the first half, including 3-14 from beyond the arc, the Bulldogs came out on a tear in the second half as they knocked down 16 of 21 attempts (76%) and 6-8 from three (75%). They finished 27-52 from the field and 9-22 from three-point territory.

Holding onto a 43-38 lead entering the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs offense looked like Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde for the first 5:46 of the frame. Dr. Jekyll; Montana Western would make all six shot attempts during the stretch, including two three-pointers, to push their lead out to 13 points. Then Mr. Hyde; during their impressive offensive stretch, the Bulldogs scattered five turnovers into their lights-out shooting touch.

For the game, the visiting Bobcats from Miami, Florida were as cold as the weather, being limited to 27-65 from the field, 3-18 from downtown and 0-4 from the charity stripe.

Montana Western did an even better job of cleaning up the glass after forcing St. Thomas into tough, contested shots by limiting them to only 7 offensive rebounds on 38 missed shots.

The first half, St. Thomas forced 17 turnovers and limited the Bulldogs to 35% from the field, before halftime adjustments proved to be successful.

In the win, Montana Western was led by a trio of scorers to reach double figures; Sierra Higheagle (23), Molly Klinker (16) and Kaye Bignell (13). Higheagle's game-high 23 points came on 8-15 from the field and 4-7 from three-point territory. Klinker finished 7-9 from the field, including 2-3 from downtown. Bignell knocked down 6-9 two-point attempts.

The great second half ball movement turned into 21 assists on the evening, led by eight from Aniese Palmore who also scored seven points in the contest. Callie Kanthack pitched in with four assists and Klinker had three.

The battle of the boards was led by Klinker and Higheagle who grabbed eight rebounds apiece, followed by freshman Britt Cooper's seven rebounds off the bench.

Montana Western will return to action on Nov. 7 at 2 p.m. as they play host to St. Thomas University again.

Motor Vehicle Division Implements New Appointment Scheduling System

New Software Offers More Convenience, Flexibility for Customers

The Montana Department of Justice's Motor Vehicle Division (MVD) announced its Driver License Bureau is implementing new software for its on-line appointment scheduling services.

"This new system will significantly improve the way our Motor Vehicle Division delivers services to customers across Montana," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "It will give more Montanans the opportunity to schedule an appointment versus relying on walk-in only services, and it also works well on mobile devices. This will allow MVD's customers to plan their days and make the most efficient use of their valuable time," Attorney General Fox added.

MVD Administrator Sarah Garcia said, "The new software replaces an eight-year-old system and brings not only a new look, but an inviting ease of use for customers taking advantage of scheduling online. The design of the system allows for a much more efficient manner of scheduling, editing, or canceling appointments. We know this is a valuable service to Montana residents; our goal is to expand this system statewide."

Currently, the following driver exam stations require scheduled appointments: Billings, Bozeman, Columbus, Eureka, Glendive, Great Falls, Helena, Kalispell, Miles City, Missoula, Red Lodge, Sidney, Superior, and Townsend. All other driver exam stations operate on a first-come, first-served basis.

The new appointment scheduling system was implemented in Bozeman last week; Stevensville is expected to go on-line this week.

Customers are encouraged to visit the Driver Services section of the Montana Department of Justice's website at www.dojmt.gov/driving. It offers details about required documentation, fees, and other important information people need to know before scheduling appointments, including written and road tests, converting an out-of-state license to Montana, license renewals, and completion of some types of driver education programs. Once an appointment has been made, an email or text message will be sent to confirm.

People who do not have computer or smart phone access should call the MVD Customer Service Center toll free at 1-866-450-8034 to schedule an appointment.

The JRBSC is a Montana-wide event which encourages innovation and creative thinking among university students interested in business. The JRBSC is Montana's premiere opportunity for students attending any college or university across Montana to present new businesses and social entrepreneurship venture ideas.

Paul Gladen, director of the Blackstone Launchpad at the University of Montana will be presenting at the JRBSC informational meeting. The Blackstone Launchpad helps students, alumni, faculty, and staff turn their ideas, skill and passions into real world businesses and non-profit organizations.

Gladen has been director of Blackstone Launchpad since 2014 and facilitates the JRBSC for the University of Montana.

"We're excited that Gladen is able to present at our JRBSC informational meeting," said business professor Fred Chilson. "The JRBSC is a great competition for business students and entrepreneurs to gain some hands-on experience before entering the business world."

All interested students are encouraged to participate, regardless of major.

The Business Startup Challenge informational meeting will be held in the Lewis and Clark Room in Mathews Hall on the Montana Western campus.

State Warns Montanans of Lottery Scams

False promises of "free" $1 million from Powerball and Mega Millions online

The Montana Department of Justice and the Montana Lottery are teaming up once again to warn the public about two lottery scams making the rounds on social media, e-mail, and other avenues. The messages claim: "Mega Millions/ Powerball is giving free $1 million jackpot online instantly."

Montana Lottery Director Angela Wong said, "These online scams are not connected in any way to the real Powerball or Mega Millions games. The only way to play Powerball or Mega Millions and possibly win a prize is to buy your tickets from a state lottery or a licensed lottery retailer. If you don't buy a ticket from a licensed lottery retailer, you can't win."

"Scammers are now incorporating the use of social media into the ways they try to trick the public into falling for one of their scams," said Attorney General Tim Fox. "Never click on any links associated with online jackpots, whether you see them on Facebook or in an e-mail message, even if they have what appears to be an official-looking name or logo. And as always, never provide any personal or financial information to a scammer, especially your Social Security number, your credit card numbers, or your bank account number."

The Federal Trade Commission has more information on fake lottery and other scams at <http://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0086-international-lottery-scams>. To file a complaint or get free information, call toll-free 1-877-FTC-HELP (1-877-382-4357). If you've been the victim of a scam, contact your local law enforcement. You may also report scams to the Montana Department of Justice's Consumer Protection Office at:
