James Eighorn

James Eighorn passed away on the 7th of November at his home in Maidenrock surrounded by his family and a lifetime of treasures, deemed priceless with historic values by none other than the old storyteller himself.

Jim was born to George (Shorty) and Mabel Eighorn on May 24, 1933 in his Grandma Seidnick's house in Butte.

He grew up at the ranch west of Melrose until it was sold, and shortly thereafter, his father passed away from Rocky Mountain

Tick Fever leaving him pretty much on his own at the ripe old age of fourteen. He worked on various ranches around the valley into his late teens. This is when he met Miss Gloria May Dupuis. They were married on February 18, 1952 and the tall, lanky teenager became a jack of all trades, which included, but was not limited to ranching, mining, and crane operating, and doing whatever it took to provide for his wife and children.

A history buff by nature, Jim spent a lifetime gathering and collecting historic artifacts from the surrounding area and beyond, pouring over The Hecla Mining Company's ledgers, diaries and cancelled checks, and constantly searching for something he might have missed.

Dad will be remembered by his wit and charm (or not so much) and a dry sense of humor, and his ability to turn a good story into a great story. He will also be remembered by his uncanny ability to not only create and build, but to also fix and repair anything that friends and neighbors would bring over. He was a lifelong member of the Church of the Big Hole and his life was a witness to his faith in God.

Jim was preceded in death by his wife, Gloria, their son, Jess, and his brother, Donald Bechtold.

He is survived by his children, Julie (Larry) Boksich, Toni (Dixon) Robison, Marta Nicholls, and Luke (Joel) Eighorn; 15 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren; as well as sister, Margaret Epperson, sister-in-law Ann Bechtold, sister-in-law Eddie Lou (Dean) Stanchfield, brother-in-law Dennis (Helen) Dupuis, brother-in-law, Russel (Donna) Dupuis, sister-in-law Vicki (Dan) Heckford and numerous nieces and nephews.

A visitation is scheduled for Friday, November 13 at Brundage Funeral Home, 300 S Atlantic St. in Dillon from 5 - 8 PM with a vigil service between 6:30 and 7. Services will be held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, November 14 at the Church of the Big Hole in Melrose. Memorials may be made to the Church of the Big Hole, P.O. Box 52, Melrose, MT 59743, or the Melrose Volunteer Fire Department, P.O. Box 99, Melrose, MT 59743. Special thanks to Dr. McIntyre and her nurse, Laurie Butori, Dr. Pickens, Barrett Hospital Home Healthcare, as well as his caregivers, Peggy, Brenda, Frances, and Joan. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Earl T. Myers (68)

Earl T. Myers (68) of Monida, Montana passed away in the morning hours of Tuesday October 27th.

He is survived by: his daughter Michele (Bruce) Harper, his son Micheal (Sandra) Myers, six granddaughters, and seven great-grandchildren.

His happiest moments were spent sharing a cup of coffee with anyone willing to lend an ear, splitting firewood, watching his dog chase gophers, and having a pop and KitKat with his favorite Monida resident, Hannah Smith.

Services were held by his immediate family and his wishes to be forever in the mountains of Southwest Montana were honored. He will be greatly missed by all of us blessed enough to be his friends.

A MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDANT OF THE MARINE CORPS

When the Continental Congress raised up two battalions of Marines in 1775, it launched the greatest fighting force the world has ever known – a force revered globally for its uncommon valor, unparalleled adaptability, and ferocious tenacity. Over the past 240 years, the battlefields and equipment have changed, but the spirit of the United States Marine Corps has prevailed in every clime and place.

One hundred years ago, Marine Corps Recruit Depot Parris Island opened its doors as the first base dedicated solely to making Marines. Since then, hundreds of thousands of men and women have been forged into elite warriors at Parris Island, Marine Corps Recruit Depot San Diego, and The Basic School in Quantico. Each recruit had a different reason for stepping onto the yellow footprints, but all are unified by the intangible traits that characterize United States Marines and the remarkable legacy that has carried on across generations.

Whether you served on the hallowed grounds of Belleau Wood, fought on the iconic island battlefields of World War II, navigated the harsh terrain and climate of the Chosin Reservoir or Vietnam, conducted assaults during Desert Storm, marched on Baghdad, fought in close combat in Fallujah, or conducted combat operations in Afghanistan, everyone who wears the Eagle, Globe and Anchor is a member of that storied legacy.

As we celebrate the 240th birthday of our Corps, we pay tribute to all who have served and we remember our fallen heroes. We take great pride in our legacy and in the fine men and women who carry our colors into the future. And we extend heartfelt thanks to our families for their steadfast support.

Our 26th Commandant, General Louis Wilson, once said, "In the last analysis, what the Marine Corps becomes is what we make of it during our respective watches. And that watch of each Marine is not confined to the time he spends on active duty. It lasts as long as he is 'proud to bear the title of United States Marine.'" Thank you all for guarding the legacy of our Corps during your watch.

Happy Birthday, Marines!

Semper Fidelis,

Robert B. Neller

IRS Impersonation Scam

Attorney General Tim Fox warned Montanans about aggressive and sometimes threatening phone calls from scammers impersonating agents of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

Basically, the callers come across as angry and aggressively hunt for your personal information, while demanding that money be wired to them immediately or a lawsuit or jail time will follow. Consumers should keep in mind that the IRS doesn't cold-call people and demand payment by phone. People receiving these calls should do the following:

1. Don't provide any bank account or other personal or financial information to a person or company that you don't know.
2. Don't wire money to a person or company you don't know.
3. Hang up.

Bulldog women improve to 6-0 with the win over St. Thomas University

The University of Montana Western women's basketball team improved to 6-0 with their second consecutive victory over the St. Thomas University Bobcats. Just as they did on Wednesday night, the Bulldogs were able to shoot a high percentage and in route to an 82-49 over the visitors from Florida. (stats)

Montana Western took a 43-30 lead into halftime behind a balanced effort, led by 12 first half points from Kaye Bignell.

On Wednesday, Coach Lindsay Woolley was pleased with his squads defensive effort, the third quarter on Saturday afternoon made him even happier. The Bulldogs clamped down defensively and turned Bobcat turnovers into fast break lay-ups as they went on a 22-2 run that spanned the entire third period.

With the game in hand with a 65-32 lead to start the final frame, the Bulldogs frequently had a lineup featuring four freshmen and a sophomore. Sophomore Sierra Bignell scored seven points in the fourth quarter to pace the young Bulldog lineup.

Kaye Bignell led four Bulldogs to score double-digits on the night with 17 points on 8-13 shooting from the field. Kaye was followed by cousin Sierra Bignell - 14 points on 5-6 from the field including two three-pointers - as Molly Klinker and Aniese Palmore pitched in 10 points apiece.

Klinker and freshman Darby Schye led the 'Dawgs with seven boards each, Schye also scored five points of the bench.

Callie Kanthack dished out four assists to lead the team, Palmore and Dani Baker each had three assists in the game.

The 6-0 start is the best to begin a season since 2011-12, Woolley's first season at the helm of the Bulldogs. They started 7-0 that season, before finishing with a 15-13 overall record.

Montana Western will return to action on Nov. 13 and 14 as they will travel to Lewiston, Idaho for the Twin Rivers Physical Therapy Classic that is hosted by Lewis-Clark State College. They will face College of Idaho and Corban College.
